67 material of which such article is made.

68 Section 2. (a) The licensing authority in any city or town may license suitable persons to 69 engage in secondary metal dealing within the borders of such municipality. A licensing 70 authority may make additional rules, regulations and restrictions, not inconsistent with this 71 chapter, which shall be expressed in all licenses issued pursuant to this section; provided, 72 however, that such regulations shall include a requirement that a license issued pursuant to this 73 section shall expire 1 year from the date of issue, may be renewed, and a fee of $250 shall be

77 renewals for such licenses; and provided further, that any application for licensure or renewal 78 shall designate a resident agent for service of process which designation may only be withdrawn, 82 205, inclusive.

83 (b) A licensing authority shall enter premises used by any licensee to engage in secondary 84 metals dealing, wherein the records required to be maintained under this chapter are stored or 85 maintained, and inspect, in a reasonable manner, such records and inventory at least once per 86 calendar year during regular business hours for the purpose of enforcing this chapter. If the 87 records or inventory contain evidence of a violation of this chapter, the inspecting officer shall 88 produce and take possession of copies of the records but, if the licensee does not possess the 89 means to provide copies, the inspecting officer shall arrange to obtain copies in a reasonable time 90 and manner, those records that contain evidence of the violation and the costs for obtaining the 91 copies shall be assessed against the owner of the records.

92 (c) The licensing authority, his authorized agent or a police officer may at any time enter 93 upon premises being used for secondary metals dealing to ascertain whether or not the operator 94 thereof is validly licensed, whether such enterprise is being operated in accordance with this 95 chapter, and examine all articles received or stored in or upon the premises and all books, records 96 and inventory relating thereto. A secondary metals dealer shall exhibit to the licensing authority, 97 his authorized agent, or a police officer, upon demand, all such articles, books or inventory.

98 (d) The department of state police and municipal police shall enforce this chapter.

99 Section 3. (a) It shall be illegal to engage in secondary metals dealing without a license

111 obtained that metal;

112 (2) a photocopy of a government issued identification card, issued to the person from 113 whom the metal is received; provided, however, that if a photograph of such person does not

116 market value in excess of $250, unless such article bears an identifying number or mark 117 imprinted or embossed on such article during the manufacturing process and unique to such 118 object or to the object from which the metal was taken including, but not limited to, a vehicle

119 identification number; provided, however, that any photograph depicting more than 1 such 120 article shall be sufficiently clear so as to distinguish each article from any other article in the 123 article shall be required unless the article is gold, silver or platinum with a fair market value over 124 $250, in the condition in which it was received, in which case such article shall be photographed

138 economically thereby;

140 premises used for secondary metals dealing, fail to exhibit to the licensing authority, his

141 authorized agent or a police officer, upon demand, all articles, books or inventory, or willfully

150 distributor of these metal articles shall be exempt from this clause if such manufacturer or 151 distributor refills, reuses or recycles such articles of its own manufacture or that it distributes.

152 receive any motor vehicle or trailer, or part thereof, which such dealer knew, or 153 reasonably should have known, that the identifying number or mark thereon had been removed, 154 defaced, altered, destroyed or obliterated.

155 (c) It shall be illegal to knowingly provide a false name, address, date of birth or proof of 156 identification, or a false source from which metal or metal articles were obtained to a secondary 157 metals dealer, with the intent to exchange metal or metal articles for money or some other thing 158 of value.

159 (d) Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished, for a first offense, 160 by a fine of not more than $2,500 or by imprisonment in the house of correction for not more 161 than 2½ years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Whoever commits a second or 162 subsequent violation of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $2,500 nor more

163 than $10,000 or by imprisonment in the house of correction for not more than 2½ years or in the 164 state prison for not less than 5 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

165 (e) Upon a third or subsequent violation of this chapter, the license of a secondary metals 166 dealer shall be void and the licensing authority shall permanently revoke such license and such 167 license revocation may be imposed in addition to any criminal penalties imposed as a result of a 168 violation of this chapter.

169 Section 5. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, 100 per cent of the 170 fines imposed pursuant to a violation of this chapter shall be transferred by the court to the state
171 treasurer for deposit into the Secondary Metals Registry Trust Fund, established under section 172 35LL of chapter 10.

