[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 2662 OF 2013-2014.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to tax credits, education and training for the design and development of video game and interactive digital media products.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 An Act relative to tax credits, education and training for the design and development of 2 video game and interactive digital media products.

3 SECTION 1. Chapter 63 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 4 38X and inserting in place thereof the following section:

5 Section 38X. (a) As used in this section the following words shall, unless the context 6 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

7 “Commissioner”, the commissioner of revenue.

8 “Motion picture”, a feature-length film, a video, a digital media project, a television 9 series defined as a season not to exceed 27 episodes, or a commercial made in the 10 commonwealth, in whole or in part, for theatrical or television viewing or as a television pilot.

11 The term “ motion picture” shall not include a production featuring news, current events, weather 12 and financial market reports, talk show, game show, sporting events, awards show or other gala 13 event, a production whose sole purpose is fundraising, a long-form production that primarily 14 markets a product or service, a production containing obscene material or performances.

15 “Motion picture production company”, a company including its subsidiaries engaged in 16 the business of producing motion pictures, videos, television series, or commercials intended for 17 a theatrical release or for television viewing. The term “motion picture production company” 18 shall not mean or include any company which is more than 25 per cent owned, affiliated, or 19 controlled, by any company or person which is in default on a loan made or guaranteed by the 20 commonwealth.

21 “Massachusetts production expense”, a production expense for the motion picture, video 22 game or interactive digital media clearly and demonstrably incurred in the commonwealth.

23 “Principal photography”, the phase of production during which the motion picture is 24 actually filmed. The term shall not include preproduction or postproduction.

25 “Production expense” or “production cost”, preproduction, production and 26 postproduction expenditures directly incurred in the production of a motion picture, video game 27 or interactive digital media. The term shall include wages and salaries paid to individuals 28 employed in the production of the motion picture, video game or interactive digital media; the 29 costs of set construction and operation, editing and related services, photography, sound 30 synchronization, lighting, wardrobe, make-up and accessories; film processing, transfer, sound 31 mixing, special and visual effects; music; location fees and the cost of purchase or rental of 32 facilities and equipment or any other production expense as may be determined by the 33 department of revenue to be an eligible production expense. The term shall not include costs 34 incurred in marketing or advertising a motion picture, video game or interactive digital media, 35 any costs related to the transfer of tax credits or any amounts paid to persons or businesses as a 36 result of their participation in profits from the exploitation of the production.

37 “Secretary”, the secretary of economic development.

38 "Video game" or "interactive digital media", interactive software that: (i) is produced for 39 distribution on or accessed via electronic media, including without limitation software that may 40 be accessed via or downloaded from the Internet or mobile networks and software that are 41 distributed on optical media or embedded in or downloadable to electronic devices, including 42 without limitation mobile phones, portable game systems, computers, tablets, and personal 43 digital assistants (PDA) or other handheld electronic devices; (ii) users may interact with via an 44 electronic device, which may include without limitation a computer, a game system, a mobile 45 phone, tablet, a PDA or other handheld electronic devices, in order to achieve a goal or set of 46 goals; and (iii) include an appreciable quantity of text, sound, fixed images, animated images, or 47 3-D geometry.

48 “Video game studio” or “interactive digital media studio”, a permanent facility within the 49 commonwealth used primarily for the design, production or development of video games or 50 interactive digital media products.

51 (b) A taxpayer engaged in the making of a motion picture, video game or interactive 52 digital media shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter for the 53 employment of persons within the commonwealth in connection with the filming or production

54 of 1 or more motion pictures, video games or interactive digital media in the commonwealth 55 within any consecutive 12 month period. The credit shall be equal to 25 per cent of the total 56 aggregate payroll paid by a motion picture, video game or interactive digital media production 57 company that constitutes Massachusetts source income, when total production costs incurred in 58 the commonwealth equal or exceed $50,000 during the taxable year. For purposes of this 59 subsection, the term “total aggregate payroll” shall not include the salary of any employee whose 60 salary is equal to or greater than $1,000,000.

61 (c) A taxpayer shall be allowed an additional credit against the taxes imposed by this 62 chapter equal to 25 per cent of all Massachusetts production expenses, not including the payroll 63 expenses used to claim a credit pursuant to subsection (b), where the motion picture, video game 64 or interactive digital media is also eligible for a credit pursuant to subsection (b) and either 65 Massachusetts production expenses exceed 50 per cent of the total production expenses for a 66 motion picture or at least 50 per cent of the total principal photography days of the film or the 67 production of the video game or interactive digital media take place in the commonwealth.

68 (d) A taxpayer shall be allowed an additional credit against the taxes imposed by this 69 chapter equal to 5 per cent of all Massachusetts production expenses under this section if video 70 game studio or interactive digital media studio is located in a gateway municipality, as defined 71 by section 3A of chapter 23A; provided, that the value of such credit shall not exceed $500,000 72 per year.

