The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to equitable pay at quasi-public agencies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a). No at-will employees of any state authority, as defined in section 1 of 2 chapter 29, may be provided compensation in salary or wages in excess of the salary provided to
3 the Governor of the Commonwealth, as set forth in section 1 of chapter 6, as so appearing.

4 (b). No state authority, as defined in section 1 of chapter 29, may enter into a contract,
5 executed after the passage of this act, with any employee that provides compensation in salary or 6 wages in excess of the salary provided to the Governor of the Commonwealth, as set forth in 7 section 1 of chapter 6, as so appearing.

8 (c). All state authorities, as defined in section 1 of chapter 29, shall submit by December
9 31, 2013, to the Senate and House Committees on Ways and Means a compensation reduction

10 report that shall include, but not be limited to, a plan that details all percentage salary reductions,
11 wage freeze, furloughs and reduction of employees including attrition.

12 (d). A state authority may provide compensation in excess of the amount referenced in 13 sections (a) and (b) of this chapter, provided that the authority:

14 (1) provides notice to the governor, treasurer, auditor, senate and house ways and 15 means committee, and senate and house post-audit and oversight committee setting forth reasons
16 for excess compensation;

17 (2) publish said notice to the general public;

18 (3) provides a 30 day public comment period and conducts a public hearing on 19 said compensation
