

HOUSE No. 4132

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, October 18, 2023.

The committee on Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure to whom was referred the petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 383) of Jeffrey N. Roy for legislation to allow electronic delivery receipts for certain bulk sale customers of fuel oils and propane, reports recommending that the accompanying bill (House, No. 4132) ought to pass.

For the committee,

TACKEY CHAN.

HOUSE No. 4132

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act allowing electronic delivery receipts for certain bulk sale customers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 303F of chapter 94 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2022
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the word “time”, in line 16, and inserting in
3 place thereof the following: - “time; provided, however, a vendor using a bulk sale delivery
4 system equipped with the capability of issuing an electronic receipt, ticket or other recorded
5 representation for a bulk sale may give a purchaser the option to receive any information
6 required under this section through electronic means in lieu of or in addition to a paper delivery
7 ticket. If the purchaser opts to receive such information electronically, the vendor shall obtain the 8 purchaser's consent in writing.”
