8 at the rate of 5 per cent. Upon the death of the owner of the property, or upon the death of the 10 deferred taxes, plus accrued interest, shall be made to the commonwealth.

11 and is further amended by adding the following paragraph: -

12 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, upon acceptance of this 13 paragraph by a city or town, the board of assessors shall annually reduce the property tax on the 14 real property of a person who has reaches his seventieth birthday before the fiscal year for which 15 the tax is due, and has lived in the municipality for 30 years or longer, to the amount of tax due 16 on the property in the fiscal year prior to the person reaching the age of 70, if the person occupies 17 the real estate as his domicile or occupies the same jointly with his spouse.

18 SECTION 2. Chapter 60 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting the 19 following new section:--Section 37C Security Interest on taxable personal property

20 Taxes assessed upon personal property under the provisions of chapter fifty-nine, 21 including section eighteen, with all accrued interest, incidental charges and fees provided for in 22 chapter fifty-nine, and other provisions of this chapter shall be a security interest in the personal 23 property so taxed, as well as all after acquired consumer goods, equipment and inventory and the 24 proceeds from the sale of any such personal property until the security interest is terminated as 25 provided in this section.

26 The assessment of personal property taxes by a municipal board of assessors shall have 27 the force and effect of a signed security agreement under the provisions of chapter one hundred-
28 six, hereinafter referred to in this section as “the Uniform Commercial Code.” The security 29 interest shall have the force and effect of an unperfected security interest in accordance with the 30 provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code and once perfected shall have the force and effect
31 of a perfected security interest in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Commercial 32 Code.

37 Commercial Code, provided that the collector may file a financing statement no earlier than 38 fourteen days following the mailing of a demand to the taxpayer.

39 The collector shall, upon perfection of the security interest, add the cost of filing the 40 financing statement and the cost of filing a termination statement plus an additional fee of five 41 dollars for the preparation of the financing statement and an additional fee of five dollars for the 42 preparation of a termination statement to the balance due.

43 If it appears to the collector that a filed financing statement is going to lapse, the collector 44 shall file a continuation statement, as well as succeeding continuation statements in accordance 45 with the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code, to continue the effectiveness of the initial 46 financing statement, adding to the balance due the cost of filing each necessary continuation 47 statement plus a fee of five dollars for their preparation.

49 provided by chapter fifty-nine and other provisions of this chapter have been fully abated or fully

51 interest was perfected, the collector or an assignee of the collector shall file a termination
52 statement at the office of the state secretary in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform

60 assignment of the tax receivable.

61 If a tax receivable and security interest has not previously been assigned, the collector 62 shall assign the tax receivable and the security interest, in accordance with the provisions of the 63 Uniform Commercial Code, to any other secured party holding a concurrent security interest in 64 the same personal property, regardless of when the other secured party's interest was perfected, 65 if that secured party fully pays the balance due to the collector.

66 All remedies available to holders of secured interests under the provisions of the Uniform 67 Commercial Code for default of an underlying obligation shall be available to the collector or to 68 an assignee to collect the balance due and the use of the provisions of the Uniform Commercial 69 Code by the collector or an assignee shall not interfere with the ability of the collector or an 70 assignee to use other remedies, including the further accrual of interest on the tax receivable, as 71 provided in chapter fifty-nine, this chapter or any other applicable provision of law to collect the 72 balance due.

73 All terms used in this section shall be defined by reference to those terms as they are used
74 under the Uniform Commercial Code unless specific reference is made in this section to another 75 provision of law.

76 SECTION 3. Section 95 of Chapter 60 is hereby amended by inserting at the end of the
