36 Transportation which shall consist of 7 members of the Senate and 13 of the House.

37 Within 4 weeks of the appointment of joint standing committees in the first annual session of the 38 General Court, each joint standing committee shall adopt rules of procedure regarding its 39 conduct. Said rules of procedure, together with any amendments, shall be filed with the Clerk of 40 the Senate and the Clerk of the House and shall be available to the public and members of the 41 General Court on the official website for the General Court.

42 Except as provided by Joint Rule 1E, each matter shall be referred only to 1 joint committee for 43 consideration and all reports of matters by joint committees shall be made to the House or the 44 Senate, under Joint Rule 4, not to another joint committee. The committee to which a matter is 45 initially referred may discharge the matter to another committee with jurisdiction over the matter.

46 Matters referred by either the Senate or the House to its committee on Ways and Means shall be 47 considered by the respective committees of the 2 branches, acting as a joint committee, when, in 48 the judgment of the chairmen of the respective committees of the 2 branches, the interests of 49 legislation or the expedition of business will be better served by such joint consideration. Matters 50 may also be referred to the committees on Ways and Means, of the 2 branches, as a joint 51 committee.

52 The committees on Rules, together with the presiding officers of the 2 branches, acting 53 concurrently, may consider and suggest such measures as shall, in their judgment, tend to 56 In order to assist the House and the Senate in their: (1) consideration and enactment of new 57 legislation and modifications of existing laws, when either are deemed to be appropriate; (2) 58 evaluation of the effectiveness and administration of laws and programs previously enacted; and 59 (3) appraisal of the conditions and circumstances which may indicate the desirability of enacting 60 new legislation, the various joint committees shall have the following oversight responsibilities:

61 (i) each joint committee shall review and study, on a continuing basis, the implementation, 62 administration, execution and effectiveness of those laws, or parts of law, the subject matter of 63 which is within the jurisdiction of that committee, the administrative regulations adopted to 64 implement those laws, and those state agencies or entities having responsibilities for the 65 administration and execution of such laws;

66 (ii) in carrying out these review and study activities, each committee shall determine whether 67 such laws, administrative regulations and programs under those laws are being implemented in 68 accordance with the intent of the General Court and whether such laws, administrative 69 regulations and programs should be continued, curtailed or eliminated;

70 (iii) each committee shall also review and study any conditions and circumstances which may 71 indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new legislation within the jurisdiction of that 72 committee, regardless of whether any matter has been introduced on that subject, and shall, on a 73 continuing basis, undertake research on matters within the jurisdiction of that committee.

74 Committees shall coordinate oversight activities, under the direction of the presiding officers of 75 both branches, to achieve the maximum objectives of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii).

76 Each committee may, upon completion of its oversight hearings, report to the General Court the 77 results of its findings and recommendations together with accompanying corrective legislation, if 78 any, by filing the same with the Clerk of the House of Representatives or the Clerk of the Senate.

79 Copies of such reports shall be, whenever practicable, made available to all members 80 electronically and to the public via the Internet. The disposition of said reports shall be 81 determined by the Clerks with the approval of the Speaker and the President.

82 The Senate and House chairmen of a joint committee may appoint subcommittees to investigate 83 and study any matter referred to said subcommittee. Any subcommittee so established shall be 84 co-chaired by a majority member of the Senate and a majority member of the House who are 85 members of the joint standing committee appointing the subcommittee. The composition of the 86 subcommittee shall be proportional to the composition of the appointing joint committee; 87 provided, however, that not less than 10 per cent of the subcommittee's members shall be from 88 the minority party. Chairmen of subcommittees shall not be considered chairmen under section 2 89 of chapter 3 of the acts of 2005. A subcommittee may, upon completion of an investigation and 90 study, report the results of the investigation and study together with legislation, if any, by filing

115 1A. All meetings of joint committees acting concurrently, Senate and House standing 116 committees, special committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, and joint special 117 committees and committees of conference on the disagreeing votes of the 2 branches shall be 118 open to the public, unless a majority shall vote otherwise. [Adopted July 17, 1973. Amended 119 July 18, 1974; Feb. 12, 2009.]

120 1B. A joint standing committee shall hold a public hearing on each matter referred to it in each 121 legislative session. [Adopted June 3, 1985; Amended Feb. 12, 2009.]

122 1C. All joint standing committees shall schedule committee hearings and executive sessions so 123 as not to conflict, to the extent feasible, with the schedules of other committees and, to the extent 124 feasible, the day of the week and times during that day set aside for formal sessions by the 125 respective branches from the first Wednesday in January through the fourth Wednesday of April 126 in the first annual session. [Adopted June 3, 1985; Amended June 12, 1995.]

