The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act promoting health through workplace safety for social workers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 6A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 16S the following section:-

3 Section 16T. The executive office of health and human services shall by regulation 4 require that programs providing direct services to clients and operated by or licensed, certified,
5 or funded by a department or division of the executive office of health and human services 6 establish a workplace violence prevention and crisis response plan for social workers, human 7 services workers, volunteers, and all other employees.

8 Programs shall assess and annually review factors that may put social workers, human 9 services workers, volunteers, and all other employees at risk of workplace violence. Factors 10 shall include, but need not be limited to working outside normal business hours; working alone;
11 working with people in crisis; and working with people with known histories of violent behavior.

12 Based on the assessment and subsequent annual review, the program shall: (a) establish a 13 system for centrally recording all incidents of workplace violence or threats of workplace
14 violence against social workers, human services workers, volunteers, and all other employees; 15 (b) prepare a written violence prevention and crisis response plan that includes measures the 16 program intends to take to respond to any incident of workplace violence against social workers, 17 human services workers, volunteers and all other employees; (c) provide each employee with a 18 copy of the violence prevention and crisis response plan; (d) implement training to educate social 19 workers, human services workers, volunteers, and all other employees about workplace violence

20 and ways to reduce risks; and (e) develop and maintain a violence prevention and response team 21 to monitor ongoing compliance with the violence prevention and crisis response plan and to 22 assist any social workers, human services workers, volunteers, and all other employees 23 victimized by or threatened with workplace violence.
