DIGEST 2015 Regular Session

White

Present constitution exempts from ad valorem property taxes inventories of certain raw materials, goods, commodities, and articles imported into the state from outside the United States, or in transit through the state, under certain conditions. Also authorizes the authority or district charged with economic development or the parish governing authority of each parish to enter into contracts for the exemption of goods held in inventory by "distribution centers".

Present law allows a refundable income or corporate franchise tax credit for ad valorem property taxes paid on inventory held by manufacturers, distributors, and retailers and on natural gas held, used, or consumed in providing natural gas storage services or operating natural gas storage facilities.

Proposed constitutional amendment exempts from ad valorem property taxes inventory held by manufacturers, distributors, and retailers, and natural gas held, used, or consumed in providing natural gas storage services or operating natural gas storage facilities to be allowed as follows:

- (1) For Tax Year 2016, 25% of the value of such inventory.
- (2) For Tax Year 2017, 50% of the value of such inventory.
- (3) For Tax Year 2018, 75% of the value of such inventory.
- (4) For Tax Year 2019 and thereafter, all such inventory to be exempt.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held on October 24, 2015.

Effective January 1, 2016.