127 1D. All meetings of joint standing committees, and special joint committees of the Senate and 128 House of Representatives, shall be open to the public, and any person shall be permitted to attend 129 any such meeting unless such committee convenes in executive session, as provided herein. All 130 joint standing committees shall determine a schedule for committee hearings to be held from the 131 beginning of the first annual session through the fourth Wednesday in June in said session. These 132 committee schedules shall be submitted to the Clerk of the House who shall cause them to be 133 published on the official website for the General Court. Establishment of such schedules shall 134 not preclude joint standing committees from scheduling additional hearings or meetings as 135 needed. No executive session shall be held except upon extraordinary circumstances and only 136 after the committee has first convened in an open session for which notice has been given, the 137 presiding officer has stated the purpose of the executive session, a majority of the committee 138 members present has voted to go into executive session, the vote of each member has been 139 recorded on a roll call vote, and the presiding officer has stated before the executive session if 140 the committee will reconvene after the executive session. The records of all such roll calls shall 141 be kept in the offices of the committee for the duration of the General Court during which said 142 vote was recorded, and shall be available for public inspection upon reasonable notice and during 143 regular office hours.

144 All joint standing committees, and special joint committees of the Senate and House of 145 Representatives, shall notify the Sergeant-at-Arms of the time, place and agenda of all public 146 hearings and executive sessions not less than 48 hours prior to the time of such meetings. The 147 Sergeant-at-Arms shall notify the clerk, who shall inform all members electronically and publish 148 such information on the official website of the General Court whenever practicable.

149 Nothing contained in this rule shall prohibit a joint standing committee or special joint 150 committee of the Senate and the House of Representatives from taking appropriate action 151 including, but not limited to, the exclusion of a person from a committee meeting in order to 152 prevent the disruption of or interference with committee proceedings. All meetings of joint 153 standing committees, and special joint committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, 154 shall be limited to no more than 50 bills to be discussed in a hearing, unless it can be determined 155 that all of the bills being considered are of the same subject matter.

156 The 48 hour requirement shall be suspended in an emergency only after all reasonable efforts 157 have been made to contact all committee members and upon a recorded vote of at least a 158 majority of the members of each branch appointed to the committee, but not less than two-thirds 159 of the members of each branch voting.

170 1E. The joint standing committee on Health Care Financing shall review all legislation relating 171 to health care to evaluate the appropriateness and fiscal effect of such legislation. A matter 172 within the jurisdiction of said committee may, if appropriate, initially be referred to another joint 173 standing committee sharing jurisdiction of the subject-matter. Any matter reported favorably by 174 such joint standing committee shall be referred to the joint committee on Health Care Financing; 175 provided, however, that notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, any such matter so reported 176 shall not be read a first time in the branch in which the report was received. The next favorable 177 report on any such matter, if made by a joint committee, may be made to either branch. Such

178 next favorable report shall be considered the first reading. The branch of origin for any such bill 179 so reported shall be the branch receiving such favorable report.

180 For all matters initially referred to the joint committee on Health Care Financing and not 181 previously referred to another joint committee, the joint committee on Health Care Financing 182 may make favorable reports to either branch, at the discretion of the committee, except that 183 reports on money bills shall be made to the House.

184 In compliance with section 38A of chapter 3 of the General Laws, the joint committee on Health 185 Care Financing when reporting on bills shall include a fiscal note prepared under section 3A of 187 legislation, if, in the opinion of said committee, such cost or fiscal effect exceeds the sum of 188 $100,000; provided, however, that any matter reported by the committee on Health Care 189 Financing with a fiscal effect of less than $100,000 shall not be referred, under the rules, to the 190 committee on Ways and Means.[Adopted Jan. 26, 2005; Amended May 19, 2005; Feb. 20, 2007;

194 of the Senate, Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, the Senate and House chairmen 195 and the Senate and House ranking minority members of the joint committee on Public Safety and 196 Homeland Security may receive security clearance from federal and state homeland security 197 officials in order to be granted access to confidential homeland security briefings, information 198 and materials. The President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the 199 Senate and House committee chairmen and the Senate and House ranking minority members 200 may designate 1 or more members of their staff who may receive such security clearance.

201 Any person who receives security clearance under this rule shall sign all confidentiality 202 agreements required by homeland security officials. The breach of any such confidentiality 203 agreement shall constitute a violation of the Joint Rules of the Senate and House of 204 Representatives. Any alleged violation of a confidentiality agreement shall be referred for 205 investigation to the Senate committee on Ethics and Rules or the House committee on Ethics, 206 respectively, and, if appropriate, to law enforcement authorities for potential criminal

212 Court any measure specially granting to such corporation or association any immunity, 213 exemption, privilege or benefit or any measure providing for the creation of, or directly affecting 214 any, contractual relations between such corporation or association and the Commonwealth. This 215 rule shall not apply to the purchase of securities issued by the Commonwealth or any political 216 subdivision of the Commonwealth. [See G.L. chapter 268, section 10.] [Adopted Jan. 16, 1922.]

