Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting the following section:-

Section 72. (1) There is established a permanent commission on the status of black men and boys consisting of 19 persons as follows: 5 persons appointed by the governor; 4 persons appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; 4 persons appointed by the president of the senate; and 6 persons appointed by the Massachusetts black and latino legislative caucus or its successor organization. Members of the commission shall be drawn from diverse religious, age, sexual orientation, socio-economic and geographic backgrounds from throughout the commonwealth and shall have had experience working toward the improvement of the status of black men and boys in society. Members shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 268A as they apply to special state employees. The commission shall be an independent agency of the government of the commonwealth and shall not be subject to the control of any other department or agency.

- (2)(a) Members shall serve terms of three years and until their successors are appointed.
- (b) Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the balance of the unexpired term.

- (c) Appointments shall be made in consultation with organizations with a proven commitment working toward the improvement of the status of black men and boys. Nominations shall be solicited between August 1 and September 16 of each year through an open application process using a uniform application to be developed by the Office of Access and Opportunity. Appointing authorities shall widely distribute applications throughout the state.
- (d) The commission shall elect from among its members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer and any other officers it deems necessary.
- (e) The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for any usual and customary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
- (3) The commission shall conduct an ongoing study of all matters concerning black men and boys, including but not limited to examining issues which disproportionately have a negative impact on black men and boys in Massachusetts and work to improve economic, educational, criminal justice, public safety, health and wellness, identity, housing and societal outcomes for black men and boys in the Commonwealth. In furtherance of that responsibility, the commission shall, subject to appropriation for staffing: (a) study, review and report on the status of black men and boys in the commonwealth; (b) inform leaders of business, education, health care, state and local governments and the communications media of issues pertaining to black men and boys; (c) serve as a liaison between government and private interest groups concerned with issues affecting black men and boys; (d) serve as a clearinghouse for information on issues pertaining to black men and boys; (e) identify and recommend qualified persons for appointive positions at all levels of government, including boards and commissions, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate; (f) assess programs and practices in any state agencies as they affect black men and boys, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate; (g) advise executive and legislative bodies on the effect on black men and boys of proposed legislation, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate; and (h) promote and facilitate collaboration among relevant organizations in the state, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate. The commission shall annually, subject to appropriation for staffing, on or before June 2, report the results of its findings and activities of the preceding year and its recommendations to the governor, the clerks of the senate and house of representatives.

- (4) The powers of the commission shall include but not be limited to the following: (a) to use such voluntary and uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies and organizations as may from time to time be offered and needed; (b) to recommend policies and make recommendations to agencies and officers of the state and local subdivisions of government to effectuate the purposes of subsection (3); (c) to acquire adequate staff to perform its duties, subject to appropriation; (d) to establish and maintain offices as it may deem necessary, subject to appropriation; (e) to enact bylaws for its own governance; and, (f) to hold regular, public meetings and to hold fact-finding hearings and other public forums as it may deem necessary.
- (5)(a) The commission may request from all state agencies such information and assistance as the commission may require.

58 (b) The commission may accept and solicit funds, including any gifts, donations, grants 59 or bequests or any federal funds, for any of the purposes of this section. Such funds shall be 60 deposited in a separate account with the state treasurer, be received by said treasurer on behalf of 61 the commonwealth, and be expended by the commission in accordance with law.
