AN ACT

To amend and reenact R.S. 47:1835(A), relative to the tax commission; to provide with respect to the employment of a secretary; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 47:1835(A) is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1835. Employment of secretary, clerical help and experts; creation of commission expense fund; authorization for deposits and collection of assessments

A. ~~The tax commission may appoint a secretary, at a salary to be fixed by the tax commission, who shall take the oath of office and furnish bond for the faithful performance of the duties of such office, according to law, at the expense of the tax commission, in the sum of ten thousand dollars. The secretary shall be ex officio a notary public for the state at large. The commission may appoint or employ all necessary agents, assistants, auditors, clerks, inspectors, investigators, or other experts and employees required in the defense, determination, or development of assessments, and assessment procedures, and valuation of property, including the hiring of experts such as legal counsel and analysts, auditors, appraisers, and witnesses. The commission may also pay from its expense fund expenses of the commission and its operation, travel and other expenses, costs, salaries, or compensation of the tax commission, any member, the secretary, and of its assistants, employees, and of outside experts, such costs, salaries, expenses, and compensation to be paid upon the order of the tax commission.~~
