- (6) a statement by the authorizing party that there are no court orders in effect which would prohibit the authorizing party from exercising or conferring the rights and responsibilities sought to be conferred upon the caregiver or alternate;
 - (7) a statement of the authority being conferred and of any prohibitions;

- (8) a statement that the affidavit is not for the purposes of circumventing any state or federal law, for the purposes of attendance at a particular school, or to re-confer rights to a caregiver from whom those rights have been removed by a court of law; and
- (9) a statement by the authorizing party of when the authority of the appointed caregiver commences and when it ends (if specified).

The affidavit shall be signed under the pains and penalties of perjury by the authorizing party in the presence of 2 adult witnesses, neither of whom may be the caregiver nor alternate caregiver, and the affidavit shall be notarized. The affidavit also shall be signed by the caregiver, and by the alternate caregiver, if any, who shall attest to being an adult with whom the minor resides or will reside.

The caregiver authorization affidavit shall be valid for up to 2 years from the date that it comes into effect unless a shorter time is specified, and may be reauthorized. The authorizing party may reauthorize, amend or revoke the caregiver authorization affidavit by notifying the caregiver in writing. The authorizing party shall provide the amended affidavit or revocation to all parties to whom he has provided the original affidavit. The caregiver shall provide the amended affidavit or revocation to all parties to whom he has provided the original affidavit prior to further exercising any rights or responsibilities under the affidavit.

SECTION 6: Said chapter 201F is hereby further amended by striking out section 6, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, and inserting in the place thereof the following section:-

Section 6. The caregiver authorization affidavit shall be substantially in the following form, except that the use of alternative language consistent with the statute shall not be precluded:

Caregiver Authorization Affidavit

I. What this form enables: A parent, legal guardian or legal custodian of a minor, by this affidavit, may authorize a designated caregiver, who is an adult with whom the minor child resides or will reside, to exercise certain concurrent parental rights and responsibilities relative to a designated minor's education, health care, and recreational and enrichment activities. If a conflicting decision is made under these concurrent rights and responsibilities, the decision of the authorizing party or a legal guardian or legal custodian appointed subsequent to the execution of the affidavit shall supersede the decision of the caregiver.

The caregiver authorization affidavit shall only authorize those rights and responsibilities that the authorizing party possesses and shall not divest the authorizing party of his rights or responsibilities.

Under a caregiver authorization affidavit, a caregiver may:

(1) consent to medical, surgical, dental, developmental, mental health or other treatment for the minor under the supervision or upon the advice of a health care professional licensed to practice in the commonwealth;

- (2) exercise parental rights to obtain records and other information with regard to health care services and insurance provided to the minor; and
 - (3) make educational decisions (including daycare) on behalf of the minor and in all other ways stand in for the authorizing party with respect to federal, state and district educational policy, including, but not limited to, accessing the minor's educational records, representing the minor in enrollment, disciplinary, curricular, special education or other educational matters, signing permission slips for school activities and any other decision that facilitates the minor's educational experience; and
 - (4) make decisions on behalf of the minor regarding recreational and enrichment activities including, but not limited to, enrollment, signing permission slips for sports, clubs, lessons, camps and activities, and any other recreational and enrichment activities; and
 - (5) apply for health insurance and dental insurance coverage for the minor; for services and support for disabilities; and for any other public or private services to address the education or health needs of the minor.
 - II. Steps to authorize caregiver rights and responsibilities:

1. AUTHORIZING PARTY

- I, [name of authorizing party], residing at [address of authorizing party] am the parent/legal guardian/legal custodian of the minor child(ren) listed below.
- I, [name of parent or legal guardian or legal custodian], do hereby authorize [name of caregiver], residing at [address of caregiver], to exercise concurrently the rights and

112	responsibilities, except those prohibited below, that I possess relative to the education, health
113	care, recreational and enrichment activities of the minor child(ren) listed:
114	Minor Child's/Children Name(s) Date(s) of Birth
115
116
117
118	The caregiver may NOT:
119	(Please list specifically any education, health care, recreational, or enrichment rights and
120	responsibilities that you do NOT wish to confer upon the caregiver.)
121	In the event the above-named caregiver is unavailable or unwilling to serve as caregiver,
122	I do hereby authorize [name of alternate caregiver] residing at [address of alternate caregiver], to
123	exercise the rights referenced above. (This section is optional)
124	There are no court orders in effect that would prohibit me from exercising or conferring
125	the rights and responsibilities that I wish to confer upon the caregiver. (If you are the legal
126	guardian or custodian, attach the court order.)
127	I am not using this affidavit to circumvent any state or federal law, for the purposes of
128	attendance at a particular school, or to re-confer rights to a caregiver from whom those rights
129	have been removed by a court of law.

130 I confer these rights and responsibilities freely and knowingly in order to provide for the 131 child(ren) named herein, and not as a result of pressure, threats or payments by any person or 132 agency. 133 I understand that, if the affidavit is amended or revoked, I must provide the amended 134 affidavit or revocation to all parties to whom I have provided this affidavit. 135 The authority of the caregiver shall commence upon (choose one): 136 a date certain ; or 137 the date of the incapacity of the authorizing party to make or carry out day-to-day 138 decisions concerning the minor, as established by written certification of a licensed physician, or 139 the date of the unavailability of the authorizing party to make or carry out day-to-day decisions 140 concerning the minor due to circumstances such as, but not limited to, incarceration, voluntary or 141 involuntary commitment to a treatment program, detention, deportation, or active military duty, 142 as established by attestation of the named caregiver. 143 This document shall remain in effect until (choose one): 144 a date certain (up to two years hence); or 145 two years from the date of the incapacity of the authorizing party to make or carry out 146 day-to-day decisions concerning the minor, as established by written certification of a licensed 147 physician, or the date of the unavailability of the authorizing party to make or carry out day-to-148 day decisions concerning the minor due to circumstances such as, but not limited to, 149 incarceration, voluntary or involuntary commitment to a treatment program, detention, 150 deportation, or active military duty, as established by attestation of the named caregiver.

131	unless of until 1, as authorizing party, notify the caregiver (and afternate caregiver, if
152	any), in writing that I have amended or revoked it, or until such time as the minor child(ren)
153	reach the age of majority.
154	I hereby affirm that the above statements are true, under pains and penalties of perjury.

III. Explanations: This caregiver authorization affidavit is pursuant to chapter 201F of the General Laws. A dispute arising hereunder shall be the exclusive jurisdiction of the probate courts pursuant to section 3 of chapter 215 of the General Laws.

A person who relies on a caregiver authorization affidavit that is consistent with the requirements of said chapter 201F has no obligation to make any further inquiry or investigation and shall not incur any criminal or civil liability or be subject to professional discipline for doing so, unless he knows facts contrary to the affidavit or knows that an authorizing party has made a decision to supersede the caregiver's decision. The reliance on the affidavit shall not relieve a person from liability arising from other provisions of the law.