217 3. When the General Court is in session, authorization for any committee of the Senate or House 218 of Representatives to travel during the session of the General Court shall be approved by a vote 219 of two-thirds of the members of its branch present and voting. When the General Court is in 220 session, authorization for any committee of the Senate or House of Representatives to sit and 221 travel during the recess of the General Court shall be approved by a vote of two-thirds of the 222 members of each branch present and voting. During the recess of the General Court, the 223 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives may, by written consent, 224 allow standing committees of their respective branches or appoint special committees to sit, 225 travel and incur expenses not exceeding sums authorized in writing by said presiding officers and 226 appropriated for such purposes. When the General Court is in session, authorization for any joint 227 committee to travel during the session, or to sit or travel during the recess, of the General Court 228 shall be approved by a vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch present and voting.

229 During the recess of the General Court, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House
230 of Representatives, acting jointly, may, by written consent, allow joint committees or appoint 231 joint special committees to sit, travel and incur expenses not exceeding sums authorized in 232 writing by said presiding officers and appropriated for such purposes. The Clerks of the Senate 233 and House of Representatives shall be notified of any appointments made and authorizations 234 granted during the recess for said committees to sit, travel and incur expenses during the recess 235 and the Clerks shall enter such information in the journals for the next year, as soon as may be 236 practicable. Committees authorized by the presiding officers to sit during the recess in the odd 237 numbered year shall report not later than the fourth Wednesday of January during the following 238 year and committees authorized by the presiding officers to sit during the recess in the even 239 numbered year shall report not later than the fourth Wednesday of December during the same 240 year.

241 No committee shall travel except at the expense of the Commonwealth. In any case when a 242 committee is authorized to travel, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall provide transportation only for 243 members of the committee and the officer accompanying them, and the reasonable traveling 244 expenses of such members and officers only shall be charged to or paid by the Commonwealth.

245 Neither the Sergeant-at-Arms nor the officer detailed by the Sergeant-at-Arms shall permit any 246 person to accompany such committee while in the discharge of its official duties unless invited 247 by vote of the committee.

248 All bills for the traveling expenses of committees shall be submitted by the Sergeant-at-Arms to 249 the committee by whom they have been incurred and shall be approved by a majority of said 250 committee before being presented to the Comptroller for payment. [Adopted Feb. 7, 1890;

253 3A. A joint standing committee may, upon the written and signed report of two-thirds of the 254 members of the Senate and two-thirds of the members of the House appointed to said committee, 255 report a bill or other form of legislation without said legislation being founded upon petition; 256 provided, however, that matters so reported shall be germane to the subject matters regularly 257 referred to the committee. The committee shall hold a public hearing on such bill or other form 258 of legislation before it is reported. A bill or other form of legislation so reported shall be placed 259 in the Orders of the Day by the Clerk of the respective branch to which it is reported or referred 260 to a standing committee of said branch under the rules. All reports of committees not founded 261 upon petition shall bear the designation ‘committee bill’, ‘resolve’, ‘order’ or ‘resolution’, as the 262 case may be, in the Orders of the Day. Committees to which messages from the Governor, 263 reports of state officers, boards, committees, commissions and others authorized to report to the 264 General Court, may report by bill or otherwise such legislation as may be germane to the subject
265 matter referred to them. [Adopted June 3, 1985 .]

266 4. Favorable reports, and adverse reports on subjects of legislation other than petitions, by joint 267 committees shall be made to the branch in which the matter was originally introduced, unless the 268 committee decides otherwise under its own rules and, except that reports on money bills shall be 269 made to the House and if adverse reports on matters other than petitions which are accompanied 270 by money bills are accepted by the House, this shall constitute final rejection. Adverse reports by 271 joint committees on petitions shall be made to the branch in which the petition was originally 272 introduced, except that such adverse reports on petitions accompanied by proposed money bills 273 shall be made to the House; and, if accepted by the branch in which they are made, shall be 274 considered as a final rejection. When a report is made from any committee to either branch, and 275 the subject-matter of the report is subsequently referred to a joint committee, such committee, 276 except for the committee on Health Care Financing, shall report its action to the branch in which 277 the reference originated. [See also Joint Rule 5.]

