The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act requiring microphones and audio-recorders on tasers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after
2 section 131J the following section:-

3 131J1/2. In a municipality that accepts this section, any portable device or weapon
4 described in section 131J that is possessed by a municipal law enforcement officer for the 5 purpose of his or her official duties shall be capable of recording and amplifying sound;
6 provided, however, that an officer may possess a portable device or weapon that is incapable of 7 recording and amplifying sound if the portable device or weapon was purchased by the 8 municipality before this section is accepted.

9 SECTION 2. Subsection D of section 99 of chapter 272 of the General Laws is hereby 10 amended by inserting, after paragraph 1 (f), the following paragraph:

11 (g) for a law enforcement officer, acting in the performance of his or her official duties,
12 while clearly identified as a law enforcement officer to violate the provisions of this section.
13 Notwithstanding this provision, law enforcement officers may not record inside a person's 14 residence without the consent of a resident.
