of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Julie J. Baxter.

DIGEST

Martiny (SB 263)

Present law provides that for service of process on a foreign partnership, the secretary of state must send original papers either by registered mail with return receipt requested or by commercial courier.

Proposed law adds certified mail as an option for secretary of state's service of process on a foreign partnership, and removes the requirement of requesting a return receipt.

Present law provides that the secretary of state may obtain service of process on a foreign corporation or limited liability company by sending original papers either by registered mail with return receipt requested or by commercial courier.

Proposed law removes the requirement that return receipt be requested.

Present law provides that the secretary of state's service of process on an insurer's attorney-in-fact may be by registered mail with return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or by commercial courier.

Proposed law provides that the secretary of state may obtain service of process on an insurer's attorney-in-fact by registered or by certified mail, and removes the requirement that return receipt be requested.

Present law provides that the secretary of state may obtain service of process on a foreign insurer by prepaid registered mail or by commercial courier.

Proposed law removes the requirement for prepaid mailing and authorizes the secretary of state to use either registered or certified mail, or commercial courier, in order to obtain service of process on a foreign insurer.

Present law provides for the secretary of state to obtain service of process on an unauthorized insurer either by prepaid registered or certified mail with return receipt requested or by commercial courier.

Proposed law removes the requirement for prepaid mailing and authorizes the secretary of state to use either registered or certified mail, or commercial courier to obtain service of process on an unauthorized insurer. Further removes the requirement that return receipt be requested.

Effective August 1, 2012.
