In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to traffic stops.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 98A of Chapter 41 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the section in its entirety and replacing it 3 thereof with the following paragraph:-

4 A police officer of a city or town may stop a person or vehicle in a city or town that 5 borders the officers city or town if the officer has reason to believe that the person or vehicle 6 recently traveled through his or her city or town under circumstances where the officer would 7 have had the authority to stop the person or vehicle for the purpose of making an arrest, placing 8 an operator in protective custody, issuing a citation or taking any other enforcement action. Said
9 officer may return any person so arrested or placed in protective custody to the jurisdiction
10 wherein said offence was committed or other condition or violation was observed. No criminal 11 case shall be dismissed, and no evidence in a criminal case shall be suppressed, based on the fact 12 that a stop of a person or motor vehicle did not comport with this section. Nothing contained in 13 this section shall be construed as limiting the powers of a police officer to make arrests and in so 14 far as possible this section shall be deemed to be declaratory of the common law of the 15 commonwealth.
