24 appointed and qualified, at which time the successor shall complete the unexpired portion of the 25 term. Each of the 4 members of the appeals board appointed by the governor shall serve without

64 of such board shall be excused pending the final determination of any appeal therefrom taken 65 under this section; provided, however, that if, in making a determination subject to this section,

67 could result during the pendency of a judicial review, the board may order that the determination 68 become provisionally effective and enforceable immediately upon issuance, and shall remain so 69 notwithstanding and until the conclusion of the judicial review, unless the appeals board orders 70 otherwise during the course of the proceeding.
