The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act to prevent wage theft, promote employer accountability, and enhance public enforcement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 27C of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “subsection (a)”, in line 58, the 3 following words:- "or section 100, 148E or 150C".

4 SECTION 2. Said section 27C of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby further 5 amended by striking out, in line 159, the words “Civil and criminal” and inserting in place 6 thereof the following word:- "Criminal".

7 SECTION 3. Said section 27C of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby further 8 amended by adding the following subsection:

9 "(d) As a further alternative to initiating criminal proceedings pursuant to subsection (a) 10 or civil proceedings pursuant to subsection (b), the attorney general may file a civil action for 11 injunctive relief, for any damages incurred, and for any lost wages and other benefits on behalf 12 of a worker or multiple, similarly situated workers. If the attorney general prevails in such an 13 action, the worker or workers on whose behalf the attorney general brought the civil action shall 14 be awarded treble damages, as liquidated damages, for any lost wages and other benefits, and the 15 attorney general shall also be awarded court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees."

16 SECTION 4. Said chapter 149 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended 17 by striking out section 148A and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

18 Section 148A. (a) Any person or entity, including an employer or its agent, who in any 19 manner discriminates or takes adverse action, or threatens to discriminate or take adverse action, 20 against any person because that person has opposed a violation of this chapter, complained to the 21 attorney general or to any other person of a violation of this chapter, assisted any other person in 22 exercising rights under this chapter, informed any other person of rights under this chapter, or 23 instituted, assisted in, or testified in any investigation or proceedings under or related to this 24 chapter, or because of a belief that the person may in the future engage in any such actions, shall 25 have violated this section and shall be punished or subject to civil proceedings as provided in 26 subsection (b) or subsection (d) of section 27C, or section 150, and shall recover actual damages, 27 compensatory damages, punitive damages, injunctive relief or any other appropriate relief.

28 (b) There shall be a rebuttable presumption of a violation of this section if a person or 29 entity discriminates or takes adverse action, or threatens to discriminate or take adverse action, 30 against any person within 90 days of that person's exercise of rights under this chapter, including

31 activity protected by this section. This presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing 32 evidence that the action was taken for a permissible purpose and that it would have been taken in 33 the absence of the protected activity.

34 SECTION 5. Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 35 section 148D the following 2 sections:

36 Section 148E. (a) As used in this section and sections 148F and 148G, inclusive, the 37 following words shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly indicates 38 otherwise:

39 “Labor contractor”, a person or entity that obtains, engages or provides 1 or more 40 individuals to perform labor or services, with or without a written contract, directly or indirectly, 41 to a lead contractor or from a labor subcontractor.

42 “Labor subcontractor”, a person or entity that engages or provides 1 or more individuals 43 to perform labor or services, with or without a written contract, directly or indirectly, to a labor 44 contractor.

45 “Lead contractor”, a person or entity that obtains, engages or is provided with 1 or more 46 individuals, directly from a labor contractor or indirectly from a labor subcontractor, to perform 47 labor or services that has a significant nexus with the lead contractor’s business activities, 48 operations or purposes.

49 “Notice”, a written communication mailed, postage prepaid, or hand delivered to the lead 50 contractor’s place of business, registered agent, officer, director, worksite manager or a 51 supervisor, or any other individual identified by the lead contractor as its representative. Notice

52 shall include, if known and available, the name of the employer, the amount of the claim or an 53 explanation of any data needed to calculate the amount of the claim and the dates that the 54 claimant worked.

55 “Owner”, a person or entity with an ownership interest that contracts for labor or services 56 outside of its usual course of business.

57 “Successor entity”, a person or entity that (i) has 1 or more of the same principals, 58 trustees or officers as the person or entity subject to liability; and (ii) is engaged in the same or 59 equivalent trade or activity. A successor entity shall not include an individual transferring jobs in 60 the same or equivalent trade or field.

61 “Wage theft”, a violation of sections 27, 27F, 27G or 27H of chapter 149, the first and 62 third sentences and the fourth paragraph of section 148 of chapter 149, wage theft violations as 63 otherwise defined by this paragraph in section 148B of chapter 149, the fourth sentence of 64 section 150 of chapter 149, section 152A of chapter 149, subsections (c) or (d) of section 159C 65 of chapter 149, or sections 1, 1A, 2A or 7 of chapter 151.

