In the One Hundred and Ninety-Fourth General Court
(2025-2026)

An Act promoting consumer choice regarding the use of credit trigger leads.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 51 of Chapter 93 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2   Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding after paragraph (b), the following three
3   paragraphs:

4           (c) a consumer reporting agency shall not engage in or offer any service whereby the
5   agency sells or otherwise makes available to a third party any information pertaining to a loan
6   application a consumer has made with a bank, credit union, federal bank, foreign bank, out-of-
7   state bank or out-of-state federal bank as defined in chapter 167 , a federal credit union as
8   defined in section 1 of chapter 171 and a foreign and out-of-state credit union as defined in 9   section 8A of chapter 171, a mortgage lender as defined in chapter 255E or an entity subject to 10   section 96 of chapter 140, unless the consumer has consented to make said information available
11   to third parties.

(d) Every financial lending institution as referred to in paragraph (c) shall, provide notice to any consumer of his right to opt into any service whereby the agency sells or otherwise makes available to a third party any information pertaining to a loan application a consumer has made, and clearly and accurately disclose to the consumer, in substantially the following manner:

You have the right to opt into any offer or service provided by the financial lending institution regarding the sharing of any information on your loan application by the financial lending institution to third parties. You may opt into said offer or service by providing your consent to such offer or service on the loan application. You may be entitled to collect compensation, in certain circumstances, if you are damaged by a person's negligent or intentional failure to comply with the credit reporting act.

(e) The written notice shall be in a clear and conspicuous format and be no smaller than ten point type. The notice shall inform the consumer of the consumer's rights under this chapter, provided clearly and conspicuously on the application, in substantially the following manner:

I consent to have any information pertaining to my loan application made available to third parties for the purposes of this loan application.
