DIGEST

Martiny (SB 171)

Present law provides that certain records in the custody of the Dept. of Economic Development pertaining to an active negotiation with a person for the purpose of retaining, expanding, or attracting economic or business development in this state shall be confidential and not subject to examination as a public record for certain time periods. Further provides that present law provisions shall be void and have no effect beginning with any negotiations that begin on or after July 1, 2012.

Proposed law changes the applicable time period from "July 1, 2012" to "July 1, 2016" and retains remainder of present law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
