

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 173

BY SENATOR DUPLESSIS

A RESOLUTION

To commend and recognize Elijah Hogan for his academic achievements and resilience.

WHEREAS, Elijah Hogan, a Louisiana high school senior, demonstrated exceptional academic prowess by graduating at the top of his class with the highest-earned GPA of 3.9688 at Walter L. Cohen High School in New Orleans; and

WHEREAS, Elijah, despite facing homelessness for the past year and a half, exhibited unwavering determination and resilience in pursuing his education, embodying the spirit of perseverance and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Elijah's journey from homelessness to valedictorian serves as an inspiring example of overcoming adversity and succeeding against the odds, proving that with perseverance and support, anything is possible; and

WHEREAS, Elijah's remarkable achievement is a testament to his character, hard work, and the support he received from the Covenant House, a homeless shelter in New Orleans, as well as his extended family members and the staff at his high school, all of whom he specifically credited in his graduation speech to his classmates; and

WHEREAS, Elijah was awarded a full scholarship to Xavier University and intends to begin his college career majoring in graphic design; and

WHEREAS, Elijah Hogan's story serves as a beacon of hope and encouragement for all young people, regardless of their circumstances, inspiring them to pursue their dreams with determination and resilience.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and recognize Elijah Hogan for his outstanding academic achievement, perseverance, and resilience in the face of adversity and extends its heartfelt congratulations on his remarkable accomplishment and best wishes for his continued success in all his future endeavors.
