Resolutions memorializing the Congress of the United States to declare the city of Quincy as the most patriotic city in America.

1 Whereas Quincy is the only community in America that is the birthplace of two U.S.
2 Presidents, John Adams and John Quincy Adams;

3 Whereas Quincy is the only community in America that is the final resting place of two
4 U.S. Presidents and two First Ladies;

5 Whereas Quincy is the home of America's first presidential library, the Stone Library at 6 Peacefield, which houses 14,000 books from two presidents and other national treasures;

7 Whereas Quincy is one of just four communities in the United States that's the home of
8 two signers of the Declaration of Independence;

9 Whereas Quincy is the birthplace of famed patriot John Hancock, president of the 10 Continental Congress who boldly wrote his signature on the Declaration of Independence so
11 large that King George “could read his name without spectacles”;

12 Whereas Hancock Cemetery in Quincy is the final resting place of 69 veterans of the 13 American Revolution;

14 Whereas the Massachusetts Constitution, the world's oldest existing constitution and 15 inspiration for the U.S. Constitution, was written in Quincy;

16 Whereas North Quincy High School is believed to be the only school in the nation that
17 produced two Medal of Honor recipients in World War II; and is also the alma mater of Maj.
18 Gen. Charles Sweeney, the only man to fly both atomic bomb missions;

19 Whereas Quincy was the home of two shipyards in America's mighty “Arsenal of 20 Democracy” that helped triumph over global tyranny in both World War I and World War II;

21 Whereas the inspirational phrase “Kilroy Was Here,” which became a patriotic rallying
22 cry that buoyed the spirits of American soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines overseas in World
23 War II, originated in the Fore River Shipyard in Quincy;

24 Whereas Quincy is proud home of the oldest Flag Day parade in the nation, held each
25 June 14 since 1952, followed by the unfurling of a 60-foot-long American flag, flyover, patriotic
26 song and fireworks celebration;

27 Whereas Quincy is the home of 108 sites listed on the national Register of Historic
28 Places; and the home of seven National Historic Landmarks;

29 Whereas thousands of men and women from Quincy continue to serve the advancement
30 of their nation today, in the military, in volunteerism and in service to their fellow man;

31 Whereas Quincy remains a city proud of its patriotic legacy and great contributions to 32 American history and the advancement of representative governments on our own shores and 33 around the globe, and is a strong, prosperous and diverse community today;

34 Resolved, that The General Court urges the United States Congress to declare the city of 35 Quincy as the most Patriotic City in America; and be it further

36 Resolved, that copies of these resolutions be forwarded by the Clerk of the House to the 37 Vice-President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the 38 members of the Massachusetts Congressional delegation.
