DIGEST

Appel (SB 194)

Present law provides that arbitration awards shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrators or a majority of the arbitrators.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that in any arbitration under the present law arising from a construction contract, the award may include an equitable apportionment of all related reasonable attorney fees and reasonable costs between the parties. These costs include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney fees, deposition fees, reasonable expert fees, filing fees, document copying fees, inspection fees, or any other related reasonable cost incurred in the handling of the arbitration claim.

Effective August 1, 2012.
