DIGEST

Murray (SB 749)

Present law provides that the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget shall have a litigation subcommittee and further provides that no attorney representing the state or any of its departments or agencies or any of its employees entitled to indemnification under R.S. 13:5108.1 (indemnification of officers and employees of the state, civil rights, and representation by the attorney general) shall sign any compromise or settlement which obligates the state to pay more than $1,000,000 without prior consultation with the attorney general and the members of the litigation subcommittee.

Proposed law retains present law and further prohibits any person on behalf of the state or any of its departments or agencies or employees from signing any negotiation, agreement, compromise or settlement which obligates payment by the state without prior consultation with the attorney general and the members of the litigation subcommittee.

Effective July 1, 2010.

(Amends R.S. 24:653(H)(2))
