HOUSE . . . . . No. 3250

By Mr. Holmes of Boston and Senator Hart, a joint petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3250) of Russell E. Holmes, John Hart, Jr. and District Attorney Daniel F. Conley relative to the regulation of firearms. Public Safety and Homeland Security.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to combat gun violence.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The first paragraph of Section 123 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following clause after 3 line 230:-

4 Twenty-second, That no licensee shall purchase for resale, after January 1, 2015, a pistol 5 that is not designed and equipped with a microscopic array of characters that identify the make, 6 model, and serial number of the pistol, etched or otherwise imprinted in two or more places on 7 the interior surface or internal working parts of the pistol, and that are transferred by imprinting
8 on each cartridge case when the firearm is fired, provided that the Secretary of Public Safety 9 certifies that the technology used to create the imprint is available to more than one manufacturer
10 unencumbered by any patent restrictions. The Secretary of Public Safety may also approve a 11 method of equal or greater reliability and effectiveness in identifying the specific serial number 12 of a firearm from spent cartridge casings discharged by that firearm than that which is set forth in 13 this paragraph, in which case a licensee may also purchase for resale pistols utilizing the 14 Secretary’s approved alternative method.

15 SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 269 of said General Laws is hereby amended to add 16 the following language:

- 17 (p) Whoever
- 18 (i) knowingly has in his possession; or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle, 19 a weapon, loaded or unloaded, as defined in section 121 of chapter 140, without being in or on 20 his residence or place of business

21 (ii) with a percentage, by weight, of alcohol in their blood of 8 one-hundredths or 22 greater, or while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, or of marijuana, narcotic drugs, 23 depressants, or stimulant substances, all as defined in section 1 of chapter 94C, or the vapors of 24 glue

25 shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than 2 years or 26 by a fine of not more than $2000. A conviction or admission to sufficient facts of a violation of 27 this subsection shall revoke any license under section 123, 129B, or 131 of chapter 140; provided 28 that the defendant shall be allowed one month to dispose of any firearms possessed or owned by 29 him or her prior to being convicted. Such revoked license shall immediately be surrendered to 30 the prosecuting officer who shall forward the same to the licensing authority. The court shall 31 report immediately any revocation, under this subsection, of a license to the criminal history 32 systems board and to the police department of the municipality in which the defendant is 33 domiciled. A person convicted of violating this subsection shall not be eligible to obtain a 34 license a license under 123, 129B, or 131 for ten years from the date of conviction.

35 SECTION 3. Section 58 of Chapter 276 of said General Laws is hereby amended by

124 (a) A person possessing a firearm identification card under section 129B of this 125 chapter or a license to carry under section 131 of this chapter must obtain an insurance policy or 126 liability bond that provides for payment to any person, other than an unlawful trespasser, of all 127 reasonable expenses incurred within two years of a shooting or other incident for necessary

128 medical, surgical, x-ray, and dental services, including prosthetic devices and necessary 129 ambulance, hospital, professional nursing and funeral services, and in the case of persons 130 employed or self-employed at the time of an accident of any amounts actually lost by reason of 131 inability to work and earn wages or salary or their equivalent, but not other income, that would 132 otherwise have been earned in the normal course of an injured person's employment, and for 133 payments in fact made to others, not members of the injured person's household and reasonably
134 incurred in obtaining from those others ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those that, had 135 he not been injured, the injured person would have performed not for income but for the benefit 136 of himself and/or members of his household, and in the case of persons not employed or self-137 employed at the time of an accident of any loss by reason of diminution of earning power and for 138 payments in fact made to others, not members of the injured person's household and reasonably
139 incurred in obtaining from those others ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those that, had 140 he not been injured, the injured person would have performed not for income but for the benefit
141 of himself and/or members of his household, as a result of bodily injury, sickness or disease, 142 including death at any time resulting therefrom, caused by a weapon owned, possessed, or used 143 by the insured, without regard to negligence or gross negligence or fault of any kind, to the 144 amount or limit of at least $250,000 on account of injury to or death of any one person, except 145 that payments for loss of wages or salary or their equivalent or, in the case of persons not 146 employed, loss by reason of diminution of earning power.

147 (b) A person renewing a firearms identification card or license to carry shall provide, 148 on forms created by the criminal history systems board, a certificate from an insurance company 149 authorized to issue in the commonwealth a firearms insurance policy or liability bond attesting 150 that the person has obtained insurance covering the period for which renewal of the card is 151 sought, for each weapon owned by the cardholder or license holder. The certificate will contain 152 a complete description of every weapon covered by the policy, including the caliber, make, and 153 serial number, and the cardholder or license holder shall certify under the pains and penalties of 154 perjury that the descriptions are correct, and that the cardholder or license holder neither owns 155 nor possesses any other weapon.

156 SECTION 18. Section 129B of Chapter 140 of said General Laws is hereby amended in 157 line 171 by striking out the number "6" and inserting therefor the number "2".