73 (e) The tax credit shall be taken against the taxes imposed under this chapter and shall, at 74 the election of the taxpayer, be refundable to the extent provided for in section 32E. Any amount

75 of the tax credit that exceeds the tax due for a taxable year may be carried forward by the 76 taxpayer to any of the 5 subsequent taxable years.

77 (f)(1) All or any portion of tax credits issued in accordance with the provisions of this 78 section may be transferred, sold or assigned to other taxpayers with tax liabilities under this 79 chapter or chapter 62. Any tax credit that is transferred, sold or assigned and taken against taxes
80 imposed by this chapter. Any amount of the tax credit that exceeds the tax due for a taxable year 81 may be carried forward by the transferee, buyer or assignee to any of the 5 subsequent taxable 82 years from which a certificate is initially issued by the department of revenue.

83 (2) An owner, transferee or assignee desiring to make a transfer, sale or assignment shall 84 submit to the commissioner a statement which describes the amount of tax credit for which the 85 transfer, sale or assignment of tax credit is eligible. The owner, transferee or assignee shall 86 provide to the commissioner such information as the commissioner may require for the proper
87 allocation of the credit. The commissioner shall provide to the taxpayer a certificate of eligibility
88 to transfer, sell or assign the tax credits. The commissioner shall not issue a certificate to a 89 taxpayer that has an outstanding tax obligation with the commonwealth in connection with any 90 motion picture, video game or interactive digital media for any prior taxable year. A tax credit 91 shall not be transferred, sold or assigned without a certificate. The commissioner shall direct, 92 assign and issue a certificate equal to 10 per cent of the annual total of all tax credits earned in 93 the prior year to the Massachusetts Digital Games Institute for game development education and 94 training programs and activities. These credits may be refunded at 80 per cent of face value or 95 transferred, sold or assigned to other taxpayers with tax liabilities.

96 (g) The commissioner, in consultation with the secretary, shall promulgate regulations 97 necessary for the administration of this subsection.

98 SECTION 2. Said chapter 63 of the general laws is hereby further amended by adding 99 the following three sections:-

100 Section 82. (a) As used in this section and in section 83, the following terms shall have 101 the following meaning:

102 “Eligible labor expenditures”, compensation and benefits paid to employees working on 103 the development, creation, production, maintenance, and distribution of video games or 104 interactive digital media as defined in section 38X, as well as employees supporting technical or 105 production infrastructure, including but not limited to, computer support staff.

106 “Video game production company”, a company including its subsidiaries engaged in the 107 business of producing video games or interactive digital media as defined in section 38X. The 108 term “video game production company” shall not mean or include any company which is more 109 than 25 per cent owned, affiliated, or controlled, by any company or person which is in default 110 on a loan made by the commonwealth or a loan guaranteed by the commonwealth.

111 (b) A taxpayer engaged in the making of a video game or interactive digital media shall 112 be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter for the employment of persons 113 within the commonwealth in connection with the filming or production of 1 or more video games 114 or interactive digital media in the commonwealth within any consecutive 12 month period. The 115 credit shall be equal to 35 per cent of the eligible labor expenditures paid by a video game or 116 interactive digital media production company that constitutes Massachusetts source income,

117 when eligible labor expenditures incurred in the commonwealth equal or exceed $50,000 during 118 the taxable year.

119 (c) A taxpayer engaged in the making of a video game or interactive digital media shall 120 be allowed an additional workforce credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter for eligible 121 labor expenditures within the commonwealth. The credit shall be equal to the following:

122 (1) if the sum of the average of the video game production company for the 5 year
123 period is greater than or equal to 100 per cent but less than 105 per cent of the count of full-time
124 equivalent employees during the year the credit in section 38X was earned, the workforce tax 125 credit shall be 10 per cent of the tax credit allowed in subsection (b);

126 (2) if the sum of the average of the video game production company for the 5 year
127 period is greater than or equal to 105 per cent but less than 110 per cent of the count of full-time
128 equivalent employees during the year the credit in section 38X was earned, the workforce tax
129 credit shall be 20 per cent of the tax credit allowed in subsection (b);

130 (3) if the sum of the average of the video game production company for the 5 year
131 period is greater than or equal to 110 per cent but less than 115 per cent of the count of full-time
132 equivalent employees during the year the credit in section 38X was earned, the workforce tax
133 credit shall be 30 per cent of the tax credit allowed in subsection (b);

134 (4) if the sum of the average of the video game production company for the 5 year
135 period is greater than or equal to 115 per cent but less than 120 per cent of the count of full-time
136 equivalent employees during the year the credit in section 38X was earned, the workforce tax 137 credit shall be 40 per cent of the tax credit allowed in subsection (b); and

138 (5) if the sum of the average of the video game production company for the 5 year
139 period is greater than or equal to 120 per cent of the count of full-time equivalent employees 140 during the year the credit in section 38X was earned, the workforce tax credit shall be 50 per cent 141 of the tax credit allowed in subsection (b).

