2	(2) In the case of a criminal conviction, final plea, or pre-trial diversion
3	agreement in federal court, the action for recovery pursuant to this Part may
4	be brought after the conviction or plea is final and no later than one year after
5	written notification to the attorney general of the rendering of the conviction or
6	final plea.
7	(3) Any action for recovery brought pursuant to the provisions of this
8	Part shall be filed in the Nineteenth Judicial District Court for the parish of
9	East Baton Rouge.
10	§1931.3. Civil actions authorized
11	A. No person shall knowingly commit any fraudulent insurance act as 12	defined in R.S. 22:1923 or violate any provision of R.S. 22:1924.
13	B. The attorney general may institute a civil action in the Nineteenth
14	Judicial District Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge to seek recovery from
15	any person or persons who violate any provision of R.S. 22:1924. Each violation
16	may be treated as a separate violation or may be combined into one violation at
17	the option of the attorney general.
18	C. An action by a prevailing defendant to recover costs, expenses, fees,
19	and attorney fees shall be ancillary to and shall be brought and heard in the 20	same court as the civil action brought pursuant to the provisions of Subsection
21	B of this Section.
22	D. A prevailing defendant may seek recovery only for costs, expenses,
23	fees, and attorney fees if the court finds, following a contradictory hearing, that
24	either of the following applies:
25	(1) The action was instituted by the attorney general pursuant to
26	Subsection A of this Section after it should have been determined by the
27	attorney general to be frivolous, vexatious, or brought primarily for the purpose
28	of harassment.
29	(2) The attorney general proceeded with an action properly instituted

2	the matter under investigation, shall be available for examination by any person
3	or entity except as determined by the attorney general and subject to any
4	conditions imposed by him for effective enforcement of the laws of this state.
5	Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prohibit or limit the attorney
6	general from sharing any documentary material, answers to interrogatories, or
7	copies thereof with the United States government, any other state government,
8	any federal or state agency, or any person or entity that may be assisting in the
9	investigation or prosecution of the subject matter of the civil investigative

5	§1931.12. Asset forfeiture
6	A. In accordance with the provisions of Subsection B of this Section, the 7	court may order the forfeiture of property to satisfy recovery pursuant to this
8	Part under either of the following circumstances:
9	(1) The court may order a person from whom recovery is due to forfeit
10	property which constitutes or was derived directly or indirectly from gross
11	proceeds traceable to the violation which forms the basis for the recovery.
12	(2) If the attorney general shows that property was transferred to a third
13	party to avoid paying recovery, or in an attempt to protect the property from
14	forfeiture, the court may order the third party to forfeit the transferred
15	property.
16	B. Prior to the forfeiture of property, a contradictory hearing shall be
17	held during which the attorney general shall prove by clear and convincing
18	evidence that the property in question is subject to forfeiture pursuant to
19	Subsection A of this Section. No such contradictory hearing shall be required
20	if the owner of the property in question agrees to the forfeiture.
21	C. If property is transferred to another person within six months prior
22	to the occurrence or after the occurrence of the violation for which recovery is
23	due or within six months prior to or after the institution of a criminal, civil, or
24	departmental investigation or proceeding, it shall be prima facie evidence that
25	the transfer was intended to avoid paying recovery or was an attempt to protect
26	the property from forfeiture.
27	D. The healthcare provider or other person from whom recovery is due
28	shall have an affirmative duty to fully disclose all property and liabilities and
29	all transfers of property which meet the criteria of Subsection C of this Section
30	to the court and the attorney general.