66 (b) An employer, except a staffing agency as defined by section 159C that is licensed or 67 registered pursuant to sections 46A to 46R, inclusive, of chapter 140, shall provide each worker, 68 not later than 10 days after the commencement of employment, with written notice in the 69 language the employer normally uses to communicate employment-related information to the 70 worker, of the following information: (i) the rate or rates of pay and the basis for those rates, 71 whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission or otherwise, including 72 methods of calculation for overtime, if applicable; (ii) allowances, if any, claimed as part of the 73 minimum wage, including meal, tip or lodging allowances; (iii) the regular pay day designated

74 by the employer; (iv) the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” names used 75 by the employer; (v) the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of 76 business and mailing address, if different; (vi) the telephone number of the employer; and (vii) 77 the name, address, and telephone number of the employer’s workers’ compensation insurance 78 carrier.

79 (c) (1) A lead contractor shall be subject to joint and several civil liability with a labor 80 contractor and a labor subcontractor for wage theft, including treble damages and attorney’s fees 81 as identified in Section 150, provided that written notice of the alleged violation to be raised in 82 that action is provided to the lead contractor, labor contractor and labor subcontractor, if 83 applicable, not more than 45 days from the last occurrence of the alleged wage theft.

84 (2) A labor contractor shall be subject to joint and several liability with a labor 85 subcontractor with whom the labor contractor has privity of contract, or implied contract, for 86 wage theft, including treble damages and attorney’s fees as identified in Section 150, provided 87 that written notice of the alleged violation to be raised in that action is provided to the labor 88 contractor and labor subcontractor not more than 45 days from the last occurrence of the alleged 89 wage theft.

90 (3) A lead contractor’s joint and several liability shall be limited to 120 consecutive days 91 of any alleged wage theft, counting back the 120 days from the day of the last violation prior to 92 the notice. This 120-day damages limitation period shall not impact other wage violation 93 remedies available to a claimant.

94 (4) Notice of wage theft violations may be provided by a worker or any other designated 95 person on behalf of similarly situated workers. Any person or entity having a contract with such

96 lead contractor who receives notice shall deliver copies of it forthwith to the lead contractor and 97 either the labor contractor or labor subcontractor that is alleged to have committed wage theft.

98 (5) A successor entity to any lead contractor, labor contractor or labor subcontractor 99 subject to liability under this section shall also be liable under this section.

100 (6) An owner shall not be subject to liability under subsection (c) unless the owner is a 101 lead contractor, labor contractor or labor subcontractor. Subsection (c) shall not impose 102 individual liability on a homeowner for the labor or services received at the homeowner's place 103 of residence or the owner of a home-based business for labor or services received at the 104 homeowner's place of business.

105 (7) A written offer and payment in full of all such wages allegedly owed during the 45-106 day period after a receipt of the notice by a lead contractor, labor contractor or labor 107 subcontractor shall extinguish a lead contractor's liability for damages under this section.

108 (8) If a good faith settlement denial or a partial payment is issued for an alleged wage 109 theft violation within a 45-day period, a lead contractor or a labor contractor shall not be subject 110 to joint and several liability, treble damages or attorney's fees as identified in section 150, and in 111 support of its contention that it responded in good faith, it may offer evidence that it conducted a 112 timely and thorough investigation, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, of a labor 113 contractor or a labor subcontractor's violation with no finding of fault as an affirmative defense.
114 Such an investigation would require: i) an acknowledgment and reasonably prompt action upon 115 receiving notice; ii) adopting and implementing reasonable standards for the prompt 116 investigation; iii) conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information; iv) 117 issuing prompt, fair and equitable settlement of wage theft violation claims in which liability has 118 become reasonably clear; and v) provided the claimant or its designee is provided with a record 119 of the investigation and the results of the investigation.

120 (d) For purposes of this section, a labor contractor or a labor subcontractor shall 121 indemnify a lead contractor for any wages, damages, interest, penalties or attorneys' fees owed 122 or incurred by the lead contractor as a result of the labor contractor or labor subcontractor's wage 123 theft. For purposes of this section, a labor subcontractor shall indemnify a labor contractor for 124 any wages, damages, interest, penalties or attorneys' fees owed by the labor contractor as a result 125 of the labor subcontractor's wage theft.

