The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to protect unpaid interns, volunteers, and independent contractors from sexual harassment and other forms of discrimination.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 151B is hereby amended by inserting at the beginning 2 of line 15 the following sentence:-

3 The term “employer” means any organization or individual who engages a person to 4 perform work on their behalf or on behalf of their subsidiaries, customers or clients, whether 5 such work is paid or unpaid.

6 SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 151B is hereby further amended by inserting at the 7 beginning of line 34 the following sentence:-

8 The term “employee” means any individual who engages in work under the control and 9 direction of another, whether such work is paid or unpaid.

10 SECTION 3. Section 4 of chapter 151B is hereby amended by inserting after line 860 the 11 following:-

12 20. It shall be an unlawful practice for an employer, labor organization, employment 13 agency, apprenticeship training program or any training program leading to employment, or any 14 other person to discriminate against any person in the selection, discharge, training, terms or 15 treatment of that person in an apprenticeship, training program, an unpaid internship, or a 16 volunteer program, or any other program designed to provide unpaid work, because of the race, 17 color, religious creed, national origin, sex, handicap, gender identity, genetic information, 18 pregnancy, ancestry, military and veteran status, or sexual orientation. Apprentices, trainees, 19 unpaid interns, and volunteers may file a complaint alleging unlawful discrimination. A limited 20 employment relationship for the purpose of providing protection from discrimination to all 21 persons in the workplace, whether paid or unpaid shall exist, provided, however, that this 22 relationship shall not create an employment relationship under wage and hour provision, 23 workers' compensation, or unemployment insurance.

24 21. It shall be an unlawful practice for an employer, labor organization, employment
25 agency, apprenticeship training program or any training program leading to employment, or any 26 other person, because of the race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, handicap, gender 27 identity, genetic information, pregnancy, ancestry, military and veteran status, or sexual 28 orientation, to harass an applicant, apprentice, trainee, unpaid intern, or a volunteer. An employer 29 may be held liable to an applicant, apprentice, trainee, unpaid intern, or volunteer, with respect to

30 unlawful harassment, when the employer, its agents or supervisors knew or should have known 31 that such applicant, apprentice, trainee, unpaid intern, or volunteer was subjected to harassment
32 in the employer's workplace, and the employer failed to take immediate and appropriate
33 corrective action. A limited employment relationship for the purpose of providing protection 34 from discrimination to all persons in the workplace, whether paid or unpaid shall exist, provided, 35 however, that this relationship shall not create an employment relationship under wage and hour 36 provision, workers' compensation, or unemployment insurance.

37 22. It shall be an unlawful practice for an employer because of the race, color, religious 38 creed, national origin, sex, handicap, gender identity, genetic information, pregnancy, ancestry, 39 military and veteran status, or sexual orientation of any individual or independent contractor, to 40 refuse to contract with such individual or independent contractor, or to otherwise discriminate 41 against such individual or independent contractor with respect to compensation, hire, tenure, 42 terms, conditions or privileges of contract. An independent contractor or individual may file a 43 complaint alleging unlawful discrimination.

44 23. It shall be an unlawful practice for an employer to permit harassment against non-45 employees in its workplace based on race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, handicap, 46 gender identity, genetic information, pregnancy, ancestry, military and veteran status, or sexual 47 orientation. An employer may be held liable to a non-employee who is a contractor, 48 subcontractor, vendor, consultant or other person providing services pursuant to a contract in the 49 workplace or who is an employee of such contractor, subcontractor, vendor, consultant or other 50 person providing services pursuant to a contract in the workplace, when the employer, its agents 51 or supervisors knew or should have known that such non-employee was subjected to harassment
52 in the employer's workplace, and the employer failed to take immediate and appropriate

53 corrective action. In reviewing such cases involving non-employees, the extent of the employer's 54 control and any other legal responsibility that the employer may have with respect to the conduct 55 of the harasser shall be considered. Non-employees may file a complaint alleging unlawful 56 discrimination.

57 24. It shall be unlawful for any person, employer, labor organization or employment 58 agency to harass, discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because he or she 59 has opposed any practices forbidden under this chapter or because he or she has filed a 60 complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this chapter.