278 A vote of a joint standing committee to give legislation a favorable or adverse report shall be 279 conducted by a roll call upon request of 2 committee members present at the committee meeting.
280 Such votes shall be recorded on appropriate forms that show all votes for and against the 281 particular committee action. The records of all such roll calls shall be kept in the offices of the 282 committee for the duration of the General Court during which said vote was recorded, and shall 283 be available for public inspection upon reasonable notice and during regular office hours.

284 All committee members shall have an opportunity to sign a form accompanying a report of the 285 committee signifying approval of, dissent or abstention from a report of a joint standing 286 committee before the report is final or filed. No signature shall be valid unless the report to 287 which the signature is affixed includes the substantially complete text of the legislation being 288 reported. [Amended Jan. 3, 1952; April 8, 1959; June 7, 1965; Jan. 7, 1971; March 11, 1974;

292 section 3A of chapter 29 of the General Laws, showing the estimated cost or the fiscal effect of 293 the proposed legislation, if, in the opinion of said committee, such cost exceeds $100,000. Such 294 fiscal note shall be filed electronically in the office of the clerk to which the report is being 295 made, and shall be promptly made available on the official website of the General Court.

296 [Adopted Jan. 15, 1973.]

297 5. Matters reported adversely by joint committees and the committees on Rules of the two 298 branches, acting concurrently, may be recommitted to the same committees at the pleasure of the 299 branch acting on the report, and bills or resolves may be recommitted in either branch. If a bill or 300 resolve is laid aside in either branch for the reason that it is declared to be broader in its scope 301 than the subject-matter upon which it is based, the subject-matter shall be recommitted to the 302 committee. A concurrent vote shall, however, be necessary for re-committal, with instructions.
303 After recommitment, report shall, in all cases, be made to the branch originating the 304 recommitment. [Amended Feb. 2, 1891; April 11, 1935; Jan. 6, 1947; May 7, 19 53; March 26,

307 several sections and shall be made available to all members electronically and to the public via 308 the Internet. [Amended Jan. 28, 1889; Jan. 9, 1941; Feb. 8, 1949; Feb. 12, 2009.]

311 petition in either branch and shall endorse their name on the petition and a brief statement of the 312 nature and object of the instrument and the reading of the instrument shall be dispensed with, 313 unless specially ordered. The petition shall be filed in the office of the clerk of either the Senate 314 or House of Representatives, depending on whether it is a 'Joint Senate/House Petition' or a 315 'Joint House/Senate Petition' but the Journal records in the Senate and House of Representatives
316 shall carry both members' names as presenters of the petition. [Adopted Jan. 15, 1973.]

317 7. Whenever, upon any application for an act of incorporation or other legislation, the purpose 318 for which such legislation is sought can be secured without detriment to the public interests by a 319 general law or under existing laws, the committee to which the matter is referred shall report
320 such general law, or 'ought not to pass'. [Amended Feb. 2, 1891; Feb. 7, 18 93; Jan. 7, 1971.]

335 Section 8 of Article LXXXIX of the Amendments to the Constitution shall, subsequent to the 336 procedure required by Senate Rule 20 and House Rule 24, be reported adversely, unless it be on 337 petition filed or approved by the voters of a city or town, or the mayor and city council, or other 338 legislative body, of a city, or the town meeting of a town. A joint committee to which is 339 inadvertently referred a petition or other subject of legislation the operation of which is restricted 340 to a particular city or town and which is not in conformity with Section 8 of Article LXXXIX of 341 the Amendments to the Constitution shall report a general law which applies alike to all cities, or

352 particular city or town under Section 8 of Article LXXXIX of the Amendments to the 353 Constitution of the Commonwealth, shall not expire prior to the final day of the next immediate 354 biennial session in which the petition was filed and no additional vote shall be required to file a

355 petition unless a vote to rescind such approval is passed by the voters of a city or town, or the 356 mayor and city council or other legislative body of a city, or the board of selectmen and the town
357 meeting or other legislative body of the town. [Adopted, Mar. 14, 2013.]

358 7D. The approval of a substantive amendment to a petition restricted to a single city or town and

364 corporation, otherwise than as it affects generally the people of the Commonwealth or the people 365 of the city or town to which it specifically applies, shall be proposed or introduced except by a 366 petition, nor shall any bill or resolve embodying such legislation be reported by a committee 367 except upon a petition duly referred, nor shall such a bill or resolve be reported by a committee, 368 whether on an original reference or on a re-committal with instructions to hear the parties, until it 369 is made to appear to the satisfaction of the committee that proper notice of the proposed 370 legislation has been given by public advertisement or otherwise to all parties interested, without 371 expense to the Commonwealth, or until evidence satisfactory to the committee is produced that 372 all parties interested have in writing waived notice. A committee reporting adversely due to lack 373 proper notice or of a waiver of proper notice shall so state in its report and no bill or resolve shall 374 be in order as a substitute for, or amendment of, such report. Objection to the violation of this 375 rule may be taken at any stage prior to that of the third reading. [Adopted Feb. 7, 1890. Amended 376 Dec. 22, 1920 ; Jan. 12, 1939 ; Jan. 15, 1945; Jan. 7, 1971 .]