142 (d) A taxpayer shall be allowed an additional credit against the taxes imposed by this 143 chapter equal to 5 per cent of either the credit allowed in subsections (b) and (c) of section 38X 144 or the credit allowed in subsections (b) and (c) of this section if a video game production 145 company is located in a gateway municipality, as defined by section 3A of chapter 23A; 146 provided, that the value of such credit shall not exceed $500,000 per year.

147 (e) The tax credit shall be taken against the taxes imposed under this chapter and shall, at 148 the election of the taxpayer, be refundable to the extent provided for in section 32E. Any amount 149 of the tax credit that exceeds the tax due for a taxable year may be carried forward by the 150 taxpayer to any of the 5 subsequent taxable years.

151 (f)(1) All or any portion of tax credits issued in accordance with the provisions of this
152 section may be transferred, sold or assigned to other taxpayers with tax liabilities under this 153 chapter or chapter 62. Any tax credit that is transferred, sold or assigned and taken against taxes
154 imposed by this chapter or said chapter 62 shall not be refundable. Any amount of the tax credit 155 that exceeds the tax due for a taxable year may be carried forward by the transferee, buyer or 156 assignee to any of the 5 subsequent taxable years from which a certificate is initially issued by 157 the department of revenue.

158 (2) An owner, transferee or assignee desiring to make a transfer, sale or assignment shall 159 submit to the commissioner a statement which describes the amount of tax credit for which the

160 transfer, sale or assignment of tax credit is eligible. The owner, transferee or assignee shall 161 provide to the commissioner such information as the commissioner may require for the proper
162 allocation of the credit. The commissioner shall provide to the taxpayer a certificate of eligibility
163 to transfer, sell or assign the tax credits. The commissioner shall not issue a certificate to a 164 taxpayer that has an outstanding tax obligation with the commonwealth in connection with any 165 motion picture for any prior taxable year. A tax credit shall not be transferred, sold or assigned 166 without a certificate. The commissioner shall direct, assign and issue a certificate equal to 10 per 167 cent of the annual total of all tax credits earned in the prior year to the Massachusetts Digital 168 Games Institute for game development education and training programs and activities. These 169 credits may be refunded at 80 per cent of face value or transferred, sold or assigned to other 170 taxpayers with tax liabilities.

171 (g) A taxpayer shall be allowed either the credits under this section or section 38X.

172 (h) The commissioner, in consultation with the secretary, shall promulgate regulations 173 necessary for the administration of this section.

174 Section 83. A taxpayer engaged in the making of a video game or interactive digital 175 media shall be allowed a workforce training credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter for 176 eligible 2 year on-the-job training wages within the commonwealth. The credit shall be equal to 177 25 per cent of on-the-job wages as determined by the commissioner.

178 Section 84. (a) If a taxpayer, engaged in the making of a video game or interactive 179 digital media receiving a tax credit under section 82, discontinues operations in the 180 commonwealth during the first 2 and one-half years of applying for such credit, the taxpayer 181 shall forfeit all credits taken by the taxpayer during such 2 and one-half year period. In the event

182 of the forfeiture of such credits, the department shall initiate proceedings against the taxpayer to 183 recover wrongfully exempted state income taxes and the taxpayer shall promptly repay to the 184 department any wrongfully exempted state income taxes. The forfeited amount of credits shall 185 be deemed assessed on the date the department initiates proceedings against such recipient and 186 the recipient shall promptly repay to the department any wrongfully exempted state income 187 taxes. The secretary of economic development may elect to waive enforcement of any such 188 forfeiture based on a finding that the waiver is necessary to avert an imminent and demonstrable
189 hardship to the recipient. If a waiver is granted, the recipient shall agree to contractual recapture 190 provisions. The existence of any waiver granted under this section, the date of the granting of 191 such waiver, and a brief summary of the reasons supporting the granting of such waiver shall be 192 disclosed consistent with the provisions of this section.

193 (b) Beginning June 1, 2013 the department shall annually compile a report on the 194 outcomes and effectiveness of the recapture provisions of this section, including but not limited 195 to: (1) the total number of taxpayers engaged in the making of a video game or interactive digital 196 media receiving a tax credit under sections 38X, 82 or 83; (2) the total number of recipients in 197 violation of this section; (3) the total number of completed recapture efforts; (4) the total number 198 of recapture efforts initiated; and (5) the number of waivers granted. Such report shall be a 199 public record under clause Twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4 and chapter 66.

200 (c) The commissioner, in consultation with the secretary, shall promulgate regulations 201 necessary for the administration of this section.
