

1 C.(1) Every licensed psychologist in this state shall annually pay to the board
 2 during the month of July of each year, beginning in the year immediately subsequent
 3 to his initial license, a renewal fee to be determined annually by the board. The 4 license of any psychologist who shall fail to have his license renewed during the
 5 month of July in each and every year shall lapse; the failure to renew said license,
 6 however, shall not deprive said psychologist of the right of renewal thereafter. Such 7 lapsed license may be renewed, within a period of two years after such lapse, upon
 8 payment of a reinstatement fee equal to the current application fee and the current 9 renewal fee.

10 (2)(a) Every provisional licensed psychologist shall annually pay to the 11 board during the month of July of each year, beginning in the year immediately 12 subsequent to his initial provisional license, a renewal fee in an amount not to 13 exceed one hundred dollars. The provisional license of any psychologist who 14 shall fail to have his provisional license renewed during the month of July shall 15 lapse. Except as provided in R.S. 37:2356.2(C), a provisional license shall not 16 be reinstated.

17 (b) The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the Administrative 18 Procedure Act to implement the provisions of this Paragraph.

19 D. The board shall annually send a renewal notice to all licensed
 20 psychologists and provisional licensed psychologists licensed by the board.

21 * * *

22 §2356.2. Provisional licensed psychologist; renewal; continuing education

23 A. The board shall issue a provisional license to each person who files
 24 an application with the board upon a form and in such a manner as the board
 25 prescribes, submits the fee for a provisional license, and furnishes evidence to 26 the board that the person meets all the following requirements:

27 (1) Is at least twenty-one years of age.

28 (2) Is of good moral character.

29 (3) Is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention to

1 become a citizen. A statement by the person under oath that he is a citizen or 2 that he intends to apply for citizenship when he becomes eligible to make such
3 application shall be sufficient proof of compliance with this requirement.

4 (4) Is not in violation of any of the provisions of this Chapter and the 5 rules and regulations adopted by the board.

6 (5) Holds a doctoral degree with a major in psychology from a school or 7 college as defined in this Chapter.

8 (6) Has completed a minimum of one year experience practicing
9 psychology under the supervision of a licensed psychologist or has completed 10 an approved predoctoral internship as defined in the rules and regulations of 11 the board.

12 (7) Demonstrates professional knowledge of laws and rules regarding 13 the practice of psychology in Louisiana.

14 B. If the board reasonably believes that a person applying for a 15 provisional license or for renewal of a provisional license is not physically or 16 mentally competent to render psychological services with reasonable skill and 17 safety to his patients, or is afflicted with a disease or condition, either physical 18 or mental, which would impair his competency to render psychological services,
19 the board may request the person to submit to a physical examination by a
20 medical doctor approved by the board or submit to a mental health examination
21 by a psychologist or psychiatrist approved by the board. If the person refuses 22 to submit to the examination, the board, after a contradictory hearing and upon 23 finding reasonable cause, may issue an order requiring the person to submit to 24 the examination. A person who is ordered to submit to an examination shall not 25 be eligible for a provisional licensure or renewal of a provisional license prior 26 to such examination. Proceedings under this Subsection shall be conducted in 27 compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

28 C.(1) A provisional licensed psychologist shall be eligible for renewal of 29 licensure without regard to any subsequent changes in the requirements for

1 licensure upon payments of the fees established under R.S. 37:2354 and
2 compliance with the requirements established pursuant to this Subsection. A
3 provisional license may be renewed a maximum of three times.

4 (2) The board shall establish continuing education requirements to be
5 fulfilled prior to the renewal of a provisional license. Failure to fulfill these 6 requirements shall cause the license to lapse. A provisional license shall not be 7 reinstated if a lapse occurs unless such requirements are satisfied within six
8 months from the date of lapse.

9 D. A provisional licensed psychologist shall maintain a relationship with 10 a licensed psychologist for the purposes of clinical supervision. The supervising 11 psychologist shall have legal functioning authority over the professional 12 activities of the provisional licensed psychologist.

13 E. The board may adopt rules and regulations in accordance with the 14 Administrative Procedure Act to administer and implement the provisions of 15 this Section.