383 General Laws, or for authority to take water for a water supply, or relative to building structures 384 in or over navigable or tide waters, shall be placed on file, and not referred to a committee , 385 unless the petitioner has given the notice and followed the procedure required by section 5 of 386 chapter 3 of the General Laws . But if, no objection being raised, any such petition is referred to 387 a committee without such required notice or procedure, the committee shall forthwith report 388 adversely, setting forth as the reason for such report failure to comply with the law, unless 389 evidence satisfactory to the committee is produced that all parties interested have in writing 390 waived notice. In case a bill or resolve is reported upon such a petition, after proof of such 391 waiver of notice, this fact shall be set forth in the report of the committee. When an adverse 392 report is made by a committee, on account of failure to give the required notice, no bill or resolve 393 shall be substituted for such report, nor shall such report be recommitted or referred to another 394 committee.

395 A petition for the establishment or revival, or for the amendment, alteration or extension of the 396 charter or corporate powers or privileges, or for the change of name, of any corporation, except a 397 petition subject to the preceding paragraph, shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the branch in

417 has expired, all matters upon which no report has then been made shall forthwith be reported by 418 the chairman of the committee on the part of the branch in which they were respectively 419 introduced, with an adverse recommendation under this rule. If the chairman fails to make such 420 report by the end of the legislative day next following the expiration date, all matters remaining 421 unreported shall be placed in the Orders of the Day by the Clerk of the branch in which the 422 matter was originally filed with an adverse report under this rule. Matters which have been 423 referred under Joint Rule 29, upon which the chairmen of the committees on Rules fail to make a 424 report, shall be placed by the respective Clerks in the Orders of the Day of the branch in which 425 the subject matter was referred to said committees. Committees to whom are referred subjects of 426 legislation may combine petitions of similar subject matter, or other forms of legislation of 427 similar subject matter, into 1 adverse report, and the report on the petition shall be that said 428 petitions or other forms of legislation ‘ought NOT to pass,’ and if the report is accepted, all the 429 matters contained in the report shall be disposed of. However, petitions upon which an adverse 430 report is accepted in only 1 branch may not be combined with other subjects of legislation upon 431 which adverse reports must be accepted, in concurrence. This rule shall not apply to petitions 432 referred to the committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, under the second 433 paragraph of Joint Rule 12. This rule shall not be rescinded, amended or suspended, except by a 434 concurrent vote of four-fifths of the members of each branch present and voting thereon.

435 Notwithstanding Joint Rule 30, this rule shall not be rescinded, amended or suspended more than 436 3 times except by unanimous consent. [Amended Feb. 2, 1891; Jan. 25, 1894; Jan. 16, 1903; Jan.

440 10A. The form for all subjects of legislation receiving a favorable report shall be ‘ought to pass.’
441 The form for all subjects of legislation receiving an adverse report shall be ‘ought NOT to pass.’
442 A committee to whom is referred any other matter may report recommending that the same be 443 placed on file. [Adopted Jan. 7, 1971.]

444 Committees of Conference.

445 11. Committees of conference shall consist of 3 members on the part of each branch, one

457 appropriation bills, including capital outlay programs, shall, after filing their reports but before 458 consideration by either branch have the same approved or discharged by each committee on Bills 459 in the Third Reading.

460 Upon the appointment of a committee of conference to whom matters of difference in respect to 461 any appropriation bill or in respect to any bill providing for capital outlay programs and projects 462 are referred, the clerk of the branch requesting said committee of conference shall make 463 available to members of the General Court a list of the matters in disagreement identified by item 464 number and item purpose and showing the amount made available by each branch of the General 465 Court, and any other matters in disagreement and the position of each of the said branches.

466 The report of said committee of conference shall consist of the matters of difference so referred 467 and so identified, showing the amounts appropriated by each of the said branches and other 468 matters in disagreement and the position of each branch with respect to those matters, and shall 469 state said committee's recommendations with respect to the matters so referred. Matters on which 470 there exists no disagreement between the branches shall not be disturbed by the committee on 473 committee of conference in any and all matters necessary to the preparation and completion of its 474 report. [Adopted July 30, 1974; Amended Oct. 3, 1983; Feb. 3, 2011.]

