DIGEST

SB 155 Engrossed 2020 Regular Session Luneau

Proposed law provides an exception to the present law relative to ethical standards for public servants.

Present law provides that supplementary compensation or benefits provided to a member of the faculty, administration, or staff of the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts from funds or property accruing to the benefit of the center pursuant to the approval of the board of directors for use through a foundation organized to support the center which is chartered specifically to provide aid to the center in a philanthropic manner will be deemed for purposes of present law as a supplement to his compensation to which he is duly entitled.

Present law provides that this supplement will not be considered as regular compensation from his governmental employer nor will it form any basis for governmentally supported benefits.

Proposed law includes the Jimmy D. Long, Sr. Louisiana School for Math, Science, and the Arts.

Effective August 1, 2020.
