SENATE No. 1002

By Mr. Gomez, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1002) of Adam Gomez, Liz Miranda, Rebecca L. Rausch, James K. Hawkins and other members of the General Court for legislation to support survivors of trafficking and abuse and encouraging increased access to opportunities through expungement and/or sealing of records. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act supporting survivors of trafficking and abuse and encouraging increased access to opportunities through expungement and/or sealing of records.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 100E of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 2 hereby amended by adding the definition “victim of act(s) constituting abuse, human trafficking, 3 or involuntary sexual relations” as follows “a victim of act(s) constituting (i) abuse as defined in 4 section 1 of chapter 209A (ii) human trafficking as defined by section 20M of chapter 233 or a
5 victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or (iii) act(s) that by force, threat or 6 duress causes another to involuntarily engage in sexual relations.”

7 SECTION 1. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 8 hereby amended by striking the word “or” at the end of paragraph (a)(5).

9 SECTION 2. Section 100K of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 10 hereby amended by inserting after the sixth paragraph of subsection (a), the following 11 paragraph:-

12 (7) an offense that occurred as a result of the petitioner being a victim of act(s)
13 constituting abuse, human trafficking, or involuntary sexual relations.

15 hereby amended by inserting after the first sentence of subsection (b), the following sentences:-

16 Any official documentation from any local, state or federal community-based or 17 governmental agency of the defendant's status as a victim of act(s) constituting abuse as defined
18 in section 1 of chapter 209A, human trafficking as defined by section 20M of chapter 233 or a
19 victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or act(s) that by force, threat or duress
20 causes another to involuntarily engage in sexual relations at the time of the offense shall create a 21 rebuttable presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of their 22 victimization, but shall not be required for granting a petition. For purposes of this subsection, 23 "official documentation" shall be defined as any document issued by a local, state or federal 24 community-based or government agency in the agency's official capacity. A judge shall 25 consider any credible evidence including testimony of the petitioner in determining eligibility for 26 relief.

27 SECTION 4. Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 28 100Q, as inserted by section 195 of said chapter 69, and inserting in place thereof the following 29 section:-

30 Section 100Q. Unless otherwise provided by law, no person shall make records sealed 31 pursuant to section 100A, 100B, or 100C or expunged pursuant to section 100F, 100G, section 32 100H, or section 100K available for inspection in any form by any person.

33 SECTION 5. Section 100C of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 34 hereby amended by inserting after the second paragraph, the following paragraphs:-

35 Notwithstanding other provisions in section 100A—100C, a judge may without a waiting 36 period seal any court appearance or disposition where the offense occurred as a result of the 37 petitioner being a victim of act(s) constituting abuse as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A,
38 human trafficking as defined by section 20M of chapter 233 or a victim of trafficking in persons
39 under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or act(s) that by force, threat or duress causes another to involuntarily 40 engage in sexual relations, and the petitioner can establish a connection between the offense and 41 having been a victim of the aforementioned act(s) and it appears to the court that substantial 42 justice would best be served by the sealing of the record(s).

43 A judge shall consider any credible evidence including testimony of the petitioner in 44 determining eligibility for relief under this section. Any official documentation from any local, 45 state or federal community-based or governmental agency of the defendant's status as a victim of 46 act(s) constituting abuse as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A, human trafficking as defined by 47 section 20M of chapter 233 or a victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102 and/or 48 act(s) that by force, threat or duress causes another to involuntarily engage in sexual relations, at 49 the time of the offense shall create a rebuttable presumption that the defendant's participation in 50 the offense was connected to their victimization, but shall not be required for granting a petition.
51 For purposes of this subsection, "official documentation" shall be defined as any document 52 issued by a local, state or federal community-based or government agency in the agency's 53 official capacity, or any criminal justice agency as defined by section 167 of chapter 6.

54 SECTION 6. Sections 100A, 100B, and 100C of chapter 276 of the General Laws, as so 55 appearing, are hereby amended by inserting the following language at the end of each section:
56 “The clerk’s office of any division of the trial court, the commissioner of probation, or any other 57 criminal justice agency, upon request of a person whose offense or offenses are sealed, or the 58 person’s legal representative, shall provide access to the information contained in the sealed
59 records to the individual or the individual’s legal representative without first obtaining a court 60 order.”

61 SECTION 7. Section 59 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 62 amended by changing the word “defendant” to “petitioner” throughout the section.

63 SECTION 8. Section 59 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 64 amended by striking the phrase “under section 26, subsection (a) of section 53 or subsection (a)
65 of section 53A of chapter 272 or under section 34 of chapter 94C for simple possession of a 66 controlled substance” from subsection (a).

67 SECTION 9. Section 59 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 68 amended by striking the phrase “of a reasonable probability that the defendant's participation in 69 the offense was a result of having been a human trafficking victim as defined by section 20M of 70 chapter 233 or a victim of trafficking in persons under 22 U.S.C. 7102” from subsection (a) and 71 inserting the phrase “that petitioner was a victim of act(s) constituting abuse, human trafficking,
72 or involuntary sexual relations as defined by Section 100E of chapter 276, and the petitioner 73 participated in the offense as a result of fear, duress, coercion, or intimidation by a perpetrator of 74 said act(s).”

76 amended by inserting at the beginning of subsection (5) the following: A hearing on this petition
77 is not required and the court may grant the petition without a hearing if the requirements are met 78 or if the court finds justice so requires. If a hearing is conducted,”

79 SECTION 11. Section 59 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 80 amended by inserting at the end of subsection (6) the following: “Any filings related to the 81 petition shall be automatically filed under seal, and any hearings that take place shall be 82 confidential, unless otherwise requested by the petitioner.

83 ”SECTION 12. Section 59 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 84 amended by inserting after the first paragraph of subsection (b) the following: “The clerk shall 85 forthwith notify the commissioner of probation and the probation officer of the courts in which 86 the proceedings occurred or were initiated who shall likewise seal the records of the proceedings 87 in their files.”

88 SECTION 13. Section 57 of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 89 amended by striking “charges of engaging in common night walking or common streetwalking in 90 violation of section 53 of chapter 272 and to charges of violating section 26 or 53A of said
91 chapter 272” and by inserting “any charges” in its place. Also, by striking “while a human 92 trafficking victim” and by inserting “as a result of being a victim of human trafficking.”
