The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

Resolutions Equality for America's adopted children.

1 WHEREAS the Child Citizenship Act of 2000 amends the Immigration and 2 Naturalization Act (INA) to permit foreign born adopted children to acquire automatic United 3 States citizenship upon certain conditions.

4 WHEREAS, foreign born adopted children became United States citizens automatically
5 when at least one parent is a United States citizen, the child is adopted under 16 years of age, the 6 child is residing in the United States in the legal and physical custody of the parent having 7 United States citizenship, and the adoption of that child has been finalized, and all legal 8 requirements applicable to adopted children comply with the provisions set forth in section 9 101(b)(1) of the Immigration and Naturalization Act.

10 WHEREAS, despite automatic United States citizenship under the Child Citizenship Act 11 of 2000, foreign born adopted children are not considered natural born citizens of the United 12 States under the United States Constitution and as such, cannot be afforded certain inalienable

13 rights and privileges available to natural born citizens under the United States Constitution
14 including but not limited to being eligible to pursue the Office of President of the United States.

15 WHEREAS, the purpose of the natural born citizen clause in the United States 16 Constitution is to protect the nation from foreign influence and ensure absolute loyalty and 17 attachment to the principles of the Constitution.

18 WHEREAS, there are more than 250,000 foreign born adopted children in the United 19 States whom are United States citizens that are being raised as Americans, educated as 20 Americans and bear true faith and allegiance to the United States just like natural born citizens.

21 THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts speaking through 22 its legislature hereby petitions the United States Congress to enact legislation allowing foreign 23 born adopted children that satisfy the requirements under the Child Citizenship Act of 2000 to be 24 considered natural born citizens so that they can be afforded the same inalienable rights and 25 privileges extended to all other citizens of the United States pursuant to the United States
26 Constitution.
