

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 44

BY SENATOR MORRELL

A RESOLUTION

To commend and congratulate the Brother Martin High School wrestling team upon its win of the 2011-2012 Louisiana High School Athletic Association State Wrestling Championship Tournament for Division I.

WHEREAS, Brother Martin High School's wrestling team had an outstanding season which culminated in a total of 283 points in February 2012, edging out top rivals Catholic High of Baton Rouge and defending state champions, Rummell of New Orleans; and

WHEREAS, Brother Martin sets very high standards for both academics and athletics with a rich history of wrestling competition, as demonstrated by the fact that this triumph is its thirteenth state wrestling championship since 1979; and

WHEREAS, this year's team became a cohesive unit with a singular unifying motto, "One Team - One Dream", which brought their state title aspirations to fruition; and

WHEREAS, the Crusaders of Brother Martin cemented their victory through the superior leadership and training of head coach, Robert Dauterive, and assistant coaches James Casadaban, J. P. Lockett, Adam Manguno, Casey Perino, and J. P. Pierre; and

WHEREAS, the competing members in tournament play were, by ascending weight class, Paul Klein, Blake Schmidt, Dominic Casadaban, Tyler Robertson, Logan Labry, Devin LeBlanc, John Mudge, Austin Ivceovich, Daniel Albrecht, Kyle Delaune, Dylan Dunn, Gerard Roman, Raymond Riviere, and Ross Brister; and

WHEREAS, all members of the wrestling team are to be congratulated for the honor and distinction they bring to the student body, faculty, and alumni of Brother Martin High School, to the city of New Orleans, and to the state of Louisiana.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and congratulate Brother Martin High School on its win of the 2011-2012 Division I LHSAA Wrestling State Championship for the state of Louisiana.
