In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to the judicial enforcement of noncompetition agreements.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 149 of the General Laws of Massachusetts shall be amended by inserting the 2 following as Section 19D:

3 Section 19D. Noncompetition Agreements

4 Any written or oral agreement arising out of an employment or independent contractor 5 relationship that prohibits, impairs, restrains, restricts, or places any condition on a person's 6 ability to seek, engage in, or accept any type of employment or independent contractor work, for 7 any period of time after an employment or independent contractor relationship has ended, shall,
8 to that extent, be void and unenforceable. This section does not render void or unenforceable the 9 remainder of the agreement containing the unenforceable noncompetition agreement, nor does it

10 preclude the imposition by a court, through a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, 11 permanent injunction, or otherwise, of a noncompetition restriction as a provisional or permanent 12 remedy for a breach of another contractual obligation or violation of a statutory or common law
13 duty. Nor shall this section affect (i) covenants not to solicit or hire employees or independent 14 contractors of the employer; (ii) covenants not to solicit or transact business with customers,
15 clients, or vendors of the employer; (iii) nondisclosure agreements; (iv) noncompetition 16 agreements made in connection with the sale of a business or partnership or substantially all of 17 the assets of a business, when the party restricted by the noncompetition agreement is an owner 18 of, or partner with, at least a ten percent interest of the business who received significant 19 consideration for the sale; (v) noncompetition agreements outside of an employment or 20 independent contractor relationship; (vi) forfeiture agreements; or (vii) agreements by which an 21 employee agrees to not reapply for employment to the same employer after termination of the 22 employee.

23 This section shall apply to all contracts and agreements executed after the effective date 24 of this act.
