12 property, in the case of a person, if married, who has reached his sixty-eighth birthday prior to

15 eighth birthday prior to the fiscal year for which an exemption is sought and occupied by them as 16 their domicile: (1) to the amount of 26 per cent of taxable valuation if his Massachusetts adjusted 17 gross income as provided for in this clause for the taxable year is less than $30,000; (2) to the

22 provided, that (A) any such person claiming an exemption pursuant to this clause: (1) has been 23 domiciled in the commonwealth for the preceding 10 years, (2) has so owned and occupied such

24 real property or other real property in the commonwealth for 2 years, or (3) is a surviving spouse
25 who inherits such real property and has occupied such real property in the commonwealth 2
26 years and who otherwise qualified under this clause; (B) provided, however, that in computing 27 the gross receipts of an applicant under this clause ordinary business expenses and losses may be 28 deducted, but not personal or family expenses; provided, further, that beginning in state fiscal 29 year 2015 and annually thereafter, the commissioner of the department of revenue shall adjust 30 the income ceiling, for each category of adjusted gross income as provided for in this clause, 31 annually to reflect the projected change in the average value in the United States Department of 32 Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index (all urban) for that year and report such 33 change to any city or town who has accepted the provisions of this clause; provided, further, that 34 there shall be deducted from the total amount received by the applicant under the federal social 35 security or railroad retirement and from any annuity, pension, or retirement plan established for 36 employees of the United States government, the government of the commonwealth, or the 37 government of any city, town, county, or special district, included in such gross receipts, an 38 amount equivalent to the minimum payment then payable under said federal social security law, 39 as determined by the commissioner of revenue, to a retired worker sixty-eight years of age or 40 over, if the applicant is unmarried, or to a retired worker and spouse, both of whom are sixty-
41 eight years of age or over, if the applicant is married; and (C) that such person had a whole 42 estate, real and personal, not in excess of $28,000, or if married, not in excess of $30,000, and 43 provided, that real property occupied as his domicile shall, on a quarterly basis, not be included
44 in computing the whole estate except for any portion of said property which produces income
45 and exceeds 2 dwelling units. No such applicant shall be required to provide personal account 46 information for any of the following: savings accounts, checking accounts, certificate of deposit
47 accounts or annuity accounts. Applicants may annually provide proof of a retirement pension
48 plan or social security benefits to receive the exemption of this clause. No city or town shall 49 require any applicant or recipient to provide state or federal tax returns to determine eligibility 50 pursuant to this clause. To show proof of date of birth of the applicant, a city or town shall 51 require an applicant to provide the following: a driver's license or non-driver's identification 52 card, a current or expired passport or a copy of Certificate of Naturalization. To provide proof of 53 homeownership, an applicant may provide documentation of homeowners insurance with a 54 receipt that such insurance was paid or documentation from the registry of deeds or land court 55 registry district in which the land lies; provided, however, that no applicant shall be required to 56 provide documents of a family trust. A city, by vote of its council and approval of its mayor, or a 57 town, by vote of town meeting, may adjust the following factors contained in these provisions 58 by: 1) reducing the requisite age of eligibility to any person age 65 years or older; 2) increasing 59 either or both of the amounts contained in the first sentence of this clause, by not more than 100 60 per cent; 3) increasing the amounts contained in subclause (C) of said first sentence whenever 61 they appear in said subclause from $28,000 dollars to not more than $40,000 and from $30,000 62 to not more than $55,000; and 4) by further excluding from the determination of whole estate up 63 to 3 dwelling units.

