

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 104

BY SENATOR CLAITOR AND REPRESENTATIVE FOIL

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commend James B. Smith upon his graduation from college at the age of sixteen.

WHEREAS, as James B. Smith has the distinction of being the youngest person ever to receive a degree from Louisiana State University, it is appropriate for the Legislature of Louisiana to commend and congratulate him for graduating Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science, from the Louisiana State University College of Engineering on May 15th, 2015, and to recognize this outstanding academic achievement; and

WHEREAS, James B. Smith was homeschooled, completed high school and enrolled at Louisiana State University at the age of thirteen; and

WHEREAS, he is also an accomplished musician who plays piano for the children's ministry at his church; and

WHEREAS, James B. Smith is the oldest of eight siblings and son of Brian and Corinna Smith; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate for the Legislature of Louisiana to recognize and congratulate James B. Smith for his outstanding academic achievement.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend James B. Smith for having the distinction of being the youngest person ever to receive a degree from Louisiana State University and does hereby extend to him best wishes for continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to James B. Smith.