16 * * *

17 §2359. Denial, revocation, or suspension of license; provisional license

18 * * *

19 B. The board shall have the power and duty to suspend, place on probation,
20 require remediation for a specified time, revoke any license to practice psychology
21 or any provisional license to practice psychology issued by the board, or take any 22 other action specified in the rules and regulations whenever the board, by affirmative 23 vote of at least four of its five members, shall find by a preponderance of the 24 evidence that a psychologist or a provisional licensed psychologist has engaged in 25 any of the following acts or offenses:

26 * * *

27 (15) Failure to comply with mandatory reporter laws.

28 C. Proceedings for disciplinary action or for the denial or withholding of a
29 license or provisional license under the authority of this Section shall be conducted

1 in compliance with the Louisiana Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq.
 2 The board may require a person against whom disciplinary action has been taken by 3 the board after hearing to pay reasonable costs of the proceedings incurred by the 4 board for hearing and any judicial review, including attorney, stenographer, and
 5 witness fees. These costs shall be paid no later than thirty days after the adjudication
 6 by the board becomes final. No license or provisional license shall be issued,
 7 reinstated, or renewed until such costs have been paid.

8 D. The board may deny or withhold for a specified time not to exceed two
 9 years the granting of a license or provisional license to any applicant or candidate
 10 who has committed any of the acts or offenses set forth in Subsection B of this
 11 Section.

12 E. Suspension by the board of the license of a psychologist or a provisional
 13 license of a psychologist shall be for a period not exceeding two years.

14 F. A person who has been refused a license or provisional license, or whose 15 license has been revoked, under the provisions of this Section, may reapply for 16 licensure after more than two years have elapsed from the date such denial or 17 revocation is legally effective.

18 G. The board shall notify all licensed psychologists of any disciplinary action
 19 taken against a licensed psychologist or a provisional licensed psychologist.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Michelle Ducharme.

DIGEST

Martiny (SB 157)

Present law authorizes the State Board of Examiners of Psychologists (board) to license and regulate psychologists in the state.

Proposed law defines the term "provisional licensed psychologist" to mean a person provisionally licensed.

Proposed law authorizes the board to issue a provisional license to an applicant who meets certain requirements and pays an application fee in an amount not to exceed $200.

Proposed law provides that the board shall issue a provisional license to each person who files an application with the board upon a form and in such a manner as the board prescribes, submits the fee for a provisional license, and furnishes evidence to the board that the person meets all the following requirements:

- (1) Is at least 21 years of age.
- (2) Is of good moral character.
- (3) Is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention to become a citizen.
- (4) Is not in violation of certain laws and the rules and regulations adopted by the board.
- (5) Holds a doctoral degree with a major in psychology from a school or college.
- (6) Has completed a minimum of one year experience practicing psychology under the supervision of a licensed psychologist or has completed an approved predoctoral internship as defined in the rules and regulations of the board.
- (7) Demonstrates professional knowledge of laws and rules regarding the practice of psychology in Louisiana.

Proposed law provides that if the board reasonably believes that a person applying for a provisional license or for renewal of a provisional license is not physically or mentally competent to render psychological services with reasonable skill and safety to his patients, or is afflicted with a disease or condition, either physical or mental, which would impair his competency to render psychological services, the board may request the person to submit to a physical examination by a medical doctor approved by the board or submit to a mental health examination by a psychologist or psychiatrist approved by the board. Proposed law provides that if the person refuses to submit to the examination, the board, after a contradictory hearing and upon finding reasonable cause, may issue an order requiring the person to submit to the examination. A person who is ordered to submit to an examination shall not be eligible for a provisional licensure or renewal of a provisional license prior to such examination. The provisions of proposed law shall be conducted in compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

Proposed law provides that a provisional licensed psychologist shall be eligible for renewal of licensure without regard to any subsequent changes in the requirements for licensure upon payments of the fees established by proposed law and compliance with the requirements established by proposed law.

Proposed law provides for the renewal of a provisional license. A provisional license may only be renewed three times and each licensee shall pay a renewal fee in an amount not to exceed $100.

Proposed law limits the amount of times a provisional license may be renewed to a maximum of three times.

Proposed law requires the board to establish continuing education requirements that must be fulfilled prior to the renewal of a provisional license. Proposed law provides that failure to fulfill these requirements shall cause the license to lapse and shall not be reinstated unless the continuing education requirements are satisfied within six months from the date the license lapsed.