475 11B. No report from a committee of conference shall be considered or acted upon by either 476 branch until the calendar day following the day on which said report shall have been available to 477 the public and to the members of the General Court. The committee shall file its report no later 478 than 8 p.m. on the day preceding its consideration and the General Court shall not consider said 479 report before 1 p.m. on the following day, except that a report from such committee of 480 conference that it is unable to agree may be considered and acted upon at the time that such 481 report is filed. [Adopted Oct. 3, 1983. Amended July 17, 2003; July 21 and September 20, 2005;
482 Feb. 3, 2011.]

489 Court by 9 p.m. on the day preceding its consideration. [Adopted Feb. 12, 2009; Feb. 3, 2011.]

490 11E. Subsequent to the filing of a report of a committee of conference, an addendum may be 494 committee report. The addendum shall be approved by both the Counsel to the House and the 495 Counsel to the Senate. The addendum, having been approved by both the Counsel to the House

496 and the Counsel to the Senate, shall be posted to the official website of the General Court 497 immediately upon receipt by the clerk of the branch to which it was submitted. [Adopted Mar.
498 14, 2013.]

499 Limit of Time allowed for New Business.

500 12. Resolutions intended for adoption by both branches of the General Court, petitions, and all 501 other subjects of legislation, shall be deposited with the Clerk of either branch prior to 5 p.m. on 502 the third Friday in January of the first annual session of the General Court.

503 All such matters except messages from the Governor, reports required or authorized to be made 504 to the General Court and petitions filed or approved by the voters of a city or town, or the mayor 505 and city council, or other legislative body of a city, or the town meeting of a town, for the 506 enactment of a special law under Section 8 of Article LXXXIX of the Amendments to the 526 later than the third Wednesday in November of that calendar year and all formal business of the 527 second annual session shall be concluded not later than the last day of July of that calendar year.

528 In order to assist the Senate and House in its analysis and appraisal of laws enacted by the 529 General Court, each joint standing committee, upon conclusion of the formal business of the 530 annual sessions, shall, as authorized by Joint Rule 1, initiate oversight hearings to evaluate the 531 effectiveness, application and administration of the subject matter of laws within the jurisdiction 532 of that committee. [Adopted June 12, 1995.]

533 Unfinished Business of the Session.

534 12B. Any matter pending before the General Court at the end of the first annual session and any 535 special session held in the same year shall carry over into the second annual session of the same
536 General Court in the same legislative status as it was at the conclusion of the first annual session

605 passage; and neither branch shall vote on the enactment of a bill or on the passage of a resolve 606 containing an emergency preamble until it has been determined whether the preamble shall 607 remain or be eliminated. If the bill contains an emergency preamble, a motion to amend the bill 608 may be received in either branch before the adoption of the emergency preamble, and the 609 amendment may contain a new emergency preamble. If the 2 branches concur in adopting the 610 preamble, the bill or resolve shall first be put upon its final passage in the House of 611 Representatives. If either branch fails to adopt the preamble, notice of its action shall be sent to 612 the other branch; and the bill or resolve, duly endorsed, shall again be prepared for final passage

622 of existing statutes. These committees, with the approval of the majority and minority leadership 623 of both branches may make corrections which are not substantive in nature. The clerks of both 624 branches shall be immediately notified, in writing, of any such changes. Errors discovered by the 625 committees of a substantive nature shall be reported to the General Court, which in turn shall 626 take appropriate action under its rules. Upon completion of examination and possible correction 627 of any such bills and resolves, the bills and resolves shall be returned to the clerks, who in turn,

633 Wednesday of April in said year, and proposals for amendments to the Constitution referred to a 634 joint committee subsequent to the last Wednesday in April of the first annual session shall be 635 reported by said committee not later than the last Wednesday of April in the second session of 636 the same General Court. The committee shall file its report, either recommending that the 637 proposal ought to pass or ought not to pass, with any official papers in its possession that relate 638 thereto, with the Clerk of the Senate. When the time within which said committees are required 639 to report has expired, all matters upon which no report has been made shall forthwith be placed

