The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to promote efficient access to mental health services .

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Behavioral Health plans must give no fewer than 180 days notice to behavioral health
2 providers of any decision to not renew a contract.

3 Further, Health Plans must show cause for not renewing provider contracts, and must
4 demonstrate that any lawful communication concerning regulations and statutes that effect
5 service delivery is not a factor in said non-renewal.

6 Further, should a Behavioral Health Plan not renew a behavioral health provider contract,
7 said plan must continue to cover payment for an existing patient receiving services prior to the 8 termination date of the contract, until such treatment is no longer medically necessary consistent
9 with terms of contract in place at the time of non-renewal and usual and customary utilization
10 management processes.

11 Further, Behavioral Health Providers shall not be prohibited from collecting any portion 12 of a deductible for services rendered at the time of service.
