HOUSE No. 1063

By Ms. Decker of Cambridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1063) of Marjorie C. Decker, Mike Connolly and Solomon Goldstein-Rose for legislation to increase access to treatment for behavioral health disorders. Mental Health, Substance Use and Recovery.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 3459 OF 2015-2016.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act Providing for efficient access to mental health services.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 17K the following section:-

3 SECTION 17L. (a) For purposes of this section, “behavioral health treatment” shall mean 4 counseling and treatment programs, including applied behavior analysis that are necessary to 5 develop or restore, to the maximum extent practicable, the functioning of an individual.

6 (b) Any coverage offered by the commission for behavioral health treatment to an active 7 or retired employee of the commonwealth insured under the group insurance commission shall 8 continue to cover payment for an existing patient receiving such treatment until such treatment is 9 no longer medically necessary, regardless of the non-renewal of any contract the commission has

10 with a provider of such treatment. Such continued coverage shall be consistent with terms of the 11 coverage or contract in place at the time of non-renewal and the usual and customary utilization 12 management processes.

13 (c) This section shall not prohibit a provider of behavioral health treatment from 14 collecting any portion of a deductible for treatment rendered.

15 (d) The commission shall give no fewer than 180 days notice to providers of behavioral 16 health treatment of any decision to not renew a contract with that provider.

17 (e) The commissioner shall show cause for not renewing a contract for the provision of 18 behavioral health treatment and shall demonstrate that any lawful communication concerning 19 regulations and statutes that impact service delivery is not a factor in said non-renewal.

20 SECTION 2. Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 21 section 47DD the following section:-

22 Section 47EE. (a) For purposes of this section, “behavioral health treatment” shall mean 23 counseling and treatment programs, including applied behavior analysis that are necessary to 24 develop or restore, to the maximum extent practicable, the functioning of an individual.

25 (b) Any individual policy of accident and sickness insurance issued pursuant to section 26 108 and any group blanket policy of accident and sickness insurance issued pursuant to section 27 110 that is delivered, issued or renewed within or without the commonwealth that provides 28 coverage for behavioral health treatment shall continue to cover payment for an existing patient 29 receiving such treatment until such treatment is no longer medically necessary, regardless of the 30 non-renewal of any contract with a provider of such treatment. Such continued coverage shall be

31 consistent with terms of the policy, contract, agreement, plan or certificate of insurance in place 32 at the time of non-renewal and the usual and customary utilization management processes.

33 (c) This section shall not prohibit a provider of behavioral health treatment from 34 collecting any portion of a deductible for treatment rendered.

35 (d) Any policy shall give no fewer than 180 days notice to providers of behavioral health 36 treatment of any decision to not renew a contract with that provider.

37 (e) The policy shall show cause for not renewing a contract for the provision of 38 behavioral health treatment and shall demonstrate that any lawful communication concerning 39 regulations and statutes that impact service delivery is not a factor in said non-renewal.

40 SECTION 3. Chapter 176A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 41 section 8FF the following section:-

42 Section 8GG. (a) For purposes of this section, “behavioral health treatment” shall mean 43 counseling and treatment programs, including applied behavior analysis that are necessary to 44 develop or restore, to the maximum extent practicable, the functioning of an individual.

45 (b) Any contract between a subscriber and the corporation under an individual or group 46 hospital service plan which is delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth that 47 provides coverage for behavioral health treatment shall continue to cover payment for an existing 48 patient receiving such treatment until such treatment is no longer medically necessary, regardless 49 of the non-renewal of any contract a corporation has with a provider of such treatment. Such 50 continued coverage shall be consistent with terms of the contract in place at the time of non-51 renewal and the usual and customary utilization management processes.

52 (c) This section shall not prohibit a provider of behavioral health treatment from 53 collecting any portion of a deductible for treatment rendered.

54 (d) The corporation shall give no fewer than 180 days notice to providers of behavioral
55 health treatment of any decision to not renew a contract with that provider.

56 (e) The corporation shall show cause for not renewing a contract for the provision of 57 behavioral health treatment and shall demonstrate that any lawful communication concerning 58 regulations and statutes that impact service delivery is not a factor in said non-renewal.

59 SECTION 4. Chapter 176B of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 60 section 4FF the following section:-

61 Section 4GG. (a) For purposes of this section, “behavioral health treatment” shall mean 62 counseling and treatment programs, including applied behavior analysis that are necessary to 63 develop or restore, to the maximum extent practicable, the functioning of an individual.

64 (b) Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service agreement 65 delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth that provides coverage for behavioral 66 health treatment shall continue to cover payment for an existing patient receiving such treatment 67 until such treatment is no longer medically necessary, regardless of the non-renewal of any 68 contract a medical service corporation has with the provider of such treatment. Such continued 69 coverage shall be consistent with terms of the certificate or agreement in place at the time of 70 non-renewal and the usual and customary utilization management processes.

71 (c) This section shall not prohibit a provider of behavioral health treatment from 72 collecting any portion of a deductible for treatment rendered.

73 (d) A medical service corporation shall give no fewer than 180 days notice to providers
74 of behavioral health treatment of any decision to not renew a contract with that provider.

75 (e) A medical service corporation shall show cause for not renewing a contract for the 76 provision of behavioral health treatment and shall demonstrate that any lawful communication 77 concerning regulations and statutes that impact service delivery is not a factor in said non-78 renewal.

79 SECTION 5. Chapter 176G of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 80 section 4X the following section:-

81 Section 4Y. (a) For purposes of this section, “behavioral health treatment” shall mean 82 counseling and treatment programs, including applied behavior analysis that are necessary to 83 develop or restore, to the maximum extent practicable, the functioning of an individual.

84 (b) Any individual or group health maintenance contract that provides coverage for 85 behavioral health treatment shall continue to cover payment for an existing patient receiving 86 such treatment until such treatment is no longer medically necessary, regardless of the non-87 renewal of any contract a health maintenance organization has with a provider of such treatment.
88 Such continued coverage shall be consistent with terms of the contract in place at the time of 89 non-renewal and the usual and customary utilization management processes.

90 (c) This section shall not prohibit a provider of behavioral health treatment from 91 collecting any portion of a deductible for treatment rendered.

92 (d) A health maintenance organization shall give no fewer than 180 days notice to 93 providers of behavioral health treatment of any decision to not renew a contract with that 94 provider.

95 (e) A health maintenance organization shall show cause for not renewing a contract for 96 the provision of behavioral health treatment and shall demonstrate that any lawful 97 communication concerning regulations and statutes that impact service delivery is not a factor in 98 said non-renewal.

99 SECTION 6. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, shall apply to all policies, contracts and 100 certificates of health insurance subject to section 17L of chapter 32A, section 47EE of chapter
101 175, section 8GG of chapter 176A, section 4GG of chapter 176B and section 4Y of chapter 176G
102 of the General Laws which are delivered, issued or renewed on or after the effective date of this 103 act.
