DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

HOUSE No. 3277

By Mr. Chan of Quincy, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3277) of Tackey Chan relative to line of duty survivor benefits for court officials. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to line of duty survivor benefits for court officials.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32 of the General Laws is hereby amended by the adding the 2 following new section:--

3 Section 106. If a court officer, probation officer, clerk, judge or justice is killed or dies
4 from injuries received, or dies as a natural and proximate result of undergoing a hazard peculiar 5 to his employment, while in the performance of his or her duty, and it shall be proved to the 6 satisfaction of the state retirement board that such death was the natural and proximate result of 7 undergoing a hazard peculiar to his employment, while he was acting in the performance and 8 within the scope of his or her duty to the following dependents of such deceased person the 9 following annuities: To the spouse, so long as said spouse remains unmarried, a survivors death 10 benefit allowance to consist of a yearly amount of annuity equal to the full amount of the annual 11 rate of regular compensation of such court officer, probation officer, clerk, judge or justice on the 12 date such injury was sustained or such hazard was undergone, or equal to two thirds of the 13 average annual rate of his or her regular compensation for the twelve-month period for which he

14 or she last received regular compensation immediately preceding the date of his or her death, 15 whichever is greater, increased in either case by three hundred and twelve dollars, as adjusted for 16 inflation and in accordance with cost of living indexes, for each child of such deceased person 17 during such time as such child is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or 18 mentally incapacitated from earning; and if there is any such child and no spouse, or the spouse 19 later dies, such an annuity as would have been payable to the spouse had there been one or had 20 said spouse lived, to or for the benefit of such child, or of such children in equal shares, during 21 the time aforesaid; and if there is any such child and the spouse remarries, in lieu of the aforesaid
22 annuity to said spouse, an annuity of five hundred and twenty dollars as adjusted for inflation 23 and in accordance with cost living indexes, to or for the benefit of each such child during the 24 time aforesaid; and if there is no spouse and no such child, an annuity not exceeding one 25 thousand dollars, as adjusted for inflation and in accordance with cost of living indexes, to or for 26 the benefit of the father or mother of the deceased, if such father or mother was dependent on 27 him for support at the time of his or her death, during such time as such beneficiary is unable to 28 support himself or herself and does not marry.

29 No payment shall be made under this section unless and until there is on file in the office
30 of the state retirement board a copy of the marriage certificate of the surviving spouse, a record
31 of the birth of each dependent child under age eighteen, and a medical certificate for each
32 dependent child who is physically or mentally incapacitated from earning. The state retirement 33 board shall annually require, for the purpose of supporting continuance of payments authorized 34 under this section, such further certificates as may be necessary to evidence that a surviving 35 spouse has not remarried or a child over eighteen continues physically or mentally incapacitated 36 from earning.

37 The total amount of all such annuities shall not, except as hereinafter provided, exceed 38 the annual rate of compensation received by such deceased person on the date such injury was 39 sustained or such hazard was undergone, or equal to the average annual rate of his regular 40 compensation for the twelve-month period for which he last received regular compensation 41 immediately preceding the date of his death, whichever is greater.

42 For the purposes of this section, in the event that that a Judge or Justice of any 43 Massachusetts Court is killed or dies from injuries received, or dies as a natural and proximate
44 result of undergoing a hazard peculiar to his employment, while in the performance of his or her 45 duty, the surviving spouse or dependents provided for herein shall receive the maximum 46 retirement benefits, as if the Judge or Justice was fully vested, served the maximum number of 47 years and reached any mandatory retirement age.

48 The benefits provided under this section shall be in the alternative for the benefits, if any,
49 provided by any other provision of law; and the spouse, or if there is no spouse, the legal 50 representative of the children entitled thereto, if any, otherwise the father or mother in the order
51 named, shall elect which benefits shall be granted. Such election shall be made in writing and 52 shall be filed with the board or authority in charge of granting the benefits under the other 53 provision of law, and shall not be subject to change or revocation after the first payment of any 54 benefit under this section; and any person receiving benefits under this section shall not at the 55 same time receive benefits of like nature under any other provision of law.

56 For the purposes of this section, "a hazard peculiar to his employment, while in the 57 performance of his or her duty" shall include, but shall not be limited to: assignments in any 58 courthouse or other venue, such as hospitals or jails, used to conduct judicial business;

59 Emergency Judicial Response System assignments; approved voluntary or assigned education
60 programs or other assignment within the scope of his/her employment as a court officer, 61 probation officer, clerk, judge or justice.

62 The provisions of this act shall apply to any line of duty death as described herein having 63 occurred on or after January 1, 2002.