64 In the case of real property owned by a person jointly or as a tenant in common with a 65 person not his spouse, the amount of his exemption under this clause shall be that proportion of 66 $4,000 valuation or the sum of $500, whichever would result in an exemption of the greater 67 amount of taxes due, which the amount of his interest in such property bears to the whole tax
68 due, provided: (A) that no exemption shall be granted to any joint tenant or tenant in common 69 unless the gross receipts from all sources whatsoever of each joint tenant or tenant in common is 70 less than $46,000 or, if married, the combined gross receipts from all sources whatsoever, of 71 each joint tenant or tenant in common and his spouse is less than $55,000, provided, however,
72 that in computing the gross receipts of an applicant under this clause ordinary business expenses 73 and losses may be deducted, but not personal or family expenses; provided, further, that 74 beginning in state fiscal year 2015 and annually thereafter, the commissioner of the department
75 of revenue shall adjust the income ceiling annually to reflect the projected change in the average
76 value in the United States Department of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index 77 (all urban) for that year and report such change to any city or town who has accepted the 78 provisions of this clause; and provided, further, that there shall be deducted from the total 79 amount received by the applicant under the federal social security or railroad retirement and from 80 an annuity, pension, or retirement plan established for employees of the United States
81 government, the government of the commonwealth, or the government of any city, town, county, 82 or special district, included in such receipts, an amount equivalent to the minimum payment then 83 payable under said federal social security law, as determined by the commissioner of revenue, to 84 a retired worker sixty-eight years of age or over, if the applicant is unmarried, or to a retired 85 worker and spouse, both of whom are sixty-eight years of age or over, if the applicant is married;
86 and (B) that the combined whole estate, real and personal, of each joint tenant or tenant in 87 common is less than $28,000 or, if married, the combined whole estate, real and personal of each 88 joint tenant or tenant in common and his spouse does not exceed $30,000, provided that real 89 property occupied as their domicile shall, on a quarterly basis, not be included in computing the 90 whole estate except for any portion of said property which produces income and exceeds 2
91 dwelling units. No proportion of the exemption shall be denied to any applicant otherwise 92 qualified for the reason that another joint tenant or tenant in common receives a proportion of the 93 total exemption. Household furnishings and property already exempt under the clauses Twelfth, 94 Twentieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-fifth shall not be included in computing the whole estate for 95 purposes of this section. Where a portion of the real property occupied as a domicile of an 96 applicant under this clause is located within a municipality other than the municipality in which 97 the applicant is domiciled, and where the value of said property, or the taxes, assessed by the 98 municipality in which such applicant is domiciled would result in his receiving less than the 99 maximum exemption provided by this clause, that part of the property of such applicant within 100 such other municipality shall be exempt to a value, or to an amount of tax, sufficient to grant the 101 applicant the total maximum exemption provided by the clause.

102 No applicant seeking an exemption under this clause shall be required to provide personal 103 account information for any of the following: cash surrender value for a life insurance policy,

104 individual retirement accounts, savings accounts, checking accounts, certificate of deposit
105 accounts or annuity accounts. Applicants may annually provide proof of a retirement pension
106 plan or social security benefits to receive the exemption of this clause. No city or town shall 107 require any applicant or recipient to provide state or federal tax returns or to report sales on 108 stocks and bonds as part of income earnings, or a cash surrender value for a life insurance policy
109 to determine eligibility pursuant to this clause. To show proof of date of birth of the applicant, a 110 city or town shall require an applicant to provide the following: a driver's license or non-driver's 111 identification card, a current or expired passport or a copy of Certificate of Naturalization. To 112 provide proof of homeownership, an applicant may provide documentation of homeowners 113 insurance with a receipt that such insurance was paid or documentation from the registry of 114 deeds or registered in the registry district of the land court for the county or district in which the 115 land lies; provided, however, that no applicant shall be required to provide documents of a 116 family trust.

117 This clause shall take effect in any city or town upon its acceptance by such city or town
118 for fiscal years commencing on or after July first, 1986, or for fiscal years commencing on or 119 after such later July first as the city or town may elect. In those cities and towns which accept the 120 provisions of this clause, the provisions of clause Forty-first and Forty-first B shall not be 121 applicable; provided, however, that any amount of money annually appropriated by the 122 commonwealth for the purpose of reimbursing cities and towns for taxes abated under this 123 clause, clause Forty-first and clause Forty-first B shall be distributed as provided in said clause
124 Forty-first.

125 SECTION 2. The income ceiling provided for in subclause (B) of the first sentence of 126 clause Forty-first C of section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as amended by this act, shall 127 take effect as of May 1, 2014.
