994 (3) At least 50 per cent of the starter homes to be developed in a proposed starter
995 home district, excluding accessory dwelling units, must contain 3 or more bedrooms.

996 (4) The zoning ordinance or by-law for each proposed starter home zoning district

1011 occupancy restrictions on the district as a whole or any portion thereof or project therein.

1017 Section 5. (a) The zoning applicable to a starter home zoning district may require that 1018 individual projects design site plans in a manner that preserves developable land as open space,
1019 provided that the zoning allows for 4 starter homes per acre including the developable land
1020 preserved as open space. The zoning may provide for such open space to be preserved through a 1021 conservation restriction as defined in section 31 of chapter 184, by the grant of an easement or 1022 restriction to the municipal conservation commission, or by such other means as is permitted by 1023 state law.

1024 (b) A local historic district may overlap with a starter home zoning district in whole 1025 or in part, so long as the local historic district does not render the city or town noncompliant with 1026 this chapter, as determined by the department.

1027 (c) The zoning applicable to a starter home zoning district may include reasonable 1028 design standards applicable to individual starter home projects, to ensure that the physical 1029 character of development within the starter home zoning district is complementary to adjacent 1030 buildings and structures. Such standards may address the scale and proportions of buildings, the 1031 alignment, the width and grade of streets and sidewalks, the type and location of infrastructure, 1032 the location of building and garage entrances, off-street parking, the protection of significant 1033 natural site features, the location and design of on-site open spaces, exterior signs and buffering

1035 unreasonable costs to starter home developments or unreasonably impair the economic feasibility 1036 of proposed starter home projects.

1037 (d) The zoning ordinance or by-law may provide for site plan review of proposed 1038 starter home projects, provided such review is consistent with and subject to the following 1039 limitations:

1040 (1) The ordinance or by-law may require the applicant to pay for reasonable
1041 consulting fees to provide peer review of the applications for the benefit of the plan approval
1042 authority, provided that fees shall be held by the municipality in a separate account and used
1043 only for expenses associated with the review of the development application by outside 1044 consultants and any surplus remaining after the completion of such review, including any interest 1045 accrued, shall be returned to the applicant.

1046 (2) The starter home zoning district ordinance or by-law may provide for the referral 1047 of the plan to municipal officers, agencies or boards other than the plan approval authority for

1048 comment, provided that any such board, agency or officer shall provide any comments to the 1049 plan approval authority within 60 days of its receipt of a copy of the plan.

1050 (3) Notwithstanding any provision in the zoning code or by-law to the contrary, the 1051 decision of the plan approval authority shall be made, and a written notice of the decision filed 1052 with the city or town clerk, not later than 120 days after the receipt of a complete application by 1053 the city or town clerk, unless such timeframe for decision is extended by written agreement 1054 between the applicant and the plan approval authority. Failure of the plan approval authority to 1055 take action within said 120 days or extended time, if applicable, shall be deemed to be an 1056 approval of the plan. An applicant who seeks approval of a plan by reason of the failure of the 1057 plan approval authority to act within said 120 days shall notify the city or town clerk, in writing,
1058 within 14 days after the expiration of said 120 days or extended time, if applicable. Such notice
1059 to the city or town clerk shall specify relevant details of the application timeline demonstrating 1060 the lack of decision.

1061 (4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the zoning ordinance or by-law, the 1062 plan approval authority may approve a site plan subject only to those conditions that are 1063 necessary to (i) ensure substantial compliance of the proposed project with the requirements of 1064 the starter home zoning district ordinance or by-law; (ii) ensure public safety or the safety of 1065 persons living in or visiting the proposed project, or (iii) mitigate any extraordinary adverse 1066 impacts of the project on nearby properties.

1067 (5) The department may establish additional standards or limitations for site plan 1068 review pursuant to this section.

1519 families of low income;

1520 (4) determined that the availability of funds to the housing authority for such project is 1521 conditioned upon the occurrence of the initial mortgage loan closing for the development of new
