In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to a property tax exemption for disabled veterans.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Clause 22E of section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 781 through 784, the words 3 “to the amount of six thousand dollars of the taxable valuation of real property or the sum of 4 $1,000, whichever would result in an abatement of the greater amount of actual taxes due,
5 provided, that such real estate is occupied as his domicile by such person; and provided further,
6 that if said property be greater than a single-family house, then only that value of so much of said
7 house as is occupied by said person as his domicile or a proportionate part of $1,000, whichever 8 would result in an abatement of the greater amount of actual taxes due, shall be exempted” and 9 inserting in place thereof the following:-

10 shall receive a total exemption from payment of his or her real property taxes, provided 11 that such real estate is occupied as his or her domicile by such person. The state treasurer shall 12 annually reimburse each city and town for the amount of taxes lost by such city or town through 13 an abatement to a veteran with such disability rating of one hundred per cent or to the surviving 14 spouse of such veteran, authorized by the commissioner of revenue.