640 in the Journal of the respective branches, with an adverse report under this rule; and shall then be 641 placed on file in the office of the Clerk of the Senate. For further information of the members of 642 the Senate and House of Representatives, the respective Clerks shall also place all such matters
643 under a separate heading in the Calendar of each branch, as soon as is practicable. In each branch 644 the report shall be read and forthwith placed on file; and no further legislative action shall be 645 taken on the measure unless consideration in joint session is called for by vote of either branch, 646 under Section 2 of Part IV of Article XLVIII (as amended by Article LXXXI) of the 647 Amendments to the Constitution. A joint committee to which is referred any recommendation for 648 an amendment to the Constitution made by the Governor or contained in a report authorized to 649 be made to the General Court may report on the recommendation a proposal for a legislative 650 amendment, which shall be deemed to have been introduced by the member of the Senate who 651 reports for the committee; and the procedure as regards reporting, filing and subsequent action 652 shall be that provided for legislative amendments by this rule. Or the joint committee may report 653 ought not to pass for the reason that no legislation is necessary or that the recommendation ought 654 not to pass; and in such cases the usual procedure as regards similar reports by joint committees 655 shall be followed. If such an adverse report is amended in the Senate by substituting a proposal 656 for a legislative amendment, notice of the Senate's action shall be sent to the House and said 657 proposal, together with the official papers relating to the subject, shall be in the custody of the 658 Clerk of the Senate; and if said report is so amended in the House, the proposal, duly endorsed,
659 together with the other papers, shall be sent to the Senate for its information and shall be kept in 660 the custody of its Clerk. No further legislative action shall be taken in either branch on a proposal 661 so substituted unless consideration in joint session is called for under the Constitution. If either 662 branch calls for the consideration of any proposal in joint session, notice of its action shall be

663 sent to the other branch; and it shall then be the duty of the Senate and the House of 664 Representatives to arrange for the holding of the joint session not later than the second 665 Wednesday in May. Subject to the requirements of the Constitution, joint sessions or 666 continuances of joint sessions of the 2 branches to consider proposals for specific amendments to 667 the Constitution, and all rules or procedures, shall be determined only by concurrent votes of the 668 2 branches. The rules relative to joint conventions shall apply to the joint sessions of the 2 669 houses. [Adopted Feb. 21, 1919. Amended March 30, 1921; April 11, 1935; Jan. 12, 1939; Jan.

671 Executive Reorganization Plans.

672 23A. Any reorganization plan, accompanied by a bill, submitted by the Governor under Article
673 LXXXVII of the Amendments to the Constitution shall be referred by the Clerks of the Senate
674 and the House, with the approval of the President and Speaker, to a joint standing committee 675 within 5 days of the presentation of the reorganization plan.

676 Said committee, to which is referred any such reorganization plan, shall, as required by said 677 Article, not later than 30 days after the presentation of such plan by the Governor, hold a public 678 hearing on the reorganization plan; and shall not later than 10 days after such hearing report that 679 it either approves or disapproves such plan.

680 When recommending action, the committee shall make, in each branch, a separate report of its 681 recommendations, and shall file said report together with the committee's recommendations and 682 the reasons for those recommendations, in writing. Majority and minority reports shall be signed 683 by the members of said committee. Any official papers in the possession of said committee that 684 relate thereto shall be filed with the Clerk of the Senate.

685 If the committee recommends favorable action, the report shall be that the reorganization plan 686 'ought to be approved'. If the committee recommends adverse action, the report shall be that the 687 reorganization plan 'ought NOT to be approved'. In each instance, the question shall be 'Shall 688 this reorganization plan be approved?'

689 In each branch, the report shall be read and forthwith recorded in the Journal. On the legislative 690 day next following the Journal record, the report shall be placed in the Orders of the Day of the 691 Senate and the House.

692 When the time within which a joint committee is required to report on a reorganization plan has 693 expired, a matter upon which no report has been made shall forthwith be placed in the Orders of 694 the Day by the Clerks of each branch and the question shall be 'Shall this reorganization plan be 695 approved?'

696 When such plan is before either branch, no motion relating to said plan shall be allowed except 697 the motions to lay on the table (only in the Senate), to postpone to a time certain, or to commit or 698 recommit (at the pleasure of either branch). The motions to take a recess, to adjourn, the previous 699 question (if provided in the branch debating the issue), to close debate at a specified time, and 700 the motion to reconsider shall also be in order.

701 A motion to discharge any committee to which is referred or to which is recommitted a 702 reorganization plan shall not be in order prior to the expiration of 40 days after the Governor's 703 presentation of such plan. After the expiration of said 40 days, a motion to discharge a committee 704 shall be decided by a majority vote of the branch in which the motion is made.

705 Unless disapproved by a majority vote of the members of either of the 2 branches of the General 706 Court present and voting, the General Court not having prorogued within 60 days from the date

707 of presentation by the Governor, the plan shall be approved and shall take effect as provided by 708 Article LXXXVII of the Amendments to the Constitution.

709 Within 7 days of the expiration of the 60 days from the date of presentation of said plan by the 710 Governor, unless the question has already been decided, the Clerks of the Senate and House of 711 Representatives shall place the plan in the Orders of the Day; and no motions except the motions 712 to take a recess, to adjourn, and previous question, or to close debate at a specified time, shall be 713 in order.

