DIGEST

Murray (SB 156)

Present law grants to an injured person or his survivors or heirs the right of direct action against the insurer within the terms and limits of the liability policy. Such action may be brought against the insurer alone, or against both the insured and the insurer jointly and in solido, in the parish in which the accident or injury occurred or in the parish in which an action could be brought against either the insured or the insurer under the general rules of venue in present law.

Present law restricts a direct action against the insurer alone to situation in which at least one of the following applies:

- The insured has been adjudged bankrupt by a court of competent jurisdiction or (1)when proceedings to adjudge an insured bankrupt have been commenced before a court of competent jurisdiction.
- The insured is insolvent. (2)
- Service of citation or other process cannot be made on the insured. (3)
- (4) When the cause of action is for damages as a result of an offense or quasi-offense between children and their parents or between married persons.
- (5) When the insurer is an uninsured motorist carrier.
- The insured is deceased. (6)

Proposed law removes the restrictions in present law regarding a direct action against the insurer alone.

Effective August 1, 2014.
