A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to amend Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the exercise of legislative power; to provide for initiative power of the electorate; to provide for the submission of initiatives to the electors; and to specify an election for submission of the proposition to electors and provide a ballot proposition.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:

§1. Legislative Power; Composition; Continuous Body; Initiative Power

Section 1.(A) Legislative Power of State. The legislative power of the state is vested in a legislature, consisting of a Senate and a House of Representatives; subject to the power reserved to the people to propose statutes and amendments to the constitution and to adopt or reject them. The Senate shall be composed of one senator elected from each senatorial district. The House of Representatives shall be composed of one representative elected from each representative district.

(B) Continuous Body. The legislature is a continuous body during the term

1 for which its members are elected; however, a bill or resolution not finally passed in
2 any session shall be withdrawn from the files of the legislature.

3 (C) An initiative measure may be proposed by presenting to the secretary
4 of state a petition that sets forth the text of the proposed statute or amendment
5 to the constitution and is certified to have been signed by electors, either in
6 person or electronically via the secretary of state's website. The secretary of 7 state shall then submit the measure at the next statewide general election.

8 Section 2. Be it further resolved that this proposed amendment shall be submitted
9 to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the statewide election to be held on October 24,
10 2015.

11 Section 3. Be it further resolved that on the official ballot to be used at said election
12 there shall be printed a proposition, upon which the electors of the state shall be permitted
13 to vote YES or NO, to amend the Constitution of Louisiana, which proposition shall read as 14 follows:

15 Do you support an amendment to give the power to propose statutes and 16 constitutional amendments and to adopt or reject them to the electorate of 17 Louisiana?

18 (Amends Article III, Section 1)

DIGEST

SB 201 Original 2015 Regular Session Gallot

Present constitution vests the legislative power in a legislature consisting of the Senate and House of Representatives and such legislature shall enact no law except by a bill introduced during a legislative session and propose no constitutional amendment except by a joint resolution introduced during a legislative session.

Proposed constitutional amendment gives citizens of Louisiana the power to propose statutes and constitutional amendments via direct initiative and present such initiatives to the electorate at the next statewide general election.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that an initiative measure must be presented to the secretary of state via a petition containing the language of the proposed statute or constitutional amendment.

Proposed constitutional amendment provides that the petitions can be signed either in person or electronically on the secretary of state's website.

Specifies submission of the amendment to the voters at the election to be held on October 24, 2015.

(Amends Const. Art. III, Sec. 1)