158 SECTION 19. Section 131 of Chapter 140 of said General Laws is hereby amended in 159 lines 232, 234, and 243 by striking out the number "6" and inserting therefor the number "5", 160 and by, in lines 234 and 243, by striking out the number "5" and inserting therefor the number 161 "1".

162 SECTION 20. Subsection (12) of Section 129B of Chapter 140 of said General Laws is 163 hereby struck, and the remaining subsections shall be renumbered accordingly.

164 SECTION 21. Section 36A of Chapter 123 of said General Laws is hereby amended by 165 inserting the following paragraph:-

166 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the administrative office of the trial court shall transmit 167 information contained in court records maintained under this section to the commissioner of the 168 department of criminal justice information services for the purposes of (a) providing licensing 169 authorities as defined under chapter 121 of chapter 140 with information required or permitted to 170 be considered under state or federal law for the purpose of conducting background checks for 171 firearms sales or licensing and (b) providing the Attorney General of the United States with 172 information required or permitted under federal law to be included in the National Instant 173 Criminal Background Check System or any successor system maintained for the purpose of 174 conducting background checks for firearms sales or licensing. The commissioner of the 175 department of criminal justice information services shall determine which court records shall be 176 transmitted for said purposes, provided that the commissioner shall require no more information 177 than is necessary to be transmitted, and such information shall not be considered a public record 178 under section 7 of chapter 4.

179 SECTION 22. Section 35 of Chapter 123 of said General Laws is hereby amended by 180 inserting after the word “days.”, in line 38, the following language:-

181 The court in its order shall specify whether such commitment is based upon a finding that 182 said person is an alcoholic, a substance abuser, or both, and this information shall be entered in 183 the record to permit transmission to the commissioner of the department of criminal justice 184 information services for the purposes and under the conditions set forth in the second paragraph 185 of section 36A.

186 SECTION 23. Chapter 265 of said General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 187 section 13M the following section:-

188 Section 13N. Upon entry of a conviction for any misdemeanor offense that has as an 189 element the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, the 190 court shall determine whether the victim or intended victim was a family or household member 191 of the defendant, as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A. If the victim or intended victim was a 192 family or household member of the defendant, the court shall enter the offense, the chapter, 193 section, and subsection, if any, of the offense, and the relationship of the defendant to the victim 194 upon the record, and this entry shall be forwarded to the commissioner of the department of 195 criminal justice information services for inclusion in the criminal justice information system and 196 for the purpose of providing the Attorney General of the United States with information required
197 or permitted under federal law to be included in the National Instant Criminal Background Check
198 System or any successor system maintained for the purpose of conducting background checks for 199 firearms sales or licensing.

200 SECTION 24. Notwithstanding any general or special law or court order, including an 201 order of impoundment, to the contrary, the administrative office of the trial court shall transmit 202 any order of the probate court appointing a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated person 203 under part 3 or part 4 of article V of the Massachusetts Uniform Probate Code on the ground that 204 the person lacks the mental capacity to contract or manage his own affairs, and any subsequent 205 order terminating or rescinding such appointment, to the commissioner of the department of 206 criminal justice information services for the purpose of providing the Attorney General of the 207 United States with information required or permitted under federal law to be included in the 208 National Instant Criminal Background Check System or any successor system maintained for the 209 purpose of conducting background checks for firearms sales or licensing. The department of 210 criminal justice information services shall transmit no more information than is necessary for the 211 purpose stated above, and such information shall not be considered a public record under section 212 7 of chapter 4.

213 SECTION 25. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 36 of chapter 123 of the 214 General Laws, and for the sole purpose of providing licensing authorities as defined under 215 section 121 of chapter 140 of the General Laws with information required or permitted to be 216 considered under state law for the purpose of conducting background checks for firearms sales or 217 licensing and of providing the Attorney General of the United States with information required
218 or permitted under federal law to be included in the National Instant Criminal Background Check
220 firearms sales or licensing:

221 (1) No later than 6 months from the effective date of this act, the department of 222 mental health shall transmit to the commissioner of the department of criminal justice 223 information services sufficient information to identify all persons known to the department of 224 mental health who have been confined to any hospital or institution for mental illness within 20 225 years of the effective date or who are so confined at the time of transmission; and 226 (2) Thereafter, the department of mental health shall transmit such information to the 227 commissioner of the department of criminal justice information services on a quarterly basis 228 concerning individuals who have been so confined in the 3-month period preceding the date of 229 each transmission.

230 The department of criminal justice information services shall provide such licensing 231 authorities or transmit no more information than is necessary for the purpose stated above and 232 such information shall not be considered a public record under section 7 of chapter 4.

233 SECTION 26. To provide for certain unanticipated obligations of the commonwealth, to 234 provide for an alteration of purpose for current appropriations, and to meet certain requirements
235 of law, the sums set forth are hereby appropriated from the General Fund unless specifically 236 designated otherwise herein, and subject to the provisions of law regulating the disbursement of 237 public funds for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008, provided that said sums shall be in addition 238 to any amounts previously appropriated and made available for the purposes of said items.