714 No such reorganization plan presented to the General Court shall be subject to change or 715 amendment before expiration of such 60 days. [Adopted June 13, 1967; Amended March 27,

720 shall be the Clerk of the Convention, and a record of the proceedings of the Convention shall be 721 entered at large on the journals of both branches. [Amended Feb. 20, 2007.]

722 25. When an agreement has been made by the 2 branches to go into Convention, such agreement 723 shall not be altered or annulled, except by concurrent vote, excepting that it shall be in order to 724 recess the convention from time to time upon a majority vote of said convention. [Amended Jan.
725 7, 1971 .]

730 Representatives, that in their opinion it is necessary that the General Court assemble in special 731 session on a particular date and time specified in their statements during a recess of the General
732 Court, are filed with their respective Clerks, such Clerks shall forthwith notify all the members 733 of their respective branches to assemble at the State House in Boston, on said date at the time so 734 specified. When so assembled, the first business to be taken up shall be the question of the 735 necessity of so assembling, under Article I of Section I of Chapter I of Part the Second of the 736 Constitution of the Commonwealth. If 21 members of the Senate and 81 members of the House 737 of Representatives judge by vote taken by call of the yeas and nays that such assembling of the 738 General Court is necessary, specifying in such vote the facts constituting such necessity, the 739 General Court shall then complete its organization as a special session, proceed to the 740 consideration of the suspension of Joint Rule 12A which if suspended by the required two-thirds 741 of the members of both branches shall permit the General Court to proceed to the consideration 742 of matters properly before it. Nothing in this rule shall prevent the General Court from 743 assembling in any other constitutional manner when it judges necessary. [Adopted Aug. 7, 1939.

750 choice, and where there shall be no such a majority on the first ballot the ballots shall be repeated 751 until a majority is obtained; and in balloting, blanks shall be rejected and not taken into the count 752 in the enumeration of votes, excepting that when the number of blanks shall be more than the 837 goods or services shall be made from the statewide procurement list established by the 838 operational services division, to the extent practicable, as determined by the House Business 839 Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate. If the Business Manager and the Chief 840 Financial Officer determine that a procurement cannot be made using the statewide procurement 841 list established by the operational services division, they may procure the required goods or 842 services under subsections (b), (c) or (d).

843 (b) Procurement of a supply or service from a vendor not on the statewide procurement list 844 valued at less than $10,000 shall be made at the discretion of the House Business Manager and 845 the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate.

846 (c) If the House Business Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate seek to procure 847 a supply or service from a vendor not on the statewide procurement list valued at $10,000 or 848 more, but less than $100,000, they shall seek quotations from not fewer than 3 persons providing 849 such supply or service. The House Business Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the 850 Senate shall record the names and addresses of all persons from whom quotations were received, 851 the names of the persons submitting quotations and the date and amount of each quotation. The 852 House Business Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate shall award the contract 853 to the responsible person whose quotation offers the needed quality of supply or service and 854 which represents the best value for the General Court.

855 (d) If the House Business Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate seek to procure 856 a supply or service from a vendor not on the statewide procurement list valued at $100,000 or

867 health, safety or convenience of the members, staff or visitors to the House of Representatives or 868 Senate the House Business Manager and the Senate Chief Financial Officer may make an 869 emergency procurement without satisfying the requirement of this rules; provided, however, that 870 both the House Business Manager and the Senate Chief Financial Officer certify in writing that:

871 (i) an emergency exists and explain the nature thereof; (ii) the emergency procurement is limited 872 to only supplies or services necessary to meet the emergency; (iii) shall conform to the 873 requirements of rule to the extent practicable under the circumstances; (iv) each contractor's 874 name, (v) the amount and the type of each contract; (vi) the supplies or services provided under 875 each contract; (vii) and basis for determining the need for an emergency procurement.

876 (g) In addition to the requirements of this rule, all procurements for legal services shall be 877 approved by the House and Senate Counsel.

878 (h) If, in the determination of the House Business Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the 879 Senate, an emergency procurement of greater than $10,000 is necessary, the House Business 880 Manager and the Chief Financial Officer of the Senate may procure the goods or services 881 immediately and create and maintain a file explaining the nature of the emergency and the goods 882 or services that were procured as a result. The House Business Manager and the Chief Financial 883 Officer of the Senate shall document the goods or services that were procured, the process used 884 to procure the goods or services, the vendors that were contacted and any other information 885 relevant to the procurement, and make that information available to members of the General 886 Court during regular business hours, unless the information is otherwise protected by state or 887 federal law. [Adopted Mar. 14, 2013.]
