The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to Prohibit Predatory Lending Practices by Auto Dealers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 255 B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

3 Section 26. A retail installment sales contract shall include the following:

4 (a) All financial and dealership documents (including handwritten, computer generated and
5 printed) be contained in a single file and available to the consumer at the lender and dealership
6 on request;

7 (b) The lender's "buy rate" be posted for consumers to view at the dealership;

8 (c) Purchase payroll records, including original pay stubs or other authenticable documents that 9 show proof of income, be attached to bank loan papers when submitted to the lender, to avoid
10 overestimates of income or falsification of income at dealer request by consumers;

11 (d) With any option to purchase additional products like extended warranties and service
12 contracts, consumers must be shown both the pre-option sale price and amount of monthly
13 payments, with interest, and the total price in sum including options and monthly payments
14 including additional charges for extras, with interest, to allow consumers a true and clear
15 comparison of figures;

16 (e) Any “balloon” payments as the final payment on a loan be specifically disclosed to the 17 consumer and a written notice of such disclosure be signed by both the consumer and dealer’s
18 agent;

19 (f) Dealers procure a state license to sell warranties and insurance products, and that a condition
20 of licensure be the purchase of insurance coverage to cover a dealership’s total liabilities if a 21 warranty company defaults.
