The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to tax exemptions for veterans..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 5 of chapter 59, as appearing in the 2004 official edition, is hereby
- 2 amended by inserting the following after clause twenty-second E;
- 3 Twenty Second F, Real estate to the full amount of the taxable valuation of real property of for
- 4 honorably discharged veterans, as defined chapter 4, section 7, 43rd clause of the general laws.
- 5 Said exemption shall be in effect for the first five calendar years after discharge from the armed
- 6 forces. Veterans qualifying under this clause must have been domiciled in the commonwealth
- 7 for at least 6 months before entering service or 5 consecutive years next before the date for filing
- 8 for exemption under this clause.

9 Said veteran shall only qualify for exemption under this clause once and no real estate tax
10 exemption under this clause shall be conveyed to said veteran in order to evade taxation;
11 Provided further, that the full amount of this exemption shall be borne by the commonwealth,
12 and the state treasurer shall annually reimburse the city or town for the amount of the tax which 13 otherwise would have been collected for this exemption.

14 Section 2.

15 Section 1 of chapter 60a of the general laws, as appearing in the 2004 official edition, is hereby 16 amended by inserting the following after paragraph seven;

17 The excise imposed by this section shall not apply to a motor vehicle owned and registered by an 18 honorably discharged veteran as defined by chapter 4, section 7, 43rd clause of the general laws.
19 Said exemption shall be in effect for the first five calendar years after discharge from the armed
20 forces. Veterans qualifying under this clause must have been domiciled in the commonwealth
21 for at least 6 months before entering service or 5 consecutive years next before the date for filing
22 for exemption under this clause.
