The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to unborn victims of violence.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 265 the
2 following chapter 265A

3 CHAPTER 265A

4 UNBORN VICTIMS OF VIOLENCE

5 Section 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Unborn Victims of 6 Violence Act.”

7 Section 2. For purposes of this Act, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following
8 words shall have the following meanings:

9 “Bodily injury”: a substantial impairment of the physical condition, including any burn,
10 fracture of any bone, subdural hematoma, injury to any internal organ, any injury which occurs

11 as the result of repeated harm to any bodily function or organ, including human skin or any 12 physical condition which substantially imperils an unborn child's health or welfare.

13 "Serious bodily injury": bodily injury which creates a permanent disfigurement;
14 protracted loss or impairment of function of a body member, limb or organ; or substantial risk of 15 death and includes, but is not limited to, the birth of an unborn child prior to thirty-seven weeks
16 gestational age, if the child weighs 2,500 grams or less at the time of birth. As used in this
17 section, "serious bodily injury," does not include the inducement of the unborn child's birth
18 when done for bona fide medical purposes.

19 "Unborn child": the individual human life in existence and developing from conception
20 until death.

21 "Any person": does not include the pregnant woman whose unborn child is killed or 22 injured.

23 "Without lethal justification": acting under circumstances in which the use of lethal force
24 is not legally justified.

25 Section 3. Murder of an unborn child; punishment

26 (a) Any person, who without lawful justification, causes the death of an unborn child
27 commits murder of an unborn child in the first degree, if that person acts with deliberately
28 premeditated malice aforethought, or with extreme atrocity or cruelty, or in the commission or 29 attempted commission of a crime punishable with death or imprisonment for life.

30 (b) Any person, who without lawful justification, commits murder of an unborn child that 31 does not appear to be murder in the first degree, commits murder of an unborn child in the 32 second degree.

33 (c) The degree of murder shall be found by a jury.

34 (d) Except as provided in subsection (e), any person who is found guilty of murder of an 35 unborn child in the first degree shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and 36 shall not be eligible for parole pursuant to section 133A of chapter 127.

37 (e) Any person, who is found guilty of murder of an unborn child in the first degree, who 38 committed the offense on or after that person's fourteenth birthday and before the person's 39 eighteenth birthday, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall be
40 eligible for parole after the term of years fixed by the court, pursuant to section 24 of chapter
41 279.

42 (f) Any person, who is found guilty of murder of an unborn child in the second degree,
43 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life and shall be eligible for parole after 44 the term of years fixed by the court pursuant to section 24 of chapter 279.

45 (g) Any person, whose sentence for murder of an unborn child is commuted by the 46 governor and council pursuant to section 152 of chapter 127, shall thereafter be subject o the 47 laws governing parole.

48 Section 4. Voluntary manslaughter of an unborn child; punishment.

49 Voluntary manslaughter of an unborn child is punishable by imprisonment in the state
50 prison for not more than twenty years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars and
51 imprisonment in jail or a house of correction for not more than two and half years.

52 Section 5. Involuntary manslaughter of an unborn child; punishment.

53 Involuntary manslaughter of an unborn child is punishable by imprisonment in the state
54 prison for not more than twenty years or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars and
55 imprisonment in jail or a house of correction for not more than two and a half years.

56 Section 6. Assault upon an unborn child; punishment.

57 (a) Any person, who without legal justification, does any of the following commits
58 assault upon an unborn child: (1) does any act with the intent to cause fear of immediate bodily
59 harm to a woman, knowing or having reason to know that she is pregnant, or with the intent to 60 cause fear of the death of her unborn child to a woman, knowing or having reason to know that
61 she is pregnant; or (2) intentionally inflicts, or attempts to inflict, bodily injury on an unborn
62 child, who is subsequently born alive.

63 (b) Assault upon on unborn child shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than
64 two and a half years in a house of correction, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

65 Section 7. Battery upon an unborn child; punishment.

66 (a) Any person, who without legal justification, inflicts serious bodily injury upon an
67 unborn child, who is subsequently born alive, by intentionally or knowingly touching a woman
68 without her consent, knowing or having reason to know that she is pregnant, commits battery of 69 an unborn child.

70 (b) Battery of an unborn child, resulting in serious bodily injury shall be punished by 71 imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or imprisonment in a house of 72 correction for not more than two and a half years or by a fine of not more than five thousand
73 dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

74 Section 8. Assault and battery upon an unborn child; punishment.

75 (a) Any person who commits an assault and battery upon an unborn child and by such 76 assault and battery causes bodily injury shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for
77 not more than five years or imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than two and a
78 half years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and 79 imprisonment.

80 (b) Any person who commits and assault and battery upon an unborn child and by such
81 assault and battery causes serious bodily injury shall be punished by imprisonment in the state
82 prison for not more than fifteen years or imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than 83 two and a half years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and 84 imprisonment.

85 Section 9. Exceptions.

86 This Act does not apply to:

87 (a) Acts which cause the death of an unborn child, if those acts were committed during a
88 legal abortion to which the pregnant woman consented.

89 (b) Acts which are committed pursuant to usual and customary standards of medical 90 practice during diagnostic testing or therapeutic treatment.

91           Section 10. Other convictions not barred.

92           A prosecution for, or conviction under, this Act is not a bar to conviction of, or 93   punishment for, any other crime committed by the defendant as part of the same conduct.