126 (e) When a lead contractor receives written notice that a labor contractor or labor 127 subcontractor has allegedly failed to pay wages to a person or persons performing labor for the 128 lead contractor, the lead contractor may do one or both of the following: (i) provide the unpaid 129 wages directly to the person or persons performing labor for the lead contractor; or (ii) withhold 130 or cause to be withheld from any payment due to the labor contractor or labor subcontractor the 131 amount sufficient to satisfy the unpaid wages.

132 (f) When an individual applies for unemployment benefits pursuant to chapter 151A, and 133 wage theft occurred during the base period as determined based on credible evidence, the 134 individual's unemployment benefits shall be calculated as if wages had been timely and lawfully 135 paid.

136 (g) The attorney general shall enforce this section and may obtain injunctive or 137 declaratory relief. Violation of this section shall be subject to paragraphs (1), (2), (4) and (7) of 138 subsection (b) of section 27C, and subsection (d) of section 27C, except in cases where the lead

139 contractor, labor contractor or labor subcontractor provides payment in full during the 45-day 140 notice period for any wages allegedly owed, as described in subsection (c).

141 (h) No person or entity shall by contract or any other means be exempted from 142 subsections (a), (b), (c), (e), (f), (g), or (h), or from section 148F. Nothing in this chapter shall 143 limit the availability of other remedies at law or equity.

144 (i) The attorney general may promulgate regulations to implement this section.

145 (j) A lead contractor, labor contractor or labor subcontractor shall not be subject to joint 146 and several liability for non-payment of retirement and health and welfare benefits to an 147 employee benefits fund that has its own collection procedures for delinquent employer 148 remittance as prescribed in a collectively bargained agreement pursuant to the Taft Hartley Act.
149 This shall apply to section 27 and section 150C of chapter 149.

150 Section 148F. (a) The attorney general may investigate a claim of wage theft. Upon 151 finding that any person or entity has engaged in a wage theft violation, the attorney general may 152 issue a stop work order to an employer, requiring the cessation of all business operations of the 153 violating person or entity as to the specific place of business and employment for which the 154 violation exists. Said notice shall also be issued to the officer or agent of the employer and the 155 lead contractor, if any.

156 Not less than 5 days before the commencement of a stop work order under this section, 157 the attorney general shall notify the violating person or entity and the lead contractor, if any, of 158 the intended action and give the person or entity an opportunity to confer with the attorney 159 general in person or through counsel or other representative as to the proposed action. Notice

160 shall be given to the person or entity by mail, postage prepaid, to the usual place of business or, 161 if there is no usual place of business, to the last known address.

162 The stop work order may be issued only against the person or entity that has engaged in a 163 wage theft violation and only as to the specific place of business or employment for which the 164 violation exists. The stop work order shall be effective 48 hours after it is served unless a timely 165 appeal request is filed pursuant to subsection (b). A stop work order shall be served in hand or at 166 a place of business, employment or job site by posting a copy of the stop work order in a 167 conspicuous location. A stop work order shall be released by the attorney general upon a finding 168 that the violation has been corrected.

169 (b) A person or entity aggrieved by the imposition of a stop work order shall have 10 170 days from the date of its service to make a request for a hearing. A person or entity that timely 171 files such an appeal shall be granted a hearing in accordance with chapter 30A not later than 21 172 days after receipt of the appeal. The stop work order shall not be in effect during the pendency of 173 a timely filed appeal.

174 (c) A stop work order imposed against a person or entity shall be effective against any 175 successor entity as defined by section 148E.

176 (d) An employee affected by a stop work order pursuant to this section shall be paid their 177 regular rate for the period the stop work order is in place or the first 10 days the employee would 178 have been scheduled to work if the stop work order had not been issued, whichever is less, by the 179 person or entity that was served the stop work order. Time lost by an employee affected by a stop 180 work order pursuant to this section, not exceeding 10 days, shall be considered time worked 181 under chapters 149 and 151. Subsection (c) of section 148E shall not apply to wages due and 182 payable under this subsection.

183 (e) The attorney general may promulgate regulations to implement this section.

