In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act establishing a commission on the history of state institutions for people with developmental and mental health disabilities in the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There is hereby established a special commission to study and report on the 2 history of state institutions for people with developmental and mental health disabilities in the 3 Commonwealth. The commission shall be independent of supervision or control by any 4 executive agency and shall provide objective perspectives on the matters before it.

5 In fulfillment of its responsibility the commission shall (1) review existing records in the 6 possession of the commonwealth from, and related to, the network of state institutions for people 7 with developmental disabilities and mental health issues; (2) examine the current availability of, 8 and barriers to, accessing those records for former residents, their descendants, relatives, and the 9 general public; (3) assess the quality of life of former residents now living in the community; (4) 10 assess and compile records of burial locations for all residents who died while in the care of the 11 commonwealth, (5) determine the likelihood and possible location of unmarked graves at former

12 state institutions (6) present a human rights framework for public recognition of the 13 commonwealth's guardianship of citizens with disabilities throughout history, including 14 recommendations for memorialization and public education; (7) collect testimonials from former 15 residents of state institutions as part of a human rights report (8) and submit its findings and 16 recommendations to the secretary of the commonwealth, the clerks of the senate and the house of 17 representatives, the chairs of the joint committee on children families and persons with 18 disabilities not later than January 1, 2023. The secretary shall make the report publicly available.

19 SECTION 2. The commission shall consist of 18 members, 1 of whom shall be a 20 designee of the department of health and human services; 1 of whom shall be a designee of the 21 department of developmental services; 1 of whom shall be a designee of the department of 22 mental health; 1 of whom shall be a designee of the secretary of the commonwealth archives; 1
23 of whom shall be a designee of the secretary of the commonwealth office of the state 24 archaeologist; 2 of whom shall be the chairs of the joint committee on persons with disabilities or 25 their designee; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the disabled persons protection 26 commission; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the centers for independent living in 27 Massachusetts; 1 of whom shall be a former resident of a state institution for people with mental 28 illness appointed by the governor; 1 of whom shall be a former resident of a state institution for 29 people with cognitive and developmental disabilities appointed by the governor; 1 of whom shall 30 be designee of the Arc of Massachusetts; 1 of whom shall be a designee of the Disability Law
31 Center; 1 of whom shall be a designee of Mass Advocates Standing Strong; 1 of whom shall be a 32 designee of Mass Advocates Organizing for Change. 1 of whom shall be a community member 33 designated by the governor; 1 of whom shall be a community member designated by the senate 34 president; and 1 of whom shall be a community member designated by speaker of the house of 35 representatives. A majority of the members of the commission must identify as persons with 36 disabilities. In making appointments, the chairperson shall, to the maximum extent feasible, 37 ensure that the commission represents a broad distribution of perspectives and geographic 38 regions.