Proposed law provides that a provisional licensed psychologist shall maintain a relationship with a licensed psychologist for the purposes of clinical supervision. The supervising psychologist shall have legal functioning authority over the professional activities of the provisional licensed psychologist.

Proposed law authorizes the board to adopt rules and regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to administer and implement the provisions of proposed law.

Present law provides that the board may suspend, place on probation, require remediation for a specific time, revoke any license to practice psychology, or take any action specified in the rules and regulations whenever the board, by affirmative vote of at least four of its five members, finds by a preponderance of the evidence that a psychologist has engaged in any of the following acts:

- (1) Fraud or deception in applying for or procuring a license to practice psychology.
- (2) Practicing psychology in such a manner as to endanger the welfare of clients or patients.
- (3) Conviction of a felony. A copy of the record of conviction, certified by the clerk of the court entering the conviction, shall be conclusive evidence.
- (4) Conviction of any crime or offense which reflects the inability of the practitioner to practice psychology with due regard for the health and safety of clients or patients.
- (5) Use of repeated untruthful, deceptive, or improbable statements concerning the licensee's qualifications or the effects or results of proposed treatment, including functioning outside of one's professional competence established by education, training, and experience.
- (6) Aiding or abetting the practice of psychology by any person not licensed by the board and in violation of law.
- (7) Conviction of fraud in filing Medicare or Medicaid claims or in filing claims to any third party payor.
- (8) Exercising undue influence in such a manner as to exploit the client or patient for financial or other personal advantage to the practitioner or a third party.
- (9) The suspension or revocation by another state of a license to practice psychology. A certified copy of the record of suspension or revocation of the state making such a suspension or revocation shall be conclusive evidence thereof.
- (10) Refusal to appear before the board after having been ordered to do so in writing by a duly authorized agent of the board.
- (11) Making any fraudulent or untrue statement to the board.
- (12) Violation of the code of ethics adopted in the rules and regulations of the board or other immoral, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct as defined in the rules and regulations of the board.
- (13) Inability to practice psychology with reasonable skill and safety to patients or clients by reason of illness, inebriation, misuse of drugs, narcotics, alcohol, chemicals, or any other substance, or as a result of any mental or physical condition.
- (14) Violation of certain provisions of law or of the rules and regulations promulgated by the board thereunder.

Proposed law retains present law and authorizes the board to suspend, place on probation, require remediation for a specified time, revoke any provisional license and adds that a license or provisional license may be subject to the provisions of present law for failure to comply with mandatory reporter laws.

Present law provides that proceedings for disciplinary action or for the denial or withholding of a license shall be conducted in compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that proceedings for disciplinary action or for the denial or withholding of a provisional license shall be conducted in compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

Present law provides that the board may require a person against whom disciplinary action has been taken by the board after hearing to pay reasonable costs of the proceedings incurred by the board for hearing and any judicial review, including attorney, stenographer, and witness fees. Present law provides that such costs shall be paid no later than thirty days after the adjudication by the board becomes final and that no license be issued, reinstated, or renewed until such costs have been paid.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a provisional license shall not be issued, reinstated, or renewed until such costs have been paid.

Present law provides that the board may deny or withhold for a specified time not to exceed two years the granting of a license to any applicant or candidate who has committed any of the acts listed in present law.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that the board may deny or withhold for a specified time not to exceed two years the granting of a provisional license to any applicant or candidate who has committed any of the acts listed in present law.

Present law provides that license suspension shall be for a period not to exceed two years.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that the suspension of a provisional license shall be for a period not to exceed two years.

Present law provides that the board shall notify all licensed psychologists of any disciplinary action taken against a licensed psychologist.

Proposed law retains present law and requires the board to notify all licensed psychologists of any disciplinary action taken against a provisional licensed psychologist.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 37:2352(6) and (7), 2354(A), (B), (C), and (D), 2359(B)(intro para), and 2359(C), (D), (E), (F), and (G); adds R.S. 37:2352(8), 2356.2 and 2359(B)(15))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by Senate

Committee Amendments Proposed by Senate Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and International Affairs to the original bill

1. Defines "provisional licensed psychologist".
2. Requires the State Board of Examiners of Psychologists to send renewal notices to licensed psychologists and provisional licensed psychologists.
3. Requires a provisional licensed psychologist to maintain a relationship with a licensed psychologist for the purposes of clinical supervision.
4. Makes technical changes.