Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- Subsection 14G of Section 63 of Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by
- 3 (4) are of a bond exchange-traded fund registered under the Investment Company Act of
- 5 (a) the exchange-traded fund is solvent and reported at least $100 million of net assets in 6 the exchange-traded fund's latest annual or more recent certified audited financial statement;
- 7 (b) the exchange-traded fund operates as a corporation, trust, or substantially similar legal
- 8 structure registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under the 1940
- 9 Act and its offered shares are registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act").
- 10 Each individual exchange-traded fund shall be treated as a separate investment company or
- issuer for purposes of the disclosure, liability and investor protection provisions of the 1940 Act
- and other federal securities laws;

(c) the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Securities Valuation Office ("NAIC-SVO") has designated the exchange-traded fund as meeting the criteria to be placed on the list promulgated by the NAIC-SVO of exchange-traded funds eligible for reporting as a long-term bond in the Purposes and Procedures Manual ("ETF Bond List") of the NAIC-SVO or successor publication;

- (d) the exchange-traded fund uses the systematic value accounting methodology to calculate its Net Asset Value ("NAV"); and
- (e) the amount of the insurance company's investment in the exchange-traded fund does not exceed 15 percent of the insurance company's capital and surplus.
 - The provisions of the subparagraph do not authorize an insurance company to invest in bond exchange-traded funds that has embedded structural features designed to deliver performance that does not track the full unlevered and positive return of the underlying index or exposure, including a leverage or inverse exchange-traded fund.

An insurer may deposit with the department shares of a bond exchange-traded fund described by Subsection (4) as a statutory deposit if state law requires a statutory deposit from the insurer.
