§32. Duty to permit examination; prevention of alteration; payment for overtime;
copies provided; fees

A.(1) The custodian shall present any public record to any person of the age of majority who so requests. The custodian shall make no inquiry of any person who applies for a public record, except an inquiry as to the age and identification of the person and may require the person to sign a register and shall not review, examine, or scrutinize any copy, photograph, or memoranda in the possession of any such person; and shall extend to the person all reasonable comfort and facility for the full exercise of the right granted by this Chapter; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the custodian from maintaining such vigilance as is required to prevent alteration of any record while it is being examined; and provided further, that examinations of records under the authority of this Section must be conducted during regular office or working hours, unless the custodian shall authorize examination of records in other than regular office or working hours. In this event the persons designated to represent the custodian during such examination shall be entitled to reasonable compensation to be paid to them by the public body having custody of such record, out of funds provided in advance by the person examining such record in other than regular office or working hours. The custodian shall be permitted to make an inquiry regarding the specificity of the records sought by the applicant, if, after review of the initial request, the custodian is unable to ascertain what records are being requested.

(2) If the custodian reasonably determines that the request would substantially disrupt required government operations, the custodian may deny access only after reasonable attempts to narrow or specify the request with the requestor.

12 §37. Penalties for violation by custodians of records

13 Any person having custody or control of a public record, who arbitrarily or 14 capriciously violates any of the provisions of this Chapter, or any person not having 15 such custody or control who by any conspiracy, understanding, or cooperation with 16 any other person arbitrarily or capriciously hinders or attempts to hinder the 17 inspection of any public records declared by this Chapter to be subject to inspection, 18 shall upon first conviction be fined not less than one hundred dollars, and not more 19 than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned for not less than one month, nor 20 more than six months. Upon any subsequent conviction he shall be fined not less 21 than two hundred fifty dollars, and not more than two thousand dollars, or 22 imprisoned for not less than two months, nor more than six months, or both.
