[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 1511 OF 2019-2020.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act relative to privileged communications.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 15 of chapter 19A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:-

3 (g) This section shall not apply to a person who is retained by an attorney to assist the 4 attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
5 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the information that 6 provides reasonable cause for the person to believe that an elderly person is suffering from or has 7 suffered from abuse became known to the person in connection with his or her retention by the 8 attorney or his or her employment by the legal service provider.

9 SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 19C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
10 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “condition.”, in line 33, the 11 following:-

12 A “mandated reporter” shall not include a person who is retained by an attorney to assist
13 the attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
14 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the person becomes 15 aware of a reportable condition in connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or 16 her employment by a legal service provider.

17 SECTION 3. Section 10 of said chapter 19C, as appearing in the 2018 Official Edition, is 18 hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:-

19 This section shall not apply to a person who is retained by an attorney to assist the 20 attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
21 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the person becomes 22 aware of a reportable condition in connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or 23 her employment by a legal service provider or if the information that provides reasonable cause
24 for the person to believe that a disabled person is suffering from or has suffered from abuse
25 became known to the person in connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or her 26 employment by a legal service provider. Notwithstanding subsection (b) of section 3, the 27 commission may not promulgate rules or regulations to require such a person to notify the 28 commission of such reportable condition or abuse.

29 SECTION 4. Section 72G of chapter 111 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
30 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:-

31 This section shall not apply to a person who is retained by an attorney to assist the 32 attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
33 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the information that 34 provides reasonable cause for the person to believe that a patient or resident has been abused, 35 mistreated, or neglected or has had property misappropriated became known to the person in 36 connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or her employment by a legal service 37 provider.

38 SECTION 5. Section 21 of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
39 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “advocate.”, in line 74, the 40 following:-

41 A “mandated reporter” shall not include a person who is retained by an attorney to assist
42 the attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
43 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the facts that provide 44 reasonable cause for the person to believe that a child is suffering physical or emotional injury
45 under the circumstances described in section 51A(a) became known to the person in connection 46 with his or her retention by the attorney or his or her employment by a legal service provider.

47 SECTION 6. Section 51A of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
48 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:-

49 (l) This section shall not apply to a person who is retained by an attorney to assist the
50 attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
51 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the information that
52 provides reasonable cause for the person to believe that a child is suffering or has suffered

53 physical or emotional injury under the circumstances described in subsection (a) became known
54 to the person in connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or her employment by 55 a legal service provider. No board of registration created under chapter 13 may require such a 56 person with such knowledge to make a report of the type described in subsection (a) as a 57 condition of registration or impose discipline on such a person under section 61 of chapter 112
58 for failing to make such a report.

59 SECTION 7. Section 51B of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
60 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (m) and inserting in place thereof
61 the following:-

62 (m) Notwithstanding any privilege created by statute or common law relating to 63 confidential communications or any statute prohibiting the disclosure of information but subject
64 to subsection (j) and to subsection (s) of section 51A, a mandated reporter shall answer questions 65 and provide information posed by the department relating to an investigation conducted under 66 this section, whether or not that person filed the 51A report being investigated. A statutory or 67 common law privilege shall not preclude the admission of any such information, other than 68 information described in subsection (s), in any civil proceeding concerning abuse or neglect of a 69 child, placement or custody of a child.

70 SECTION 8. Said section 51B of said chapter 119, as so appearing, is hereby further 71 amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:-

72 (s) This section shall not apply to a person who is retained by an attorney to assist the 73 attorney in his or her representation of an individual client or employed by a legal service
74 provider to assist its attorneys in their representation of individual clients if the information that

76 physical or emotional injury under the circumstances described in subsection (a) became known
77 to the person in connection with his or her retention by the attorney or his or her employment by 78 a legal service provider.
