The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to firearms in the commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 131 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph after paragraph 3 three:—

4 No license to carry shall be issued pursuant to this section unless and until the applicant for the 5 license or for the renewal of an existing license presents to the licensing authority a complete list 6 of every handgun owned by the applicant along with a certificate of insurance verifying that the 7 applicant has a valid insurance policy insuring against any harm or damage that might arise out
8 of the use of each weapon on said list. The applicant shall swear under the penalties of perjury
9 that said list is a complete list of all handguns owned by the applicant. The insurance policy shall 10 be in an amount of at least $250,000 and shall list the specific weapons covered by the policy.

11 The list presented to the licensing authority shall match the list on the insurance policy or the 12 license or renewal shall not issue. In the event that a holder of a license to carry acquires a new 13 handgun after the issuance of the license or the renewal of an existing license, the holder shall 14 register the weapon as required by law and shall forward to the licensing authority a true copy of 15 a certificate of insurance verifying the existence of insurance, as required herein, for said new 16 weapon or weapons within thirty days of acquisition. Such a policy of insurance shall be 17 available to satisfy any judgment for personal injuries or property damages arising out of the 18 unintentional, accidental or unlawful use of an insured weapon, provided that, in the event of 19 multiple judgments, judgments for medical bills shall have a priority in the order that said 20 judgments are satisfied and, provided further, that medical bills paid for by or owed to the 21 Commonwealth and any municipal or regional governmental entity shall have a super priority
22 and shall be satisfied first out of all such judgments for medical bills. In the event that a 23 judgment issues against the license holder for personal injuries or property damage that cannot 24 be satisfied by the required insurance policy due to the holder's failure to maintain said policy, 25 the license holder may be punished by imprisonment by not more than five years.

26 SECTION 2: Section 131 ½ of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 27 amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 28 sentence:-

29 The board shall consist of nine individuals, one of whom shall be a member of the gun owners
30 action league, one of whom shall be a member of stop handgun violence, one of whom shall be a 31 police chief selected from a list of four selected by the police chiefs association, one of whom 32 shall be a district attorney selected from a list of three selected by the district attorney's

33 association, and one of whom shall be the director of the firearms records bureau within the 34 criminal history systems board.

35 SECTION 3: Section 129C of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 36 amended by striking out in line 16 the words “shall be made” and inserting in that line after the 37 word “gun,” the following:- “a seller or owner shall make”.

38 SECTION 4: Section 131 subsection (d) of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing,
39 is hereby amended by inserting thereafter the following sentence;-

40 (viii) has not successfully completed a firearms safety course of at least twenty hours, including a 41 minimum of four hours of practical shooting instruction at a firing range that has been approved 42 by the secretary of public safety or his designee.

43 SECTION 5: Section 123 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 44 amended by striking out, in line 64 the word “and”, and by inserting after the word “thirty-one”
45 the following words:- “;and that no more than one firearm shall be sold to any person in the 46 Commonwealth who has purchased a firearm within the past 30 days.”

47 SECTION 6: Section 131K of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 48 amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:-

49 “All weapons as defined in section 121 including, but not limited to, firearms, large capacity 50 weapons, rifles and shotguns sold within the commonwealth without a safety device designed to 51 prevent the discharge of such weapon by unauthorized users and approved by the colonel of the 52 state police including, but no limited to, mechanical locks or devices designed to recognize and 53 authorize, or otherwise allow the firearm to be discharged by its owner or authorized user, by

54 solenoid use-limitation devices, key activated or combination trigger or handle locks, radio 55 frequency tags, automated fingerprint identification systems or voice recognition, provided, that 56 such device is commercially available, shall be defective and the sale of such weapons shall 57 constitute a breach of warranty under section 2-314 of chapter 106 and an unfair and deceptive
58 trade act or practice under section 2 of chapter 93A.”

59 SECTION 7: Chapter 269 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 60 out section 10E and inserting place thereof the following section:-

61 Section 10E. Whoever, except as provided by law, in a single transaction or occurrence or in a 62 series of transactions within a twelve month period, knowingly or intentionally distributes, sells,
63 or transfers possession of a quantity of firearms, rifles, shotguns, machine guns, assault weapons
64 or any combination thereof, shall, if the quantity of firearms, rifles, shotguns, machine guns, 65 assault weapons or any combination thereof is:

66 (1) Three or more, but less than ten, be punished by a term of imprisonment of not more than 67 ten years in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this paragraph shall be 68 for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of five years and a fine of not more
69 than seventy-five thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of the mandatory minimum 70 term of imprisonment, as established herein.

71 (2) Ten or more, but less than twenty, be punished by a term of imprisonment of not more than 72 ten years in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this paragraph shall be 73 for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of seven years and a fine of not more 74 than one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of the 75 mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, as established herein.

76 (3) Twenty or more, be punished by a term of imprisonment not less than ten years up to life
77 imprisonment in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this paragraph 78 shall be for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of twelve years and a fine of 79 not more than one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of 80 the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, as established herein.

81 A prosecution commenced under this section shall not be placed on file or continued without a 82 finding, and the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of violating any provision of said 83 section shall not be reduced to less than the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment as 84 established in said section, nor shall any sentence of imprisonment imposed upon any person be 85 suspended or reduced until such person shall have served said mandatory minimum term of 86 imprisonment.

87 A person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall not, until he shall have 88 served the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established herein, be eligible for 89 probation, parole, furlough, work release, or receive any deduction from his sentence for good 90 conduct under sections one hundred and twenty-nine, one hundred and twenty-nine C and one
91 hundred and twenty-nine D of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; provided, however, that 92 the commissioner of corrections may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or 93 other person in charge of the correctional institution, grant to said offender a temporary release in 94 the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes: to attend the funeral of a
95 relative, to visit a critically ill relative, or to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services
96 unavailable at said institution. The provisions of section eighty-seven of chapter two hundred and 97 seventy-six shall not apply to any person, seventeen years of age or over, charged with a
98 violation of said sections, or to any child between the age of fourteen and seventeen, so charged,

99 if the court is of the opinion that the interests of the public require that he shall be tried for such 100 offense instead of being dealt with as a child.