173 Section 6. Any premises used for secondary metals dealing and operated in violation of 174 this chapter shall be deemed a nuisance and the licensing authority, the state police or local 175 police department of the municipality in which such premises are located, the applicable district 176 attorney or the attorney general may make application to the superior court in the county wherein 177 the secondary metals dealing operation is established or maintained for an injunction to abate 178 such nuisance.

179 Section 7. (a) The following property shall be subject to forfeiture:

180 all metal or metal articles which have been received, maintained, transferred or altered or 181 in any manner obtained or kept in violation of this chapter;

182 all materials, products and equipment of any kind used, or intended for use, in processing, 183 transporting, purchasing, exchanging or recycling metals or metal articles in violation of this 184 chapter;

191 of value, and all moneys, negotiable instruments and securities used, or intended to be used, to 192 facilitate any violation of this chapter;

193 all real property, including any right, title and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of 194 land and any appurtenances or improvements thereto, which is used in any manner or part, to 195 commit or to facilitate the commission of a violation of this chapter; and 196 all property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in 197 clauses (1) or (2).

198 (b) No forfeiture under this section shall extinguish a perfected security interest held by a 199 creditor in a conveyance or in any real property at the time of the filing of the forfeiture action.

200 (c) Property subject to forfeiture under subsection (a) shall, upon motion of the petitioner, 201 be declared forfeit by any court having jurisdiction over such property or having final 202 jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding brought under this chapter.

203 (d) The court shall order forfeiture of all conveyances and of all real property subject to 204 subsection (a), except as follows:

205 No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as 206 a common carrier shall be forfeited unless it shall appear that the owner or other person in charge 207 of such conveyance was a consenting party to, or privy to, a violation of this chapter.

208 No conveyance shall be forfeited by reason of any act or omission established by the 209 owner thereof to have been committed or omitted by any person other than such owner while 210 such conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation 211 of the criminal laws of the United States, or of the commonwealth or of any other state.

212 No conveyance or real property shall be subject to forfeiture unless the owner thereof 213 knew, or should have known, that such conveyance or real property was used in and for the 214 business of secondary metals dealing in violation of this chapter. Proof that the conveyance or 215 real property was used to facilitate a violation of this chapter on 3 or more different dates shall be 216 prima facie evidence that the conveyance or real property was used in and for the business of 218 (e) (1) The attorney general, a district attorney or a municipality may petition the superior 219 court in the name of the commonwealth or, in the case of a municipality, in such municipality's 220 name, in the nature of a proceeding in rem to order forfeiture of property subject to forfeiture 221 under subsection (a). Such petition shall be filed in the court having jurisdiction over such 222 property or having final jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding brought under this 223 chapter. If the property is claimed by any person, other than the commonwealth, the plaintiff in 224 all such suits shall have the burden of proving to the court the existence of probable cause to

225 institute the action and any such claimant shall then have the burden of proving that the property 226 is not forfeitable pursuant to subsection (a). The owner of such property, or other person 227 claiming thereunder, shall have the burden of proof as to the exceptions set forth in subsections 228 (d) and (i). The court shall order the forfeiture petitioner to give notice, by certified or registered 229 mail, to the owner of the property which is the subject of the forfeiture proceeding and to such 230 other persons as appear to have an interest therein and the court shall promptly, but not less than 231 2 weeks after notice, hold a hearing on the petition. Upon the motion of the owner of such 232 property, the court may continue the hearing on the petition pending the outcome of any criminal 233 trial related to the violation of this chapter. At such hearing, the court shall hear evidence and 234 make conclusions of law and shall thereupon issue a final order from which the parties shall have 235 a right of appeal. In all such suits in which a final order results in an order of forfeiture, the final 236 order shall provide for disposition of such property by the commonwealth, or any subdivision 237 thereof, in any manner not prohibited by law, including official use by authorized law 238 enforcement or other public agency or sale at public auction or by competitive bidding. The 239 proceeds of any such sale shall be used to pay the reasonable expenses of the forfeiture 240 proceedings, seizure, storage, maintenance of custody, advertising and notice and the balance 241 thereof shall be distributed as provided in subparagraph (2).

242 (2) The final order of the court shall provide that moneys and the proceeds of any sale 243 conducted pursuant to subparagraph (1) shall be distributed equally among the prosecuting 244 district attorney or attorney general, the municipal or state police department involved in the 245 seizure and the municipality in which such property is located. If more than 1 police department 246 was substantially involved in the seizure, the court having jurisdiction over the forfeiture 247 proceeding shall equitably divide, among each of the departments involved, the 1/3 share of the

248 money and proceeds of such sale that would be distributed as if a single department was involved 249 in the seizure.