184 SECTION 6. Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 185 section 148F the following section:-

186 Section 148G. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the 187 following meanings:

188 (1) “Aggrieved person”, any employee or former employee, or person providing services 189 for remuneration to another against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed 190 by the alleged violator, whether or not employed by the violator at the time an action is filed, 191 including any person who is not classified by an employer as an employee but who claims to be 192 an employee and whose claims against the purported employer relate to such alleged 193 misclassification.

194 (2) “Public enforcement action”, a civil action brought by a relator under this section to 195 enforce protections enforceable by the attorney general.

196 (3) “Relator”, a whistleblower that acts as a plaintiff in a public enforcement action under 197 this section.

198 (4) “Whistleblower”, an aggrieved person or any current or former employee, contractor, 199 subcontractor, employee of a lead contractor, labor contractor or labor subcontractor of the 200 defendant, vendor, or client with knowledge of the alleged violations that is independent of and 201 materially adds to any publicly disclosed information about the alleged violations.

202 (b) (1) A relator, on behalf of the attorney general and with the consent of the aggrieved 203 person or persons, may initiate a public enforcement action pursuant to the procedures and 204 subject to the limitations specified in subsection (e) of this section. Such action may be brought 205 in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such an action may allege multiple violations that have 206 affected different parties aggrieved by the same defendant.

207 (2) For purposes of public enforcement actions brought pursuant to this section, 208 whenever the attorney general is authorized to assess or seek civil remedies, including penalties, 209 equitable and declaratory relief, and other civil relief, for a violation of wage theft, as defined by 210 section 148E of this chapter, a court is hereby authorized to assess the same civil remedies.

211 (3) When a civil remedy is recovered pursuant to decision or settlement in any public 212 enforcement action, the relator shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

213 (4) Nothing in this section shall operate to limit an aggrieved party's right to pursue a 214 private action based on the same violation or injury.

215 (5) Nothing in this section shall operate to limit the attorney general's right to seek 216 restitution and damages, where available, for aggrieved parties as part of a public enforcement 217 action in which it has intervened.

218 (6) Civil penalties or fines recovered in a public enforcement action or settlement of a 219 proposed action shall be distributed as follows:

220 (i) one-third to the aggrieved person;

221 (ii) one-third to the Community Outreach and Labor Education Fund established in 222 subsection (f) of this section; and 223 (iii) one-third to the attorney general.

224 Any funding received by the attorney general under this section shall be continuously 225 appropriated to supplement, and not supplant, other funding for those purposes.

226 (7) The right to bring a public enforcement action under this section shall not be impaired 227 by any special contract.

228 (8) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a public enforcement action authorized 229 by this section shall be commenced within the same period of time that the attorney general has 230 to take enforcement action under section 150 of this chapter or section 20A of chapter 151. The 231 statute of limitations for bringing a public enforcement action under this section shall be tolled 232 from the date that a relator files a notice pursuant to subsection (e) of this section with the 233 attorney general, or the date that the attorney general commences an investigation, whichever is 234 earlier.

235 (c) (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, no public 236 enforcement action may be brought by a relator:

237 (i) If the attorney general, on the same facts and theories, cites a person or entity within 238 the time periods set forth in subsection (e) of this section for a violation of the same section or 239 sections of the General Laws under which such relator is attempting to recover a civil penalty or 240 other remedy on behalf of aggrieved employees or others, or files a proceeding to assess 241 penalties or to enforce other remedies available to the attorney general, provided that the attorney 242 general provides notice to the relator pursuant to subsection (e) of this section. Public 243 enforcement actions belong to the attorney general and preclude subsequent attorney general 244 enforcement efforts based on the same facts and law, whether brought by the attorney general or

245 by a relator under this section. However, nothing in this section shall operate to limit the attorney 246 general's right to seek additional civil remedies for aggrieved parties as part of a public 247 enforcement action in which it has intervened; or

248 (ii) For any violation of a posting, notice, agency reporting, or filing requirement, except 249 where the filing or reporting requirement involves mandatory payroll reporting.

250 (2) The attorney general shall establish a publicly available online database of public 251 enforcement actions brought pursuant to this section, which may include the names of the 252 parties, the date filed, the disposition, and any other information that the attorney general shall by 253 regulation prescribe.

