Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- SECTION 1. Section 91 of Chapter 231 is hereby amended by inserting in the following new paragraph:-
- A plaintiff with the intent of filing against a defendant under this section, but is unable to
- 4 do so because of a lack of a real name of the person committing the act and said real name is
- 5 being held by a third party who provides the forum, which includes, but not limited to, paper,
- 6 Internet and Telecommunications, by which the defendant is able to commit such an act. The
- 7 third party shall release the name, address and relative contact information to the plaintiff within
- 8 ten days of the plaintiff's request; provided that the plaintiff states the intent is the file an action
- 9 against the defendant under this section. Should the third party not comply with the plaintiff's
- request, the plaintiff may seek a court order from district court, seeking the third party to release

- the information, so the plaintiff can initiate a filing against a defendant. The district court may
- impose penalties for non-compliance of a court order on the third party if there is no compliance.