250 (3) There shall be established, within the office of the state treasurer, separate special law 251 enforcement trust funds for each district attorney and for the attorney general. All such monies 252 and proceeds received by the attorney general or any prosecuting district attorney pursuant to this 253 subparagraph shall be deposited into such a trust fund and may be expended without further 254 appropriation to defray the costs of protracted investigations, to provide additional technical 255 equipment or expertise, to provide matching funds to obtain federal grants, or such other law 256 enforcement purposes as the attorney general or such district attorney deems appropriate.

257 All such moneys and proceeds received by any police department pursuant to this 258 subparagraph shall be deposited into a special law enforcement trust fund and may be expended 259 without further appropriation to defray the costs of protracted investigations, to provide 260 additional technical equipment or expertise, to provide matching funds to obtain federal grants, 261 or to accomplish such other law enforcement purposes as the colonel of state police or applicable 262 chief of police deems appropriate, but such funds shall not be considered a source of revenue to 263 meet the operating needs of such department.

264 (f) Any officer, department, or municipality having custody of any property subject to 265 forfeiture under this chapter or having disposed of such property shall keep and maintain full and 266 complete records showing from whom it received such property, under what authority it held or 267 received or disposed of such property, to whom it delivered such property, the date and manner 268 of destruction or disposition of such property, and the exact kind, quantity and form of such 269 property. The records shall be open to inspection by the attorney general and state officers

270 charged with enforcement of this chapter. Persons making final disposition or destruction of such 271 property under court order shall report, under oath, to the court the exact circumstances of such 272 disposition.

273 (g) (1) During the pendency of forfeiture proceedings, the court may issue, at the request 274 of the petitioner, ex parte, any preliminary order or process as is necessary to seize or secure the 275 property for which forfeiture is sought and to provide for its custody including, but not limited 276 to: an order that the petitioner remove the property, if possible, and safeguard it in a secure 277 location in a reasonable fashion; that monies be deposited in an interest-bearing escrow account 278 and; that a substitute custodian be appointed to manage such property or a business enterprise.
279 Property taken or detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but once seized shall be 280 deemed to be lawfully in the custody of the petitioner pending forfeiture, subject only to the 281 orders and decrees of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Process for seizure of such property 282 shall issue only upon a showing of probable cause, and the application therefore and the 283 issuance, execution, and return thereof shall be subject to chapter 276, so far as applicable.

284 (2) The office of seized property management within the division of capital asset 285 management and maintenance, established under section 47 of chapter 94C, shall preserve and 286 manage property seized pursuant to this chapter, in a reasonable fashion, dispose of such 287 property upon a judgment ordering forfeiture issued pursuant to this chapter and enter into 288 contracts to preserve, manage and dispose of such property. The office of seized property 289 management shall be funded by a portion of the proceeds of each sale of such managed property 290 to the extent provided as payment of reasonable expenses under subsection (e).

291 (h) The owner of any real property which is the principal domicile of the immediate 292 family of the owner and which is subject to forfeiture under this section may file a petition for 293 homestead exemption with the court having jurisdiction over such forfeiture. The court may, in 294 its discretion, allow the petition exempting from forfeiture an amount allowed under section 1 of 295 chapter 188. The value of the balance of such principal domicile, if any, shall be forfeited as 296 provided in this section. Such homestead exemption may be acquired on only 1 principal 297 domicile for the benefit of the immediate family of the owner.

298 (i) A forfeiture proceeding affecting the title to real property or the use and occupation 299 thereof, or the buildings thereon, shall not have any effect except against the parties thereto and 300 persons having actual notice thereof, until a memorandum containing the names of the parties to 301 such proceeding, the name of the municipality wherein the affected real property lies, and a 302 description of such real property sufficiently accurate for identification is recorded in the registry 303 of deeds for the county or district wherein the real property lies. At any time after a judgment on 304 the merits, or after the discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition is recorded by the 305 court having jurisdiction over such matter, the clerk of such court shall issue a certificate of such 306 judgment, discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition and that certificate shall be 307 recorded in the registry in which the original memorandum recorded pursuant to this section was 308 filed.