254 (d) (1) No one shall retaliate or take adverse action in any manner against an aggrieved 255 person or whistleblower, or threaten to retaliate or take adverse action, because:

256 (i) the aggrieved person or whistleblower has brought a public enforcement action;

257 (ii) the aggrieved person or whistleblower has cooperated with a relator in a public 258 enforcement action or the attorney general in investigating, prosecuting, or intervening in a 259 public enforcement action; or

260 (iii) it is anticipated that the aggrieved person or whistleblower may bring a public 261 enforcement action or cooperate with one.

262 (2) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this subsection may enforce it as provided by 263 section 27C or section 150 of this chapter, or as provided by section 19 of chapter 151.

264 (e) (1) No public enforcement action pursuant to this section may be commenced prior to 265 60 days after written notice of the claim has been filed by the relator with the attorney general.

266 (2) The relator shall submit a filing fee of no less than 75 dollars with each filing of 267 notice, subject to any waiver, in accordance with regulations promulgated by the attorney 268 general. Notice and submission of the filing fee shall toll the statute of limitations on the 269 enforcement action for which notice has been provided.

270 (3) The attorney general shall establish an online portal to provide for efficient electronic 271 filing of the notice.

272 (4) The notice shall include:

273 (i) The name, address, and contact information of the alleged violator;

274 (ii) The name and contact information of the relator;

275 (iii) The name, address, and contact information of the relator's legal counsel, should one 276 exist; and

277 (iv) A concise statement of the underlying claim reasonably calculated to apprise the 278 attorney general of the substance and nature of the claim.

279 (5) The attorney general shall, by regulation, provide for the right of a relator to furnish 280 an amended notice, if the attorney general determines that the relator's original notice pursuant 281 to paragraph (1) of this subsection was not in compliance with this section or the regulations
282 issued thereunder. Such determination by the attorney general shall identify with particularity 283 the deficiencies in the original notice. The relator shall have 30 days from receiving the 284 determination of the attorney general of noncompliance with this section to amend the notice.
285 The amended notice will relate back to the original notice.

286 (6) If the attorney general intends to investigate the alleged violation, it shall notify the 287 relator of its decision within 30 days of the date of the notice received pursuant to paragraph (1) 288 of this subsection. Within 120 days of that decision, the attorney general may investigate the 289 alleged violation and issue any appropriate citation. If the attorney general, during the course of 290 its investigation, determines that additional time is necessary to complete the investigation, it 291 may extend the time by not more than 60 additional days and shall issue a notice of the 292 extension. If the attorney general determines that a citation will not be issued, it shall notify the 293 relator of that decision within five business days.

294 (7) If, within 30 days, the attorney general notifies the relator that it does not intend to 295 investigate the alleged violation, the relator may bring a public enforcement action. If, upon an 296 investigation, the attorney general determines that no citation will be issued, it may authorize the 297 relator to commence a public enforcement action.

298 (8) If more than one relator files a public enforcement action on the same facts or 299 allegations as another relator, the actions may be consolidated under Rule 42 of the 300 Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure.

301 (9) If the attorney general does not object to the filing of a public enforcement action 302 pursuant to this section, but objects to the attorney general being represented by a particular 303 attorney proposed by the relator, the attorney general may, within the time limits set forth in 304 paragraph (6) of this subsection, put the relator on notice of the attorney general's objection. The 305 attorney general will establish regulations for notice and a hearing, for purposes of reviewing the 306 attorney general's objection to counsel. Upon finding, after notice and hearing, that, based on 307 the attorney's past conduct while representing a client or clients, the attorney does not meet the 308 required professional standards of representatives, or, alternatively, if the attorney fails to 309 zealously pursue the remedies available under this section, the attorney general may order that 310 the public enforcement shall not be filed by the particular attorney on behalf of the relator.

311 (10) The attorney general may intervene in a public enforcement action and proceed with 312 any and all claims in the action:

313 (i) As of right within 30 days after the filing of the action; or

314 (ii) For good cause shown, as determined by the court, after the expiration of the 30-day 315 period after the filing of the action.

316 (11) If the attorney general intervenes in an action it shall have primary responsibility for 317 prosecuting the action and shall not be bound by an act of the relator bringing the action. In such

332 in the action and shall be supplied with copies of all deposition transcripts. The attorney general

347 time by the attorney general to organizations that are tax-exempt under subsection (c)(3), (c)(4)
348 or (c)(5) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S. C. section 501, for purposes of funding
