An Act to establish a child abuse and neglect registry.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 119 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended by 2 inserting after section 51H the following section:-

3 Section 51I. (a) Persons found to have abused or neglected a minor under the age of 18
4 by the family court, a criminal court, as a result of an administrative appeals process, or as a 5 result of an investigation into abuse outside of the child’s home setting, shall be recorded on the 6 Massachusetts Central Registry of Child Abuse and Neglect, as established under M.G.L.

7 Chapter 119 section 51F. The Registry shall also maintain information sufficient to identify the 8 persons convicted of child neglect under Chapter 119 sections 51A to 51B.

9 (b) During the sentencing of a person convicted of child abuse or neglect, the judge shall 10 designate the offender one of the following:

11           i. Level 1: the Department of Social Services in conjunction with the Massachusetts
12 Courts determined that the risk of re-offense by an offender is low and there is a limited degree
13 of danger posed to the public. This shall include persons found by the court to have unlawfully 14 withheld child support payments up to the amount of $5,000.

15           ii. Level 2: the Department of Social Services in conjunction with the Massachusetts 16 Courts determined that the risk of re-offense by an offender is moderate or high, and that in such 17 persons is a repeat offender, the risk to the community is moderate. This shall include persons 18 found by the court to have unlawfully withheld child support payments in an amount more than 19 $5,000 but less than $10,000.

20           iii. Level 3: Persons found to have committed particularly violent and heinous acts 21 that offend the mental, emotional, or physical well being of a child under the age of 18, as 22 determined by the Department of Social Services in conjunction with the Massachusetts Courts.
23 This shall include persons found by the court to have unlawfully withheld child support 24 payments in the amount of $10,000 or more.

25           (c). The public shall have access to the information relating to a level 3 offender through 26 the Central Registry.

27           SECTION 2. Section 26A of Chapter 119 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby 28 amended by inserting after subsection (h) the following subsection:-

29           (i) As part of the department's licensing and background record check process, the 30 department shall check the Massachusetts Central Registry of Child Abuse and Neglect, as 31 established under M.G.L. Chapter 119 section 51F and amended under 51I, for the identity of 32 any prospective foster or adoptive parent, as well as any other person living in the home, or who 33 has resided within the home in the preceding five years.

34 i. If the identity of any prospective foster or adoptive parent, as well as any other person 35 living in the home, or who has resided within the home in the preceding five years is found to be 36 a Level 1 offender, as defined under Chapter 119, Section 51I, the department shall consult the 37 Massachusetts Probate and Family Court to determine the suitability of the applicant.

38 ii. If the identity of any prospective foster or adoptive parent, as well as any other person 39 living in the home, or who has resided within the home in the preceding five years is found to be 40 a Level 2 or Level 3 offender, as defined under Chapter 119, Section 51I, the department shall 41 reject the request for foster care placement, adoption or kinship care.
